A Prophetic Cry.

God give us men! A time like this demands Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands; Men whom the lust of office does not kill; Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy; Men who possess opinions and a will; Men who have honor, men who will not lie; Men who can stand before a demagogue And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking! Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog In public duty and in private thinking. For, while the rabble with their thumb-word creeds, Their large professions and their little deeds, Mingle in selfish strife—Lo! Freedom weeps, Wrong rules the land and waiting justice sleeps.

—John G. Holland in Ex.
