THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The Annual Proclamation of the President Made Public by the State Department.

Washington, Oct. 29.—The State Department today issued the following: "By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

"It has pleased Almighty God to bring our nation in safety and honor through another year. The works of religion and charity have everywhere been manifest. Our country, through all its extent, has been blessed with abundant harvests. Labor and the great industries of the people have prospered beyond all precedent. Our commerce has spread over the world. Our power and influence in the cause of freedom and enlightenment have extended over distant countries and lands. The lives of our official representatives and many of our people in China have been marvelously preserved. We have been generally exempt from pestilence and other great calamities; and even the tragic visitation which overwhelmed the city of Galveston made evident the sentiments of sympathy and Christian charity by virtue of which we are one united people; therefore, I, William McKinley, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th of November next, to be observed by all the people of the United States at home, or abroad, as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to Him who holds the nations in the hollow of His hand. I recommend that they gather in their several places of worship and devoutly give Him thanks for the prosperity wherewith He has endowed us, for seed time and harvest; for the valor, devotion and humanity of our armies and navies, and for all His benefits to us as individuals and as a nation; and that they humbly pray for the continuance of His divine favor, for concord and amity with other nations, and for righteousness and peace in all our ways. In witness I have heretofore set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and of the Independence of the United States the 125th.

(Signed) "WM. MCKINLEY.

By the President:

"JOHN HAY, Sec'y of State."

Mrs. H. A. Trexler Dead.

Mrs. Trexler, wife of Rev. H. A. Trexler, of Manning, died last night at 1 o'clock. She leaves a husband and five children, the youngest being an infant of one week. The bereaved husband and children have the sympathy of a number of friends. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. Otho V. Poole.—Salisbury Sun, of 29th.

When you cannot sleep for coughing it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale at Marsh's Drug Store.

ITEMS FROM FAITH.

Aged Lady Dead—Faith's Granite Business—Better Depot Facilities Needed for Small Orders—The Standard Appreciated.

Written for The Standard

Faith, Oct. 30.—Mrs. Sophia Klutz, of near Faith, died Sunday. She was 78 years old and had twenty-three grand children. A large number of friends and relatives followed the remains to their last resting place at Christiana church after the funeral by Rev. Mr. Wertz.

J T Wyatt paid $229.20 to his granite quarry force Saturday. If the people in this granite mining settlement had some way of shipping small orders of granite thousands of dollars would come into this section of the country, and the railroads would get much more freight money. Salisbury is our nearest shipping point, which is six miles distant. The contractors can ship by car loads from the quarry but they have a great many small orders that could be filled if there was an agent near to attend to it, but for lack of whom our county loses many small orders and consequently many hundreds of dollars.

The Week of Prayer.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of St. James congregation is making this the week of prayer. They meet at private houses every evening for devotional exercises and considerations for the mission cause.

They meet tonight, however, in the lecture room where the pastor will make a special lecture. On next Sunday night there will be a public meeting participated in largely by the children's missionary society, and a special program will be rendered.

The hour for meeting is 3:30 p. m., and the society will meet at Mrs. Frank McGraw's tomorrow evening.
