MR. CARR'S VINDICATION.
We insert today a communication from Mr. Jas. S Manning in vindication of Gen. Carr. We insert it in its entirety by request for we were not impressed and really are not yet impressed that Gen. Carr needs any vindication as to his Democracy or his generosity or his loyalty to Mr. Bryan. We never knew that any one questioned either. These seem to us very far fetched charges.

Mr. Manning's first paragraph refers to charges of immorality. Nothing has a more ready and cheerfully assigned place in the columns of the Standard than a vindication of character against slanderous charges. We would most gladly insert for any candidate a clear refutation of specific charges.

The charges of being illiberal, of irregular Democracy and of being untrue to Mr. Bryan sounds preposterous to us and if there is nothing more grave it is in the very nature of things a testimonial to his merits.

AT THEIR OLD TRICKS.
A Springfield dispatch says the Republicans are at their old tricks. They're going to have a herd of stall-fed voters on election day. They have been bringing them from Mississippi and other points South where there's nothing to lose and housing them up in Chicago and other cities to be in trim to cast a vote for McKinley. The Democrats have caught them at their game, however, and may prevent their registration. Those Republicans should import Mr. Holton to arrest registrars.

To indicate that Emperor William is rather exacting upon the Chinese the Washington Post thinks he wants about three teeth for a tooth. This is a coat that would fit a goodly number, however unaware.

We are not enemies of honestly acquired wealth. No one who wants to eat the bread that he earns and to earn the bread that he eats need be afraid of the success of our ticket. The only man who needs to fear is the man who wants to eat the bread that somebody else earns and wants to eat it without paying for it.—W J Bryan.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale at Marsh's Drug Store.

An order has been issued to the post-masters throughout the country to observe the strictest economy with rubber bands and to reuse old band as much as possible, and to save all pieces of string for future use. The famine in India and the war in Philippines have advanced the price of both these articles.—Anderson Intelligencer.

More Than a Joke.
There is more than a joke in the conversation between two workmen:
"Of course you'll vote for McKinley and the full dinner pail, Casey?"
"Of course I will not. I work for my full dinner pail and vote for the best man."—St. Louis Republic.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. M. L. Marsh will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

The paramount issue in Durham, the Sun claims, is the cook question, the "cullud ladies" generally giving up that occupation and many of them remaining idle, rather than preside over a kitchen. Imperialism in the kitchen has long been a burning question with housekeepers.—Raleigh Times.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve
Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Only 25c at Fetzler's Drug Store.

Timely Rain.
The capricious rains on Monday and Monday night suited the farmers very much we learn. It could be heard about that even the cotton picking was out of the way and all things were now ready for a good wetting of the soil so that the ploughing can be done ready for the fall seeding.

DIAMONDS DUTY FREE.
How She Beat the Detectives With Her Little Dog.
Detectives have found a pretty woman beating the government out of a good amount of import duty on diamonds. During the season she has brought in as much as $400,000 worth, it is said, and has not paid a cent of duty on them. As she crossed the line from Canada the detectives did not spare her feelings of modesty but searched most minutely without finding the diamonds. Where they missed it was in not turning her little dog wrong side out, for she had nearly starved him, then packed the diamonds in fat meat which he gulched down. The dog died suddenly when she got to a place where she could pick out the diamonds.

It Happened in a Drug Store.
"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by M. L. Marsh.

Drunk and Kills His Little Daughter.
Junius Montleo, of Hanover county, Va., says the Richmond Times, was drinking and quarrelsome last Friday. He went to take down his gun and his wife thinking him dangerous attempted to take the gun from him. A tussle ensued in which the children aided their mother. The gun was fired killing a little daughter. Without the liquor the man seemed well enough regarded.

A Thousand Tongues
Could not express the rapture of Annie E Springer, of Philadelphia, when Dr. King's New Discovery cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. She says: "After all other remedies and doctors failed it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed to cure all troubles of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's Drug Store.
