ANOTHER ENTERPRISE PROBABLE.

Mr. Kent Blair To Probably Open a Drug Store There—The School Boys Having Their Fun—Personals.
Written for The Standard.

Mt. Pleasant, Oct. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. P. Cook were the guests of Captain Cook today.

Dr. Kent Blair, of Charlotte, passed through here today on his way to Albemarle. Dr. Blair will probably put a stock of drugs in the old Cook & Foil building in the near future.

Mr. Dock Safrin, who has been in school here left for his home in Concord this morning, where he has accepted a position as overseer in one of the cotton mills in that place.

Mr. Harry Foil, son of Mr. L. J. Foil, who has been sick of the fever, is getting along very nicely.

Some of the College students had quite a jolly time last night at the expense of one of their fellows. A certain young theologian suggested a raid on a nearby roasting ear patch. The wink was given and in a short while they could be seen gathering green corn just in the rear of Dr. Foil's. The usual pistol shot was fired and away went the rogues. When next seen, the young theologian was standing in the "Prep Hall", with one small green "nubbin". What next?

Miss Ida Allen, of Durham, who has been visiting Miss Jennie Skeen for the past few days, has returned to her home.

Miss Daisy James, who has been visiting relatives in Rock Hill, has returned home.

Miss Blanche McAllister, who has been suffering with rheumatism, is improving.

Their Annual Meeting Held.

The stockholders of the Concord Telephone Co. held their annual meeting Tuesday night. The officers of the past year were re-elected, which are as follows: Dr. W. C. Houston, President; Jno. P. Allison, Vice-President; L. D. Coltrane, Secretary and Treasurer; Dr. W. H. Lilly and N. F. Yorke, directors. The other officers of the organization are also directors. The report of the business was gratifying to the stockholders.

Miss Margaret McCall Weds.

Today, the 11th, Miss Margaret McCall, who some months ago visited Miss Janie Ervin at this place for some time, will be married in Raleigh to Mr. Wm. D. Carmichael. Miss McCall is a charming young lady, very popular and well known in different parts of the State. Mr. Carmichael is a prominent educator and has been connected with the Durham schools for some time.

Converse Gets $500,000.

The late D. E. Converse left one third of his estate to the college that he founded. Thus it seems Converse is the fortunate donee of $500,000.

Policeman Blackwelder found a trainbeater Tuesday night. The fellow was deaf and dumb. Nothing was done with him.

MAD DOG SCARE.

It Attacks a Man in the Neighborhood and Bites Animals—A Profitable Move to Missouri—Other News.
Written for The Standard.

ORGAN CHURCH, Oct. 10.—Our community had a regular mad dog scare last Friday morning, just before daylight, as Mr. Mac Wilhelm was feeding he was attacked by a mad dog. The only weapon Mr. Wilhelm could get hold of was a goods box, and with that he managed to keep the dog off. At Mr. Obediah Eller's the dog bit a cow; at Jno. Yates' it bit a calf. The next we hear of it is at Rockwell, where it was killed by the fireman of the Rockwell roller mills, with a piece of wood.

Mrs. Mary Roberts, of Missouri, is visiting relatives and friends in our "burg." Mrs. Roberts is a daughter of the late Christopher Harkey, and was raised near Organ church. About thirty years ago Mr. Harkey, with his family, moved to Missouri, and homesteaded some public lands. Soon a railroad was built and a station located on his land. Around this a town is built, and Mr. Harkey realizes considerable wealth by selling lots.

Miss Effie Klutz, organist at Organ church, has secured a position in the millinery department in G. W. Fink's new department store.

Arthur Bost, who attended the school at China Grove for two and a half months, is at home. He says he came out a full-fledged M. D. (mule driver) as he has been driving (plowing) a mule since he is at home.

Communion meeting at Organ church the fourth Sunday of this month. Preparatory services on Saturday at 1:30 p. m.

From the Village of Glass.

Glass, Oct. 22.—Rev. W. B. Oney preached a fine sermon at Center Grove church last Sunday. There was no preaching at Bethpage.

The Southern Railway has been doing some work on our depot the last few days.

Some of the pupils in Mr. Hammond's school will graduate in a few days. He says birds are right plenty this year.

Miss Carr'e Gillon is visiting in Rowan and will return home Friday.

There was a little cutting affair two miles north of this place Sunday evening, but no one was seriously hurt.

A meeting will commence at Bethpage church on Friday, before the fourth Sunday.

Miss Maggie Brumley, of Forest Hill, is visiting friends here this week.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist

SPINAL weakness easily cured. Dr. Miles' Nerve Plaster

Miss Ella Powell Dead.

About two years ago a lady named Miss Ella Powell came to this place from Virginia and was an operative in one of the cotton mills here. Some time ago she was taken sick with typhoid fever and despite all care and attention possible death was the result. She died Tuesday night at Mrs. Richardson's at Cannonville. She was a young lady and had no relatives here. The funeral was preached by Rev. T. W. Smith at Mrs. Richardson's. The remains were interred in the cemetery.

A Believer of Spiritualism.

Mr. Geo. A. Letford, who each year visits Concord once in the interest of H. E. Bucklen & Co. spent Tuesday here. Mr. Letford is known in many States as the travelling spiritualist and numbers of places always look forward to his coming, that they may have him to spend an evening, giving some demonstration of his spiritualistic work. Mr. Letford has had quite a number of interesting experiences while in circles of spectators. He is a firm believer in this religion.

An Experience With a Wheat Drill.

One of Mr. Jno. S. Turner's sons had an experience last Monday evening after leaving here with a new wheat drill. The team ran away, breaking the drill slightly and came near dragging him. He saw in time that one of the drills were going to hook him and quickly gave a kick, which broke the drill off. It was a fortunate kick.

Cotton Slightly Off.

Cotton has been up to 7.80 on our market here within the last week but it is off slightly now, the best bringing 7.60 while most of it is being bought for 7.50. One hundred bales were on the market today (Wednesday) at press time.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it as bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

War Seems Inevitable.

To all human appearances the last ray of hope that war in the Transvaal was to be averted has fled. Those sturdy Dutchmen have taken the aggressive and sent to the English practical ultimatum that named 5 o'clock today (Wednesday) as the period at which a compliance would be considered a practical declaration of war. It is hardly supposable that Great Britain will accede. One of the Boer demands is that British troops now on the high seas shall not be landed on any part of South Africa.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. M. L. Marsh & Co. will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

Charles B. Aycock for Governor.

The people of North Carolina will in a few short months be casting about for a suitable man for governor of this great State. There are numbers of true and tried men all over the State and the people would be delighted to honor all of them. But if there is no man among all these who, like Saul of old, stands head and shoulders above his fellows, that man is Charles B. Aycock, of Goldsboro. In every campaign he has thrown himself in the thickest of the fight, and whenever there arose a Goliath in the ranks of the opposition, Aycock has been the David to do the business for him. If the wishes of the voters of this section have any weight in Democratic conventions, that matchless campaigner and true, loyal North Carolinian, C. B. Aycock, will be the next governor of this State.—Lexington Dispatch
