G. n. Carr For Senatos.

At the recent Kansas City National Democratic Convention, Gen. Julian S Carr was not only a conspicuous and prominent member, but received the unanimous vote of the North Carolina delegation and votes from other States for the vice-presidency.

Of all the men who have wrought well for our State it is but simple justice to say that Gen. Carr has excelled all others. We do not know what his aspirations are, but we are frank to say it will only be showing proper gratitude for the good people of our commonwealth to give him anything in the way of political position he wants.—N. C. Advocate.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female disease quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a god-send to weak, sickly, run-down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold at Fetzer's drug store.

Questions Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by all dealers in civilized countries.

Wm. J. Reilly, of Philadelphia, is not a professional base ball player, but he made a remarkable catch the other day. A little boy in a fourth story window saw a butterfly and in the effort to catch it leaned too far out of the window and toppled over. Reilly's attention was attracted by the scream, and looking up he saw the little fellow coming down. Reaching out he caught the boy on the drop.—Morning Star.

If troubled with rheumatism, give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price 25c. and 50c. For sale at Marsh's drug store.

Many a so-called-absent minded man remembers the poor.—Ex.
