Lawsuit Grows Out of It.

The difficulty arising in Samuelson county over an article in the Caucasian written by George Butler has culminated in a libel suit against him and fourteen other Populists. It seems one instance in which parties are to be called to account for charging fraud in the election.

Jim Henderson's Speech.

The colored people of Concord and vicinity listened to a good talk Monday night, and received sound advice from Jim Henderson. Jim pointed out the path to them, the path they should take, and stated that their advance might be slow but if their energies were placed in the right direction success would be sure. Below is a clipping taken from an editorial published in the Advance, of which paper he is the editor.

"It is better for the negro to raise cotton in the south than to wash windows in the north. We would rather see a colored youth in the south making and pressing bricks with his hands than to see him holding a diploma from a college in the north and walking around doing nothing but pressing down bricks in the north."

Debt-Paying Religion.

Just at this time our country needs a religion that will make a man pay his debts. Shouting won't settle old accounts with man or God. We bounce right into a fellow and put him out of the church if he goes to a ball or a theatre, but never say a word to a pious old scamp who never pays his debts. Preachers and people who do not pay their debts are doing the church more harm than dancers and drunkards, for there are more of them in the church. Reader, are we getting close to you? asks the Methodist Advocate. Then lay down your paper and go and pay up and read on with ease. And don't stop paying because the statute of limitation excuses the open account which you made for bread and meat. You must pay it in cash or God will make you pay it in fire and brimstone. God knows no such excuse for no paying as homestead exemption. When you raise that excuse to keep from paying debts you can stop singing. "When I can read My Titles Clear to Mansions in the Skies." You have none up there.—Ex.

A newspaper can say nice things about a man and his whole family for two long years, and then incur their lifetime enmity in one short week by a seeming slight. Yes, it's a fact; and you can hurrah for a candidate, back his friends, cuss his enemies and make a big fool of yourself all the way through, without a thank in the end, only to find that when you are a candidate that he is "out o' politics." But there is one man that don't forget you, and that's the man you opposed.—Anderson Intelligencer.
