HON. WILEY RUSH'S SPEECH. FINE ADDRESS AT CANNONVILLE.

The Anglo-Saxon's Mission—Rules Wherever he is but in North Carolina —Negro Rule a Shameful Reality—The Amendment the Remedy—Do Your Duty Ye White Men.

The Hon. Wiley Rush spoke at Cannonville Tuesday night to several hundred people including a number of ladies.

The speech was in every essential a strong presentation of the great issue before us, the constitutional amendment.

He impressed the fact that all true men feel an inherent love for their own state and their own people. Certain races, and people are entrusted with certain great charges.

The Jew was entrusted with the true knowledge of God and he loved his own race and has ever kept it pure.

The Anglo-Saxon he believed has been entrusted with the Christian religion and with the institution of self-government.

The negro was born with incapacity for self-government.
He has never made a success in running a government. Left to himself he goes back as far as to cannibalism itself.

The Anglo-Saxon rules in all the earth where he is save in North Carolina. It is North Carolina only that has a negro in congress, has recently had a negro solicitor and more than 1,000 negroes in various offices.
North Carolina stands alone as an example where the negro rules the white man.

He said that just prior to 1894 it was being thrown at us that we were always crying, negro, negro, till he got ashamed and thought probably it would not be so bad as before 1870. But the legislature of 1894 was powerless to resist the demands of the 120,000 negroes.

He related the disgraceful story of negotiating the state capital, with Abe Middleton for door keeper instead of a one-eyed Confederate soldier and of Swinson and their driving him out of office and breaking the locks of his office, all because he stoutly refused to place negro men in his office over and among white lady clerks.

Our opponents would say no danger of negro rule, you only cry negro, negro, as you always do. He related the Wilmington example of negro domination to show that negro rule was a sore and shameful reality, one which we never want again, and which we appeal to all white men to make impossible hereafter by voting for this amendment.

This amendment will not disfranchise a solitary white man now entitled to vote and it especially gives him the right to vote as long as he lives, and there is not an intelligent man in the state that does not know and admit it give those who hold some office or who hope to do so by the vote of the negro. Any man that can and will read the amendment knows it.

Those who become 21 after 1908, must be able to read and write. He is ashamed of the man who says that white boys can't learn to read and write and that negroes can.

The speaker was eloquent and entertaining, telling a number of side-splitting jokes but always making a strong point out of them.
He appealed in his finest strains to the people not to let this opportunity pass without doing their full part toward eliminating the negro from politics, lest the meanest element from other states crowd in and make our state more than ever the state of negro domination.

Don't fear the unconstitutionality of the amendment. Judge Montgomery says it is constitutional, Jake Newell says it ain't.
Judge you between them.
It is for the people to say what they want and for the courts to say whether it is constitutional or not.

Of all men the white laboring man is the last man to be opposed to the amendment.

It was plain that the speaker needed nothing but the attentive ear and the open conviction to make the amendment vote unanimous.

Questions Answered.
Yes, August Flower will has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you.
