

August Flowers.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houston, "that my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free at Fetzer's drug store. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

The Editor's Mistake.
Editors have their troubles. One of these men who presides over the destinies of a Western newspaper is mourning the loss of two subscribers. No. 1 wrote asking how to raise his twins safely, while the other wanted to know how he might rid his orchard of grasshoppers. The answers went forward by mail, but by accident the editor put them into the wrong envelopes, so that the man with the twins received the answer: "Cover them carefully with straw and set fire to it, and then the little pests, after jumping in the flames for a few minutes, will be speedily settled."
And the man with the grasshoppers was told to "give castor oil and rub their gums with a bone."

Flaming Experience.
Mr. Joe Crowder a tinner in Raleigh was carrying his tinner's stove coming down stairs from his work on the roof of a house last Tuesday. A quart bottle of benzine was tipped over by the stove's striking it when an explosion occurred enveloping him in flames. The fire was quickly subdued and Mr. Crowder was not seriously hurt though considerably singed. It seems a realization of Capt. Cogler's famous words at the battle of Manila, "Out of the jaws of hell and not much the worse for it."

Stood Death Off.
E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: My brother was very low with malarial and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life. This remedy expels malaria, kills the disease germs and purifies the blood, aids digestion, regulates liver, kidney and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50¢ at Fetzer's drug store.

A Night of Terror.
"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Marchias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her. This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung disease. Only 50¢ and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's drug store.

Job Work.
"Mamma, what would you do if that big vase in the parlor should get broken?" said Tommy, my.
"I should spank whoever did it," said Mrs. Banks, gazing severely at her little son.
"Well, then, you'd better begin to get up your muscles," said Tommy, gleefully, "coz papa's broken it."—Crypt.
