EDITOR BRITT A CANDIDATE.

We see that Editor John T. Britt, of the Oxford Public Ledger, divides the interest in the office of Commissioner of Labor and Public Printing with Editor Varner, of the Davidson Dispatch. This office more than any other seeks a man with a knowledge of the printing business, and Editor Britt has this merit as well as that of herculean blows when a hard political battle is to be fought. We are unfortunate in not being personally acquainted with Editor Britt, and can only commend both to the careful consideration of the coming State Democratic convention.

OOM Paul seems to feel able to more than hold his own. A dispatch of the 23rd says he has issued a proclamation to the effect that the Orange Free State is not free at all but belongs to the Transvaal and therefore, to him. President Steyn, the dispatches say, issued a counter one declaring that his domain is still in tact. While these two cats quarrel over the piece of cheese Monkey Roberts will be apt to mete out justice by gulping the whole slice.

THAT story of Sergeant Golden's having evidence that a well known mulatto deadshot is the murderer of Wm. Goebel seems rather too thin to be said to have shape.

It's an off day when the newspapers don't tell of Thomas F. Ryan's worrying John Skelton Williams about the Seaboard Airline consolidation. Defeat seems to chill him about the same as water does the duck when poured on its back.

WE are glad to note that our excellent contemporary in the capital city comes to us under a new head with the better designation, "The Raleigh Post" in place of "The Morning Post."

Bishop Cheshire to Be Here Next Week.

What is Home?

Recently a London magazine sent out 1,000 inquiries on the question, "What is Home?" In selecting the classes to respond to the question it was particular to see that every one was represented. The poorest and the richest were given an equal opportunity to express their sentiment. Out of 800 replies received seven gems were selected as follows:

1. Home—A world of strife sifted out, a world of love shut in.

2. Home—The place where the small are great and the great are small.

3. Home—The father's kingdom, the mother's world and the child's paradise.

4. Home—The place where we grumble the most and are treated the best.

5. Home—The centre of our affection, round which our heart's best wishes twine.

6. Home—The place where the stomachs get three square meals daily and our hearts a thousand.

7. Home—The only place on earth where the faults and failings of humanity are hidden under the sweet mantle of charity.

How cruel seems the month of March to the poor newspaper man. Five Saturdays on which the "devil is to pay" but only four Sundays to rest his weary brain and let the white matter grow.

To Change Their Sign.

The familiar Southern Railway insignia, "S. R.," crossed by an arrow, used in railway advertising matter, has been ordered abandoned. It may in the near future be substituted by some new design.

Local officials have received information directing that the insignia be dropped on all printing ordered here. No reason has been given for the change, and it is presumed by local officials that a handsomer or more appropriate design has been conceived for the road's "trade-mark."—Knoxville Sentinel.

Council for Judge.

The Democratic Judicial convention of Catawba has expressed its choice of Mr. W. B. Council, Jr., for superior court Judge term that district.

Real Deer Chase in Yadkin.

A correspondent of the Statesville Landmark gives an account of a genuine deer chase in Yadkin county last week. It was a sort of all-day chase and wound up in the evening with his buckship fighting at bay till knocked down and killed with a piece of rail. He was fat and weighed 125 pounds. There's no accounting for his presence so far from deer range.

We are pleased to see that the Dodson Ramseur Chapter of the Daughters of Confederacy have secured the Boston Star Concert Co. for next Wednesday night, the 28th. It is a musical feast for which many of us are getting an appetite.

The proceeds are wanted for the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Raleigh and therefore appeals to a generous people for a liberal patronage.
