A NEGRO ESCAPES.

After Two Years a Criminal Is Captured and Escapes the Second Time—Personal.

Written for The Standard.

CHINA GROVE, Oct. 16.—Mr. John Plaster, who was living with Mr. Bing Beaver, of this place, died Saturday evening. He was buried at Enochville Sunday evening.

Rev. Henderson N Miller and family, of Mt. Pleasant, are visiting at Mrs. I F Patterson's. Rev. Miller held services at Grace Lutheran church Sunday and at St. Mark's E L church that night.

Mr. Charles. Watkins, of Spartanburg, spent Sunday here with his family.

Mrs. Summerville, of Durham, is stopping at Dr. J B Gaither's.

Mrs. George Winecoff returned to Albemarle Saturday morning, after spending a week at her father's.

Mr. Arthur Ford, of Statesville, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Flora Sechler.

Mr. Robert Lafferty, of Davidson college, is spending some-time with his father, Dr. J S Lafferty.

A number of our young people attended communion services at Ebenezer Sunday.

Tom Scott, a negro, who was arrested for stealing cotton seed from Mr. Efird about two years ago, and escaped, was caught by Policeman Smith, Saturday evening. On their way to jail the negro made his escape again.

Messrs. Colin Miller and H S Sechler spent Sunday in Salisbury.

He Is in Trouble Now.

Graham Wagoner, a young man of Chester, S. C., son of the J W Wagoner who is confined in jail for retailing whiskey here a number of months ago, is in trouble here now, and was put in jail also Monday night. The officers got hold of the fact that this young man was attempting to induce the witnesses against his father to leave the town that night. Deputy Townsend and Policeman Johnson went to the depot and found the fellow and also the two witnesses. They were brought up town and the young fellow, Wagoner, was tried. He was taken to jail to await trial in the court house, and the witnesses were bound over for their appearance at the trial. The charge against this young man is now a serious one and it is well that the officers were so vigilant as to capture the fellow before the train arrived that night.

Columbia Comes in Ahead.

The first race between the Columbia and the Shamrock was effected Monday, and the wind blew the Yankee boat in about ten minutes ahead of the Irish craft. 'Rah for Merikyl

SERVED HIM RIGHT.

Pastor Oney Gets a Pounding.

The people of St. Andrews congregation have been sitting quietly and letting their pastor say what he pleased now for some time. But they have been laying for him a good pounding. They built a place in which to keep him and put him into it Monday with the implied command, "Now abide there!" But they were not yet done with him, and when the evening shades gathered around, they gathered in and made it warm for him. He is of that hardy Virginia stock that bears up well, so he survived, and is jolly in anticipation of augmented avoirdupois and his spirits are light and gay as a prospective bridegroom's.

Complimentary to Mrs. H M Barrow.

The Henderson Gold Leaf has the following to say of Mrs. H M Barrow, of this place, who has been at that place visiting:

"Mrs. Herbert M Barrow, of Concord, one of the most devoted of the "Daughters," as she is one of the most lovable of women, is attending the convention this week. As a young lady (Miss Maggie Garret, of Halifax,) Mrs. Barrow was a frequent visitor to Henderson and her presence gives pleasure to her many friends and admirers among our citizens. With her bright and beautiful little daughter Adelaide she is the guest of Mrs. Manning."

Taken to Statesville for Trial.

Mr. Jas. S Free, of Asheboro, who is in the revenue service, came here Monday night to take Geo. M R Cline to Statesville for trial for violating the revenue laws. Geo. Cline has been confined in our jail here for four months, and it is thought that, owing to the fact that he has been confined here so long, his sentence will not be very long.

He Gets His News Directly.

Mr. W G Boshamer, who is manager of the market quotations for Murphy & Co., of New York, is not satisfied with a wire from Richmond, Va., and his company now has a wire running into his office directly from New York, and he gets the quotations in no way curtailed. Mr. S W McDuffie, a telegraph operator, arrived here Monday night from Reidsville to take charge of the instruments.

The Concert Next Tuesday Night.

Quite an amount of good music has been recently obtained by the band and it is their intention to give a concert on Tuesday night of next week in Caton's hall. There will also be some vocal music in the program by some of our best home talent.

Committees Appointed to Secure Homes.

The four ministers of the Methodist churches here, together with a number of the stewards of the churches, met Monday night and appointed committees to secure homes for the ministers and delegates that will be here next month to attend the Conference of the Western North Carolina district. At present 317 people have expressed their intention of coming. The minister of each church with two stewards, compose the committees. Central M. E. church has three stewards appointed with their pastor.

Jas. Foreman Not Guilty.

The case of the State vs Jno. Q Foreman and J C Black for an affray was tried Monday afternoon. Hon. Theo. F Klutz and Judge Montgomery spoke in defence of Mr. Foreman, while Solicitor Rush prosecuted. Mr. Black submitted to his part of the affray. Judge Robinson completed his charge to the jury at 6.30 in the evening. The jury rendered their verdict that Mr. Foreman was not guilty. It will be remembered that this affray occurred at Brown's stables that afternoon before the shooting affair of that night several months ago.

Officers for the Company Elected.

A meeting of the Cabarrus Black Boys was held in their armory Monday night. This meeting was held for the purpose of electing the commissioned officers. Mr. Eli Goldston was elected as their captain, Andrew Grier first lieutenant, and Garah Caldwell second lieutenant.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Mr. Gray Barber returned to Charlotte last night.

—Miss Pearl Brown will leave tomorrow morning to attend the State fair.

—Misses Constance Cline and Chassie Brown returned to Elizabeth College last night.

Hats.

Two of the Leading Styles.

HOWARD STYLE

This time it is a Big Hat Sale.

Some days ago we had a big shoe sale which was a grand success because people found just what they expected. We advertised bargain shoes, had bargain shoes, and sold bargain shoes. Commencing next Friday, Oct. 20th, we will put on our counters 500 Sample Hats at less than manufacturer's cost. We bought them cheap and are going to sell them the same way. We say that we will sell you hats at Half-Price and we mean it. The sizes are mostly 7 and 7 1/2. So if you have the big head just a little you can get favored. They will be placed on counters in the front of the store same as our shoe sale. Each lot will be carefully marked and you can make your selection:

- $2.50 and $3.00 hats go at $1.48. $2.00 and $2.25 hats go on counter for the small price of $1.25. $2.00 hats and $1.50 go on the 98 cent counter. Other Men's hats as low as 25 cents, worth double the price. Just think 500 mens' hats and no two alike. Oh, my, want we have a crowd.

You never saw such Prices as we will have on fine hats. You want to be here Friday or Saturday for Monday you might have to take Hobson's choice.

Underwear!

These cool mornings should push your thoughts towards Underwear and we are just the people to fill your wants. We undoubtedly have the most complete line to be found and the prices, to be sure, we make them O. K. Friday we expect to throw out one case of 25 dozen Mens' Heavy Fleece Ribbed Shirts and Drawers, sold everywhere at 50c. a garment, for a few days at the special price of 39c., or 75c. a suit. Everything in Women's and Childrens Underwear, wool or cotton. Big values hitched onto small prices.
