A NIGHT THIEF.

Some Person Enters the Kitchen of the Kimball House and Steals a Sack of Flour and a Can of Lard—A Search Warrant Issued and the Articles Found in Will Ross's House.

Some time Saturday night some person entered the kitchen of the Kimball house and robbed this department of a sack of flour and a can of lard. He entered the room by breaking in.

As soon as the shortage was found Sunday morning Mrs. Kimball had strong suspicions, and a warrant was issued allowing the house occupied by a negro named Will Ross to be searched. The flour and lard were both found and Will Ross was brought to trial before Esq. Pitts. The evidence against the negro was such that he was bound over to court on a $50 bond. In default of the bond he now lies behind iron bars awaiting his fate at the hands of the court.

Will Be Night Superintendent of the New Cannon Mill.

We clip the following notice from the Textile Excelsior which is complimentary to the one who is coming to our town, and we bid him welcome.

W P Hurt, who, for the past three years, has been carder and spinner at night with the Gaston Cotton Mills at Cherryville, N. C., has resigned his position and has accepted the night superintendency of the Cannon Mfg. Co's No. 3 Mill at Concord, N. C. Mr. Hurt is well known throughout the South as a competent mill man. Last year he was awarded first prize by the Textile Excelsior for his contributions to the discussion page of this paper. In his new position he will have charge of 7,000 spindles and 450 looms. Mr. Hurt will move to Concord in about ten days, although the mill will not commence operations before about April 1st. The product of the mill will be plain damasks, turkish towels, and other fancy goods.

The Kindley Mail Route Given.

Notice has been posted at the postoffice that the mail route from Kindley to this place and return has been let to J L Woodruff, of Sparta, N. C. beginning July 1, 1900 and ending July 1, 1904, at the rate of $52 per annum. The mail comes from there each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday and returns there in the afternoon.

To Have An Experiment Farm

Mr. Ephraim Fisher, one of No. 4 township's good old farmers, says that he has decided to convert his farming land into an experiment farm and is preparing to raise numbers of things on his farm. He already has a number of different kinds of seeds assorted for his new work.

The Concord orchestra will be re-organized again tomorrow night to furnish music for the lecture by Dr. Rakestraw before the Julia Magruder Book Club. The lecture will be given in the Phifer hall.

MRS. MICHAEL SCOTT DEAD.

Fire and Two Deaths Within a Year—Only Mother, Husband and Child Left.

Mrs. Michael Scott, who has suffered for five weeks with typhoid fever, died Sunday night at 1:30 o'clock. Her maiden name was Miss Lomie Misenheimer.

Mrs. Scott was yet young, being only 20 years old. She leaves a husband and one child of about one year, together with her mother.

The funeral was conducted today (Monday) at 6 p. m., at Cold Water church by Rev. W B Oney.

There is much sympathy due this household from a series of grievous events recently. About 6 months ago the house of Mr. Albert Misenheimer was burned and most of the effects of the two families were lost (Mr. and Mrs. Scott lived with her parents). Before the new house was near completion Mr. Misenheimer died suddenly. Now death makes another claim, so soon after getting into their new home, and leaves it with her widowed mother, her husband and her infant child. It seems a series of sad events to the few survivors.

Mr. Geo. E Fisher Resigns His Position.

Mr. Geo. E Fisher, of this place, who for some time has had charge of the Cannon & Fetzer Co. store cut at the Bala cotton mill, has resigned his position. The business is at present under the management of Mr. Ed. Freeze. He was also the postmaster and has resigned that position.

A Negro Woman Struck by a Train.

Last Saturday evening shortly after 6 o'clock a southbound freight train struck an old negro woman, Mary Pharr, a short distance on the other side of the Coleman cotton mill. She was not badly hurt. The cylinder head struck her only enough to throw her aside. The woman is 68 years old.

One of the Inmates Dead.

Superintendent Sapp, of the county home, informs us that last Thursday Mrs. Tippet, the wife of Mr. Ben Tippet, died. She was 80 years old and has been in bad health. She had been an inmate of the county home for some time.

That Interesting Cuban Boy.

Most of our people who greeted the First N. C. Regimental band when it was here just after the war with Spain remember the little well dressed Cuban boy, Veto Santurio. We note from the Davidson Dispatch that he has been living with Mrs. WE Holt and has decided to remain in this country and finish his education.

A Correspondent Writes From the Odell Mills.

The last issue of the Textile Excelsior, which is devoted exclusively to the progress and development of the States in mill work, contains a good amount about Concord, and the following comes from the pen of one of its correspondents this week from Forest Hill:

"The Odell mills here are equipped with modern machinery of the latest improved design, and the spindles are kept humming day and night in order to keep up with the weave room. The Messrs. Odells are so well known that it is hardly worth while to comment on their good qualities, but I wish to say that they are on the lookout for the welfare of their employes, and the result is, they work an intelligent set of hands. Many of them own their own homes, the Odells having encouraged and helped them invest their money in real estate.

"We have one of the best Sunday schools in the State right here in our midst, which is largely attended, and our pastor, Rev. Hoyle, comes in for his share of praise. He is a good one.

"Our able and up-to-date superintendent, R F Coble, looks after all five of these mills. He keeps everything hustling, and don't you forget it, having the good will and respect of all under him. Mr. Coble is what we would choose to call a self-made man, having lost his father and mother when quite a young man, but with good judgment and close attention to duty, he has worked himself from quill carrier to the position of trust he now so ably fills."

A White Man Jailed for Larceny.

On last Saturday Deputy Robinson made a haul here in town which saved him a long trip out in the country. He wanted a white man named Perry Harrison who is charged with stealing corn from Mr. Will Morris. The man was captured here and tried. In default of a bond for his appearance at court he is now lying in jail.

The Annual Sermon.

Forty-two of the Pythians of this place turned out in a body Sunday night to St. James Lutheran church where a sermon was delivered to them by Rev. C B Miller. Once each year this organization attends services in some one of the churches in a body to hear a sermon by one of their number. The discourse was highly enjoyed.

In Honor of Miss Mary Young.

Invitations have been issued to a number to attend a party to be given this evening at the home of Mr. Jno. P Allison complimentary to Miss Mary Young.
