Items From Faith.

Written for The Standard.

Faith, N. C., Nov. 27, 1900.—Mr. W. S. Stirewalt and Mrs. Maggie Rimer were married on Sunday evening by Rev. George Cox. We hope they will locate in Faith, as Mr. Stirewalt is a good granite cutter.

Seventeen granite pillars were shipped from here to Mr. Hatley, at Albemarle Saturday.

Mr. Andy Cooper and family have moved into their new home.

Mrs. J. C. Wyatt, of near Lisk postoffice, is visiting relatives in Faith.

Messrs. George Hoffner and J. Thomas Wyatt have each bought an organ and placed in their parlors. Other families talk of buying soon.

The plastering in the new Lutheran church is about complete.

A. M. E. ZION CONFERENCE.

White Citizens Perfectly Welcome—Bishop Hood to Be Here.

The annual meeting of the Central N. C. Conference of the A. M. E. Zion church will convene in the Methodist church on West Depot street tomorrow (Wednesday the 28th) Bishop J. W. Hood presiding. SALISBURY FIRM ASSIGNS.

The Burt Shoe Company Closed Doors Monday Evening.

The Salisbury Truth-Index says the Burt Shoe Company made an assignment Monday evening for the benefit of its creditors. It is very much regretted in Salisbury. Mr. E. W. Burt, the manager, has been hindered much from sickness, it is said, and could not give the fullest attention to business. He does not avail himself of even the homestead. It is hoped that he will ere long start up business again.

Colored Savings Bank.

Durham's leading progressive colored men are never behind in matters that will tend to advance and promote the welfare of their race.

One of the latest things is the organization of a company for the purpose of opening a savings bank, to be known as the Dime Savings Bank of Durham.

The backers of this movement are Jas. E. Shepherd, John Merrick, R. B. Fitzgerald, Dr. A. M. Moore and others.

The next session of the General Assembly will be asked to charter this enterprise.—Durham Sun.

Eight Fairly Good Riddles.

Feet have they, but they walk not—stoves.

Eyes have they, but they see not—potatoes.

Teeth have they, but they chew not—saws.

Noses have they, but they smell not—teapots.

Mouths have they, but they taste not—rivers.

Hands have they, but they handle not—clocks.

Ears have they, but they hear not—cornstalks.

Tongues have they, but they talk not—wagons.—Golden Days

Miss Sarah Ann Harrelson, of Williamson's Cross Roads, who died recently, has been selling whiskey for the last thirty or forty years in defiance to Uncle Sam. She died in poverty, and some people thought she must have had plenty of money, but we are informed that only seven dollars was found about the place.—Columbus News.

I am not a fanatic on the use of tobacco, but I advise my younger brethren to let it alone.—Bishop Morrison.

Six Frightful Failures.

Six terrible failures of six different doctors nearly sent Wm. H. Mullen, of Lockland, O., to an early grave. All said he had a fatal lung trouble and that he must soon die. But he was urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. After taking five bottles he was entirely cured. It is positively guaranteed to cure all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, including coughs, colds, influenza, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough. 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's drug store.
