WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair tonight and Saturday.

V D Sikes, the groceryman, has a change of ad today.

Mr. H B Parks and Mr. H L Parks are in Charlotte today.

Miss Agnes Moss is expected home tonight from Waynesville.

Mr. Alexis C Graven left Thursday night for Troy, Alabama.

Mr. T C Troy and family have gone to Liberty, N. C., to visit the father of Mr. Troy.

Mr. W A Smith has quite a handsome little vehicle in the way of a trap for his dainty pony.

Mr. James B Chipp, of Lithonia, Ga., is here and will act as night operator at the depot.

Misses Kate Gibson and Maggie Bessent are expecting to leave tonight for Wilmington to enjoy the sea breezes.

Mr. Richmond Montgomery expects to leave today for the coast to spend several days enjoying the surf.

Mr. Oldham, the baseball player, who has been the guest of Dr. R S Young, went to Charlotte today.

Mr. and Mrs. J C Leslie, who have been visiting in Charlotte, spent last night here and went to Albemarle this morning.

Mr. Clarence B Groner and son went to Winston this morning to visit relatives.

Mrs. A F Hartsell, of Concord, is visiting Mrs. R A Fulp. Before marriage, Mrs. Hartsell was Miss Maggie Castor.—Fort Mill Times.

Mr. D B Coltrane and little daughter left this morning to attend a reunion of the Coltrane family near Greensboro. Mr. Coltrane will be away over Sunday.

Rev. Geo. L Cook, who was formerly pastor of Poplar Tent church near here, is to be installed as pastor of Paw Creek church near Charlotte Saturday.

Mr. Chas. McDonald had the misfortune to lose one of his farm horses Thursday. The animal eat about one and a half bushels of wheat which caused its death.

The Charlotte Observer says E B Kenna, who pitched ball for Statesville this season, is thinking of engaging in newspaper work. He will likely take a position on a Cincinnati paper.

Dr. F E Hartsell, brother of Mr. J L Hartsell, at the Cannon & Fetzer Co. store, is critically with blood poison at his home, Big Lick, Stanly county.

The Mooresville Enterprise this morning has a cut of Rev. B Lacy Hoge who is conducting a protracted meeting in Mooresville. Mr. Hoge is meeting with wonderful success and the attendance on all occasions is large.

Miss Louise Means went to Rocky River yesterday to visit Mr. Sam Grier's.

Mr. C B Little and family, who have been visiting here, returned to Albemarle this morning.

Mr. Bill Cote has accepted the position as day operator and bill collector at the depot. This place was made vacant by Mr. Jno. M Young who has gone to the Gal-four Quarry.

WANTED—To buy from 25 to 50 acres of rich fertile land, preferably with a stream of water running through it. State full particulars and references and lowest spot cash. Principals only dealt with. Address J Bradley, Stamford, Conn.

Mrs. Joel Reed, of Concord, is on a visit here. She is now the guest of her sister, Mrs. J R McNeely. Her son, Mr. Richmond Reed, accompanied her here, but returned Tuesday morning.—Mooresville Enterprise, 10th.

Miss Fannie Hill who was a teacher in the graded school here last year has been elected teacher in the Albemarle graded school. Miss Hill is a successful teacher and the school is to be congratulated in securing her services for next year.

We notice that Rev. W Y Love has tendered his resignation as pastor, of Coddle Creek Associate Reform church, to take effect at next meeting of Presbytery. Mr. Love has made an efficient and devoted pastor and his people will regret to give him up.

W A Henley, who was Thursday brought from Reidsville, accused of stealing $63 from Miss Jennie Hurlocker here last Sunday, was tried Thursday night. He was placed under a $250 bond, and turned over to the sheriff to keep until court.

Pythians, Take Notice!

All members of Concord Lodge No. 51 Knights of Pythias are requested to meet in Castle Hall tonight at 8 o'clock promptly.

Work in first rank. All visiting Knights are always welcome.

Bryan on Towne's Withdrawal. Indianapolis, Ind., August 8.—

Regarding the withdrawal of Chas. A Towne from the Populist national ticket, W J Bryan said today:

"Mr. Towne's letter is manly and patriotic, but it is nothing less than was expected by those who knew him best."

Other Democratic leaders expressed themselves in similar strains. None of them had anticipated any other course, but there was a general impression of relief from a complication like that of four years ago, when Sewell and Watson were both candidates for vice-president.

It was the general opinion that the withdrawal will not alienate many Populists and that it will increase the chances of Democratic success at the polls.
