A PROBABLE CHANGE.

A Petition Being Circulated for a Change in the Sewerage Pipe on Spring Street—To Lay Aside a Part of the Present One and Run it Down Mill Street.

As stated some days ago the sewerage pipe on Spring street is giving the town authorities a good amount of trouble these days, which has already necessitated the pipe being cut in a number of places. In view of this trouble, which has arose before this time too, and the fact that this trouble is only a short distance from where the town gets its supply of drinking water, a petition has been framed and is receiving names asking that the Town Board do away with the sewerage pipe leading from the intersection of Mill and Spring streets over to the hollow near the graded school. Instead of this pipe they ask that the pipe be run down Mill street connecting with the present one down in the hollow. It is claimed that by this chance there will be such an incline down Mill street that there is scarcely any change of a pipe clogging. Of course the pipe leading from the graded school will be left connected.

Has Returned to His Home.

Mr. H M Brady, who for several months has been spending his time in and near Concord on account of the placing of the iron bridge across Rocky River, left Thursday night for his home at Chattanooga. He hopes to return in several months when all of the material arrives for the Pharr's mill bridge. The cylinder peers which will be placed on both sides, instead of at one side as was at first stated, will be about twenty-five feet long and two and one-half feet in diameter. After being placed they will be filled with concrete. These peers are less expensive than other peers, and are still better than the most of peers of masonry.

Mr. Branch Barnhardt Dead.

It has been noted in these columns that Mr. Branch Barnhardt, who for years filled most successfully the position as agent at New London, was very sick with typhoid fever. The sad news now comes that he died Thursday morning at 6 o'clock. This death robs the community about New London, Albemarle and Norwood of one of the best known young men and one who has many friends. It is a shock to the whole community. He was a member of the Masonic Order and Knights of Pythias and the lodges of Albemarle and Norwood conducted the funeral at Norwood.

Talking Base Ball.

The coming of the Philadelphia base ball club to Charlotte for the practice season, will stir up our local ball cranks. One informs the News man that an effort will be made in the near future to reorganize the Charlotte club. Both Mt. Island and Concord are to have clubs the coming season. In view of this, Charlotte will be compelled to fall in line.—Charlotte News.

CABARRUS MEN HEARD FROM.

Distressing Death of His Son From Lodgment in Lung.

Some of our citizens will remember a former Cabarrus man, Mr. Victor A Heglar. He is now at Motz, Miller county, Ark. In a recent letter to a relative here he tells of the distressing death of his little son, Walter Leroy, of two and one-half years. The unfortunate little fellow got something into his lung—it was not learned what—and all the doctors available were called in to rescue him, but they were powerless to save him. He died on the 26th of January. In his deep grief Mr. Heglar naturally solicits the comfort there is in a sympathetic sharing by those in his native community.

SCHOOL ALL THE YEAR.

The State University Takes a New Step—Has 512 Enrolled.

At the pressing recommendation of President Alderman the board of directors of the University in its session Wednesday authorized a continuous session of the school for the whole year. President Alderman gave ten reasons for his desire to inaugurate the new departure. Among them are that it will enable young men of ambition to complete the course in three years instead of four, it will enable teachers in other schools to reap larger benefits than can be obtained at the short summer schools, and it will enable instructors to visit other schools for self-improvement during the periods of their vacations.

President Alderman's report was very gratifying to the board, showing the institution now at the climax of its history with 512 students enrolled exclusive of the summer school.

The institution is sorely in need of a water supply for drinking purposes, as there is none but that from wells.

IT WAS ANOTHER WINTER STORM.

Reminder of Sixteen Years and Two Days Ago.

The western horizon became lowering and ominous on Wednesday evening, but with some sharp lightning, considerable rain and moderate wind the clouds passed away and little was thought of it.

We see that at Salisbury it assumed the proportions of a real storm. Just out of town the Sun says it took a cyclone shape and lifted Mr. Leonard Bowles' house off the foundations and blew down the chimney. It struck Fraley's race track, blowing down the stand and other property, making a loss of about $500. Other damage was done along the course.

There was considerable hail about High Point.

At Brooklyn, N. Y., the next morning the gale was at the rate of 60 miles per hour and blew down a number of houses in course of erection.

This winter storm is a forcible reminder of the one that passed over just 16 years and two days ago playing such havoc through here and other parts of the State.
