NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE.

From several sources we learn that President Lutz is succeeding finely with North Carolina College and he seems delighted with the department of the students. Several new features have been introduced in the daily work. Among them is a bulletin board containing the an epitome of the latest current news.

It seems to us that this is an excellent idea. Too many students bury themselves in their text books if studious at all and theirs is a world separate and apart from the busy practical every day sphere around them and it gives rise to the conclusion that the book learned are deficient in common sense. Students do well to keep abreast with the present as well as to delve into the past and keep awake to the practical on-goings of real life as well as to dwell long in the rock ribbed walls of the abstruse sciences.

We are impressed that there is a life and vigor inspiring atmosphere about the college that will do much to interest and draw the young men into a current of splendid progress during the ensuing session.

Our friend of the Concord Standard states that Mr. M L Buchanan, of that town, manager of the Concord Cotton Seed Oil Company, boasts of having beaten Raleigh's new ginny in baling cotton, the latter doing the work in fifteen minutes, while the Concord competitor, under a rush, got out one in "twelve minutes by the watch." If it was Capt. Charlie McDonald's watch we give up. Not since he raised a crop of cotton at 25 cents a pound (in 1899) could we venture to run against anything that is his. Otherwise, we must insist that Raleigh can keep up with the Concord machine. Morning Post of 26th.

 "No matter whose watch, you just can't do it, Brother Furman."

Singularly enough it is said that with all of Richard Croker's great betting on the election of Bryan he is managing to have enough bets ingeniously arranged to make something out of it no matter who is elected. We confess, however, that we can't comprehend, with our limited time to study the mathematics in the problem, just how the thing is to be done. It looks like lifting ones self over the fence by his boot straps or like Honeycutt's boys making 50 cents apiece off of each other at swapping pocket knives on a rainy day.

A Petersburg dispatch of the 24th says that after the rain many little frogs were seen on the streets and it is believed that it rained them. If the dispatch had called them snakes we'd readily conclude that he'd "had 'em" or if they had been poodles the explanation would have been easy.

A Kansas City wife took a dose of peppermint and then sent for her husband to come home and see her die. A hastily summoned doctor diagnosed the case, and discovered the deception, but would not tell the distressed husband until after he had made her all kinds of nice promises about staying out late of nights, visiting the electric park and riding on the excursion boats. For ways that are smooth you are commended to the Kansas City women.—Greensboro Record.

But then promises, vows and conveyances made under duress are and of right ought to be regarded as null and void.

There is some talk in the United States of forming the American newspapers into a trust. They are already in a trust as their subscription list will show.

Endured Death's Agonies.

Only a roaring fire enabled J M Garrettson, of San Antonio, Tex., to lie down when attacked with asthma, from which he suffered for years. He writes his misery was often so great that it seemed he endured the agonies of death; but Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption wholly cured him. This marvelous medicine is the only known cure for asthma as well as consumption, coughs and colds, and all throat, chest and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's drug store.

S Cecil was in town Saturday and gave an account of the killing of a large hawk near Kennedy's Mill. The hawk measured 4 feet 4 inches from tip to tip. When shot it was devouring a large turkey, making the third turkey it had killed this season.—High Point Enterprise.

Editor's Awful Plight.

F. M. Higgins, Editor Seneca (N. Y.) News, was afflicted for years with piles that no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world. He writes, two boxes wholly cured him. Infalible for piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold at Fetzler's drug store.

A Woman Killed By a Horse—Sad Realization of a Mother's Wish.

Miss Sabra Burgess was run over by a horse belonging to Marshall Moore, near Sharou, and killed about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Some men were unloading a molasses boiler when the horse became frightened and ran. Miss Burgess was in the road and being deaf could not hear the horse coming. She was killed almost instantly. She was 70 years old, and leaves a lot of sisters, all of whom are idiots. The funeral services took place at Mt. Pleasant today.

It is said that Miss Burgess' mother had one child which talked almost all the time, and she remarked one day: "If I ever give birth to another child, I want it so it will not talk too much." So afterwards she gave birth to seven children, all of whom are idiots.—Shelby Special of 22d to Charlotte Observer.

If troubled with rheumatism, give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price 25c. and 50c. For sale at Marsh's drug store.

Hope is the wondrous angel who beckons us onward to golden glories.—Orange Observer.

Cuts and Bruises Quickly Healed.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm applied to a cut, bruise, burn, scald or like injury will instantly allay the pain and will heal the parts in less time than any other treatment. Unless the injury is very severe it will not leave a scar. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism, sprains, swellings and lameness. For sale at Marsh's drug store.

In Philadelphia they draw the color line on butter. When fellows are caught selling oleomargarine, colored to resemble butter, they are fined $100 and sent to jail for 30 days.—Morning Star.

The Bravery of Woman

Was grandly shown by Mrs. John Dowling, of Butler, Pa., in a three years' struggle with a malignant stomach trouble that caused distressing attacks of nausea and indigestion. All remedies failed to relieve her until she tried Electric Bitters. After taking it two months, she wrote: "I am now wholly cured and can eat anything. It is truly a grand tonic for the whole system as I gained in weight and feel much stronger since using it." It aids digestion, cures dyspepsia, improves appetite, gives new life. Only 50c. Guaranteed at Fetzler's drug store.

Sanitary Notice!

All persons are notified to clean up their premises at once, those keeping hogs are especially warned.

The commissioners have taken strong action in the matter and the mayor has given strict orders. A word to the wise is sufficient. Clean up and stay clean and save yourself of fine and cost. JAS. F. HARRIS, Chief of Police.
