Unseen Sights.

We never saw—
 A hatter cap the climax,
 The hammer for nailing a lie,
 Powder on the face of the waters.

The lock that the key to the situation fits.

A higher forehead than the brow of the mountain.

The hod that is used for carrying coal to Aircastle.

The ladder that would reach to the top of the morning.

A tailor who had the pattern to the cloak of friendship.

Nor the brush that a man uses when he paints the town red.—
 Western Sentinel.

Questions Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else or indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by all dealers in civilized countries.

"THEY SAY."

"They say"—ah! well, suppose they do; But can they prove the story true? Suspicion may arise for naught, But malice, envy, want of thought. Why count yourself among the "they" Who whisper what they dare not say?

"They say." But why the tale rehearse And help to make the matter worse? No good can possibly accrue From telling what may be untrue; And is it not a noble plan To speak of all the best you can?

"They say." Well, if it should be so, Why need you tell the tale of woe? Will it the bitter wrong redress, Or make one pang of sorrow less?

Will it the erring one restore, Henceforth to "go and sin no more?"

"They say"—Oh! pause and look within; See how your heart inclines to sin. Watch! lest in dark temptation's hour

You, too, should sink beneath its power. Pity the frail, weep o'er their fall,

But speak of good, "or not at all."
 —New Haven Register.

A Powder Mill Explodes

Removes everything in sight; so do drastic mineral pills. No need to dynamite your body when Dr. King's New Life Pills do the work so easily and perfectly. Cures headache, constipation. Only 25 cents at Fetzler's drug store.

AIRING THEIR PREFERENCES.

Three maidens talked, as maidens will,
 Of what gives life its zest.
 Said one, a buxom country girl,
 "The mountain air is best."

The second, clad in yachting suit
 All white beyond compare,
 Did thereupon exulting cry:
 "Give me the ocean air!"

Then one in the swinging hammock posed
 Half oped her eyes divine,
 And languorously said: "I'll take
 The millionaire for mine."
 —Our Church Paper.

The Bravery of Woman

Was grandly shown by Mrs. John Dowling, of Butler, Pa., in a three years' struggle with a malignant stomach trouble that caused distressing attacks of nausea and indigestion. All remedies failed to relieve her until she tried Electric Bitters. After taking it two months, she wrote: "I am now wholly cured and can eat anything. It is truly a grand tonic for the whole system as I gained in weight and feel much stronger since using it." It aids digestion, cures dyspepsia, improves appetite, gives new life. Only 50c. Guaranteed at Fetzler's drug store.

A Mrs. Gibson, of Cincinnati,

had a regular undertaker prepare the funeral for her dog Towser. The casket was lined with white satin, and was a handsome affair, with nickel plated trimmings. The coachman officiated at the grave. To match the above, Harry D Pratt, of Chicago, had a dentist put two gold crowns on his dog's teeth. He paid the molar dentist $125 for four sittings.

The Best Prescription for Chills

And fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.
