WAKE FOREST OPENS.

Two Hundred and Five Students Registered by Ten O'clock Yesterday Morning.

Wake Forest, N. C., Aug. 31—The opening of Wake Forest college was a success in every respect. The registration today at 10 o'clock was 205, and we can safely estimate those unregistered at 20, making a total arrival of 225 students at the opening of the third day, which is an advance in registration of 19 over last year at the same date. The boys are entering well and getting down to work. They greeted their new Professor of Pedagogy, Prof. C C Crittenden, with much enthusiasm and gave great applause to his informal response.

Endured Death's Agonies.

Only a roaring fire enabled J M Garretson, of San Antonio, Tex., to lie down when attacked with asthma, from which he suffered for years. He writes his misery was often so great that it seemed he endured the agonies of death; but Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption wholly cured him. This marvelous medicine is the only known cure for asthma as well as consumption, coughs and colds, and all throat, chest and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's drug store.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D Williams, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female disease quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a god-send to weak, sickly, run-down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold at Fetzler's drug store.
