Mr. G. Crawford Goodman.

Our sketch of Mr. G Crawford Goodman was necessarily imperfect for lack of opportunity to get the facts.

He was nearing his 70th birthday. He had no children by his second marriage. He had eight living children by his first marriage, Mrs. Nathaniel Blackwelder being the only daughter.

Of the seven sons, one is in the Philippines, three are in the state of Texas, one in Rowan county and two in Cabarrus.

Mr. Goodman was wedded first to Miss Barnhardt and next to Mrs. Wingate.

He was the last surviving brother of Mr. F Stafford Goodman and was four years the younger.

The remains were buried on Friday the 2nd by the grave of his first wife at the Catholic church.

We do not know Mr. Goodman's religious views but as a moral character and as a good, quiet, kind and honorable citizen, he was all that is ordinarily found in man. His death is a decided loss to the community.

Special Services at St. James.

Special services will be held at St. James church tomorrow, it being the close of the week of prayer. An appropriate sermon will be preached by the pastor, Rev. C B Miller, at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7 o'clock there will be a public meeting of the Woman's and Children's Missionary societies.

At the morning services the pastor will announce the amount received on century thank offering by the congregation.

Cupid in the Paper Folds.

The Monroe correspondent to the Charlotte Observer says:

"An approaching marriage of much interest was announced today. The parties are Mr. B Clegg Ashcraft, the talented young editor of the Monroe Enquirer, and Miss Mary Blair, daughter of the late Dr. I H Blair. The date for the marriage is Thursday, November 15th."

We congratulate Bro. Ashcraft on having gotten a satisfactory answer to a trembling enquiry.

NEWS CULLINGS.

Ex-Mayor Strong, of New York, the last to hold the office before the incorporation of Greater New York, died on the 2nd.

Hon. R B Glenn has challenged Spencer Blackburn for a joint discussion.

A deaf mute negro named J W Hairston, from South Carolina, was killed at Lexington this (Saturday) morning, says a special to the Charlotte Observer. He was beating his way and was standing on the track as No. 33 was approaching. His head was burst open.

A Patterson, N. J., dispatch of the 2nd says: "The grand jury today found indictments against Walter C McAllister, George J Kerr, Lew Campbell and William A Death for the murder of Jennie Bosschier, whose body they threw away at the Waganaw bridge two weeks ago. The grand jury followed the instructions of Judge Dixon given yesterday and indicted the quartette both for murder and rape. It is the province of the petit jury to determine the degree of murder. The grand jury decided today to bring these indictments into the court tomorrow afternoon. They will be received by Judge Barkelow in the Court of Quarter Sessions, but as the Court of Oyer and Terminer has cognizance of such cases the men will not be arraigned until Judge Dixon can come here. That will probably be next week.

A Horrible Death.

Mr. Ed Hedrick, a son of Mr. John Hedrick, met with a horrible death at Holmes Bros.' saw mill in Silver Hill township, Davidson county, Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock.

The Dispatch says: Mr. Hedrick was "bearing off" lumber when, by some means, he stumbled and fell, face downward, on the rapidly moving saw. In an instant the saw had caught him in its clutches, threw him in the air and he then fell back on the teeth. Both arms and one leg were cut off, his face sawed into shreds and mutilated beyond recognition, and his body cut in numerous places.

One of his arms was thrown as far as 50 yards away by the saw and the other at least 25 yards.

Mr. Hedrick was about 21 years of age. He was married only last April.—Salisbury Sun.

Editor Sees Wonders.

Editor W V Barry, of Lexington, Tenn., in exploring Mammoth Cave, contracted a severe case of piles. A quick cure through using Bucklen's Arnica Salve convinced him it is another world's wonder. Cures piles, injuries, inflammation and all bodily eruptions. Only 25c. at Fetter's drug store.

Mixed Marriages, Rotation Names.

A double wedding occurred in Beaufort county last week in which the groom was 61 years of age and the bride 21 years. The son of the groom, 21 years of age, married a first cousin of the bride, who was 24 years of age. The groom of the first party by a former marriage had nine sons and three daughters. The boys' names all began with J, and the girls' names began with L, the names of the girls being Laura, Lena and Lizzie. Another son, some years ago, married a sister of the present bride, so that father and son have married sisters.—New Bern Journal.
