DEATH BRINGS RELIEF.

Mr. Adam M. Blackwelder Dies of Cancer at the Age of 60—A Good Man—Leaves Wife and Three Children.

Mr. Adam M. Blackwelder, of the St. John's church community, died Saturday night at his home. The immediate cause was cancer, which appeared a few years ago and has pursued its steady but malignant course. He has been peculiarly afflicted for many years. He was a member of the 7th N. C. Regiment in the great civil war and during that period suffered from small pox, which left the effect to hinder him from resting in bed. For the years since he took most of his sleep and rest in a sitting position. Amid all he was patient and uncomplaining.

He was a good liver and independent, bearing a name without reproach.

He was practically a life time member of the council of St. John's church and was noted for soundness of faith and loyalty to the pastor, whoever that pastor was.

He enjoyed a singular freedom from enemies. His convictions on all points were strong enough to command respect, while he pressed them upon no one else and therefore offended no one.

The immense concourse of people who attended the funeral ceremonies attested the high degree of respect and esteem which he commanded.

Mr. Blackwelder was 60 years old. He leaves a wife, two sons and one daughter, viz: David Blackwelder, Mrs. Henry Ritchie and John Blackwelder, all married.

The Rev. S. D. Steffey preached the funeral to a full house at St. John's church at 3 o'clock Sunday and the body was laid to a well deserved rest among relatives, including one child, in that venerated city of the dead.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale at Marsh's drug store.

WRECK ON THE SOUTHERN.

Through Freight Strikes Local It is Going On Siding at China Grove—No One Hurt.

On Saturday evening as the local freight train No. 62 was pulling in on the siding just at the depot at China Grove the south-bound through freight No. 73 came bounding in at good speed. Time was too short for the local to slip in or for the momentum of the heavy flying through freight to check up. No. 73 struck 62 about the centre and a scene of wreck and destruction was enacted. The locomotive of 73, one of the Southern's late, large and powerful new engines, was hurled on its side to the left of the track and the escaping steam filled the surroundings even invading the dwelling houses. A number of cars were crushed into splinters and fruits, vegetables, tobacco, dry goods, etc., were scattered as from the hand of a sower. One refrigerator car mounted the wreck and set high and safe.

The crew of No. 73 all jumped and with the exception of a severe shaking up were saved from injury and the crew of the local also succeeded in standing aside so that there was no one really hurt.

Capt. Rider on special train hastened to the scene. Agent Proctor and Wade Barrier joined him at Concord.

At the scene of the wreck the local police protected the property. A cordon was stretched around and only employees were allowed inside the rope. Goods were gathered up and placed in other cars and in the depot and the derrick of the wrecking crew was applied to rolling the disabled cars off the track which itself was not found to be injured so that before 10 o'clock the track was clear and trains were going as if nothing had happened.

Shelby Star: Mr. L. A. Gettys, the big monazite dealer, bought $1,000 worth of monazite at Ellenboro last Monday afternoon. This industry is the means of putting a large amount of cash in circulation in Cleveland and Rutherford counties.

At Parkdale, Ark., last Saturday night two Killian brothers, business men, having a pique with Station Agent Phillips, went to the depot and smashed up things generally and then hunted up Phillips. In the shortest kind of time all three were dead in a three-handed duel.

VETERANS OF 57TH.

Reunion Wanted in Salisbury—All Survivors of This Gallant Regiment Asked to Meet December 13th.

A movement has been made looking to a re-union of the survivors of the gallant 57th N. C. Regiment. The reunion will be held at the court house in Salisbury on Thursday, December 13th, and all survivors, especially those living in Rowan county, are urged to attend.

The date of the proposed reunion is the thirty-eight anniversary of the first battle of Fredericksburg.

It was at this place that the members of the 57th had their first experience in war and their conduct was such as to cause General Lee to issue a general order praising their gallantry. The regiment lost half its men in a very short time during this engagement.

Col. Jones will be present at the reunion.—Salisbury Sun.

BOY IN TROUBLE.

Cuts the Mailsack and Gets $50 But is Caught.

Adam Maness, Jr., a 15-year old boy of Lilesville, was arrested Sunday night on the charge of stealing a registered letter from a mail sack Friday night. Young Maness carried the mail from Lilesville to the depot and on the night in question cut the strap of the sack and appropriated the letter. The letter contained $50 and was money order money which was being sent by the postmaster at Lilesville to the central office at Charlotte. The postmaster had taken the precaution to note the number of the bills, two twenties and a ten, and it was soon discovered that young Maness had had one of the $20 bills changed and this led to his arrest. He confessed the theft and was brought here Monday morning and placed in jail. Tuesday he was taken to Monroe for a preliminary hearing by Deputy Marshall Hampton, of Charlotte.

It is the custom of the Government to have boys under 16 who violate the law sent to reformatories, therefore it is quite likely that young Maness will receive sentence of a few years in one of these institutions when his case is heard in the Federal court.—Wadesboro Intelligencer.
