

WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair—cooler tonight with heavy frost Wednesday.

Mr. Tom Bost spent the day in the city.

BALED HAY for sale. 3t. Lippards & Barrier.

Mrs. E. J. Bangle, of Forest Hill, is critically ill.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Geo. Gilleland is sick. He has symptoms of pneumonia.

Mr. Gus Hartsell came in last night after being on the road for awhile.

Rev. Z. Rush returned this morning from Greensboro, where he attended conference.

Mr. Roy Sappentfield left this morning for Charlotte, where he will spend Thanksgiving.

Mr. W. A. Day vault is spending the day in High Point on business.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Jane Harris is quite sick at her home on West Corbin street.

Cotton is bringing 9.65 today. About 70 bales were on the market.

Miss Bessie, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Frank Blackwelder, on East Corbin street, is quite sick.

NOTICE—PIGS FOR SALE at Fenix Flour Mill—$3.00 to $5.00 each. Call at once. G. T. Crowell.

Mr. Ralph Cliae left this morning for Charlotte, where he will spend Thanksgiving with his sisters at Elizabeth College.

Mr. W. J. Furr, of Cannonville, is spending the day in Salisbury with his wife, who has been in the hospital for quite a while.

The Heilig house on North Union street is being remodeled and painted. Mr. F. A. Archibald will move into it the first of the year.

Mr. C. B. Miller and his brother-in-law, Mr. McCatchin, left this (Tuesday) morning for Mr. Miller's home in Rowan, where they will spend a few days.

The county commissioners of Mecklenburg offer a $250 reward for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who killed Mrs. Colley and Miss Cathcart.

Miss Montie Christian, of Mt. Gilead, and Miss Janie Patterson, of Mangum, who are visiting Mrs. Charles W. Tillett, of Charlotte, will arrive on the 7:18 train this evening to visit Mrs. W. R. Harris.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, N. C., will be in Concord at St. Cloud Hotel on Wednesday, November 28th, for one day only. His practice is limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Mr. O. V. Mauney, of Cannonville, tells us that his house was the victim of a burglar's effort Monday night. A boarder, Mr. Will Shepperd, was awakened and the would-be sneak thief was frightened away.

Mrs. J. H. Mason, who has been alarmingly ill of blood poison we are glad to learn has somewhat improved and we hope will soon recover. A very small abrasion probably caused by a protruding tack in the shoe gave the start and was fearful in its course for a few days.

If you want to keep warm and be entertained and contribute to a good cause come and spend this evening with "Our Boys" and girls. Concord ought to feel proud of her local talent and show it, as her sister towns, Salisbury and Charlotte do, by giving them a good house. The play is most amusing and bright and the boys and girls ditto. The costumes must be returned to Baltimore tomorrow. One night only. Come and bring all your friends. Eight o'clock sharp.

Leave orders at H. B. Lentz's for fresh fish every Saturday.

Call at H. B. Lentz for fresh pickles, kraut, candies, oranges, fruit of all kinds, canned goods, and all kinds of fancy groceries.

Mrs. Mary A. Smith and little daughter came in this morning from Ritchfield to attend the Smith-Mehaffey wedding.

Despite the cold weather the Lloyd & Genter Company played to a good crowd last night under their tent on the Dummy lot.

Miss Mary McDowell, of Asheville, came in this morning to spend a short while with her cousin, Mr. John McDowell.

A large crowd gathered on the street near the Gibson Drug Store late Monday evening watching a man perform on a bicycle.

Quite a crowd will spend Thanksgiving day in Charlotte to witness the football game between the deaf mutes of Morganton and the Davidson team.

Miss Manhattan, of New York City, Here.

Miss Manhattan, of New York, arrived here Saturday night and is stopping with W. A. Foil, proprietor of the Grocery House. She is a theatrical girl of the highest type. She makes her appearance both day and night in the show window at W. A. Foil's grocery store. She says she is only "sweet sixteen" but the truth of her age is only known by the number of beans in a bottle. Come, buy 50 cents worth of goods for cash and take a guess at her age. The closest guess gets Miss Manhattan, of New York, for Xmas. W. A. FOIL, Grocer. Phone 141. 3t.

With apologies to Gray, the Omaha World-Herald gets off the following:

The curfew tolls the knell of parting day, the victors come round with many a whoop; we Democrats can only watch and pray, and keep our flock of roosters in the coop.

The editor of a Kansas paper the other day was blessed with a baby boy. A little sister, after examining the baby, went to her father and asked: "Did we get him on advertising, too, papa?" —Omaha, (Neb.) News.

If I come to you and say I have had two blessings, and I am right with God, you have no right to question my statement. And it is good evidence that I have had no blessing if I criticize you unkindly because you do not agree with me.—Bishop Morrison.

While There is Life There is Hope.

I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it. Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J. The Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H. The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts., or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale at Marsh's drug store.
