FATAL ACCIDENT

Jones Peeler Falls Under the Wheels of a Wagon and His Life Crushed Out.

Mr. N F Yorke received a phone message from Rockwell, Rowan county, this (Tuesday) morning stating that his nephew Jones Peeler had been killed by a wagon running over him. It seems that young Peeler was hanging on the wagon between the front and hind wheel when his grip gave way and the wagon passed over his body. He was a son of Mr. J W Peeler and was about nine years old.

Daughters of the Confederacy Meeting.

We clip the following from the Raleigh Press-Visitor.

"The State Convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy meet in Raleigh October 10th and will be entertained by the Johnston-Pettigrew Chapter U. D. C. of this city. On Wednesday afternoon, October 10th, the public will be cordially invited to attend the meeting, for at that time matters pertaining to the Jefferson Davis Memorial will be discussed, and several gentlemen will give a 10 minutes' talk on the subject.

"On Wednesday evening the Raleigh Chapter will tender a reception to the convention, and all visiting Daughters, in the handsome assembly hall of the Agricultural building. It is there that the convention will meet."

We learn that special rates will be given for the occasion, though the exact sum is not obtainable yet. Mrs. Jno. P Allison and Mrs. Jno. C Wadsworth are the chosen delegates to represent the Dodson-Ramseur Chapter.

PAUL BARNHARDT DEAD.

Attains the Age of 75—A One-Armed Confederate Veteran—Member of St. Johns Church.

The venerable Mr. Paul Barnhardt, of No. 9 township, died Monday evening at his home at the good ripe age of 75 years. He was childless and leaves his aged companion as the only member of his immediate family.

Mr. Barnhardt was a consistent member of long standing at St. Johns E. L. church. He lost an arm in the Confederate service and as age grew upon him he felt how kind it was for the State to set apart some of its revenues for the comfort of such as he.

The funeral was preached this (Tuesday) morning by his pastor, Rev. S D Steffey, and the body was buried at Cold Springs church cemetery.

Scrupulous Observance of the Sabbath.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE STANDARD:—In consequence of an announcement of my worthy competitor that he would not sell or deliver his meats on the Sabbath day, there appeared in your last Saturday's issue a very pleasing article commending his course in this matter to which I wish to add my hearty approval. I have always held and contended that the Sabbath day is a day of rest, and he, who follows his regular avocation on that day is a violator of law in every sense of the word. Yet I am painfully reminded of the fact that since I have been in business in this town I have lost many good customers because I could not get the consent of my conscience to deliver my meats on the Sabbath day. It may be a very small thing for some to require those who diligently serve them during the week to ask them to continue that service on the Sabbath day, but for me it was asking more than was in my power to grant. Because He who created us and gave us all said, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy, six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work." This command was always sufficient reason for me not to violate the Sabbath day. I hope this spirit of reverence for the day that God hath set apart for man to rest will pervade every home until not only those who have things to sell will not violate this sacred day, but that there will be no one who will so far forget himself as to want to make a purchase on the Sabbath day.

I can say with others all honor to him who will stand for that which is better than the things of earth-eternal truth.

Respectfully,
HARVEY A. GREBER.

SINGULARLY SAD.

Young Man Falls into the Neuse and Sinks as a Weight.

The Durham Morning Herald says: Ernest Chamblee was firing for a steam tug in the Neuse river last Friday and in passing on the boat he seemed to step off and fell in 12 feet water. He sank like a weight never coming to the top any more. His body was grappled out and the doctor found very little water in his lungs. It is surmised that he fell of heart disease and died without drowning. He was 19 years old, the son of a widow lady.

ANOTHER WORTHY ASPIRANT.

Hon. T. J. Jarvis Would Be Glad to Be First Elected by Method He First Advocated.

The Hon. T J Jarvis is out a card announcing his candidacy for the United States Senate and asks the favorable consideration of the voters at the coming senatorial primary.

He claims to have been the first in advocating the senatorial primary and would be glad to be the first elected by it. To the claim by some (who we think take a very erratic view of office) that he has been duly honored he very forcibly claims that his party services have not been less, and over against the young Democracy idea he presents a well ripened experience in public affairs.

The ex-governor and ex-senator presents his claims in a most dignified manner and announces that he will not organize any forces in his behalf but having presented his candidacy and his claims to fair consideration he will employ so much of his time as his private affairs must have and will devote all the rest to the interests of the campaign for Bryan and Stevenson and the candidates for the House of Representatives.
