TELEPHONE NO. 71.

CONCORD, N. C., JULY 23 1900.

MR. J. F. NEWELL.

Mr. J. F. Newell, who by the way did all he could for the discomfort, distress and financial ruin of the writer and had the brass to reflect on the writer's pygmean intellectual proportions compared with his own, and was a stalwart Democrat that ripped up Populists in the most savage order, and then two years ago suddenly turned something else than Democrat when the Democrats of Cabarrus said by their votes that they wanted Mr. L. T. Hartsell, in whom they confide, to represent the county in the legislature instead of Mr. Newell who then and there showed them that they had sized him up right, we say, or rather we hear, that this Mr. Newell was spouting away at Sheriff Peck's large insolvent tax list last Wednesday. (Now Sheriff Peck's time for final settlement has not arrived remember.)

On the next day Mr. Peck showed that Mr. Newell himself was one whose taxes had not been paid yet from Sheriff Buchanan's administration.

Mr. Newell is no nonentity when it comes to bandying words to make shame respectable and inconsistency palatable but all his explanations fell flat we are told.

A friend paid the tax Friday but it does not relieve Mr. Newell. It is only the conscienceless blatherskite in him that will make him show his face among citizens of a great State and ask them to take his ipse dixit that the amendment is unconstitutional.

This is the kind of man that wants to retain the negro vote as the only hope of getting into office. A fault finder of ideal type!

When he goes to throwing stones again he should see to it that he does not live in a glass house, but then he can't see himself as he is and will go on at this poor dying rate. Poor Jake!

MR. SIMMONS' LETTER TELLS.

George B. Cortelyou, secretary to President McKinley has written Chairman Simmons acknowledging the receipt of Mr. Simmons' letter of complaint against United States revenue officers in State politics and promises that the president's attention will be called to the matter.

Mr. Simmons will be prepared to furnish charges and specifications in individual cases and it seems most probable that much good will result.

To say the least the letter is an eye-opener and will be calculated to correct the evil or bring down on Republican methods the odium richly merited. It is in very striking contrast with the methods in the days of the Cleveland administration when revenue officers were strictly forbidden to take part in politics to the extent of offensiveness or beyond the legitimate prerogatives of a citizen.

Marion Butler thinks he has discovered a weak place in the election law by which he can have registrars arrested but he is balked by finding his discovery of section 47 unavailable. According to ex-Chief Justice James E. Shepherd and Mr. Tom Argo, enough better authorities than this pledging lawyer, that section does not suit for his purpose at all. Just let arrests be made and it will be another two-handed game very quick. Butler proposes to die hard it seems and kick in the last gasp.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

An explosion of a boiler to a steam thresher near Cleveland last Saturday morning killed Mr. Blanche Alexander, one of the proprietors, and Tilden Falls, son of the other proprietor, and seriously if not fatally wounded several others. Young Falls' body was badly torn to pieces, the head being destroyed.

RESULT OF A DOG BITE.

Hydrophobia, and Death Ensnare After Seven Months.

Reading, Pa., July 21.—Mrs. Frank Remp, of Mohonesville, was bitten by a dog about ten days before last Christmas. The wound, which was above the right eye, was painful, but did not seem dangerous. It was cauterized and almost forgotten.

The recent intense heat, however, seemed to revive the wound. She began to complain last Monday of numbness in her limbs and severe headache. She grew worse that night, and could not swallow. She could not take water in her mouth, and by Tuesday hydrophobia had fully asserted itself.

Mrs. Remp had violent spasms and the sight of water would send her into terrible convulsions. As she grew worse the spasms came at intervals of 10 or 15 minutes. Strong men could hardly subdue her, and she had to be tied to her bed. Doctors could do nothing for her, and she died Thursday.

ITEMS FROM FAITH.

Faith Beating the World on Granite—Depot for Woodside—Mrs. Keith and Miss Moose Deserve Credit.

Written for The Standard.

Faith, July 21, 1900.—Several people went down to the E. D. Lentz sale in Cabarrus county. J. T. Wyatt bought his buggy full of curiosities for his collection.

Mrs. Keith and Miss Moose deserve a great deal of credit for the hard work preparing and feeding the large number of people, relatives, and friends who attended the sale on the 18th.

A depot will be built at Woodside. The lumber has commenced to arrive on the grounds.

Faith is beating the world on fine hard white granite and is shipping it to all parts of the country every day by the car load.

Mrs. Emma Wright goes to Statesville tonight for a visit of several weeks to friends.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was yellow jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, and he writes: "After using two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all stomach, liver and kidney trouble. Only 50c. Sold at Fetzler's drug store.

Was It a Miracle?

"The marvellous cure of Mrs. Rena J. Stout of consumption has created intense excitement in Cannaock, Ind.," writes Marion Stuart, a leading druggist of Muncie, Ind. She only weighed 90 pounds when her doctor in Yorktown said she must soon die. Then she began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and gained 37 pounds in weight and was completely cured. It has cured thousands of hopeless cases, and is positively guaranteed to cure all throat, chest, and lung diseases. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's drug store.
