Concord has 7,910 against 4,339 in 1890 which is a very creditable growth, being an increase for the ten years of 3,571 or 82 and three tenths per cent.

Concord is now surpassed in population only by Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, Raleigh, Wilmington and Winston. In other words she ranks 7th in the number of inhabitants.

Items From Glass.

Written for The Standard.

Glass, N. C., Dec. 10.—Corn is in demand here, it sold for 72 cents per bushel at Mr. A V Sloop's sale last Thursday.

Mr. William Chambers, who has been unwell for sometime is now confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. L C Overcash have our sympathy in the loss of their twins. One died Saturday morning and the other one this morning. They were buried at Enochville.

Mr. Kelley, a pleasant gentleman of Long Island, is spending a few days here hunting with Mr. W H Hammond.

Miss Lena Kirk, of China Grove school, is visiting her sister here.

Rev. Mr. Dennis is still ahead in the pork line. He killed a hog that weighed 335.

Mrs. Denson Caldwell, is still with her daughter, Mrs F W Glass.

Mr. T W Still, of Albemarle, spent a few hours here Sunday.

Melancholy is the nurse of frenzy.—William Shakespeare.

Lot For a Third Lutheran Church.

We are glad to announce that Mr. Jno. C Wadsworth in his Address to Concord has tendered a lot, which he and Rev. C B Miller have designated, for the purpose of a third Lutheran church in the town. The lot lies in a most suitable position for the Lutheran element at Forest Hill, the Gibson mill and the new mill now projected by Mr. B E Harris. The tender is made to the North Carolina Synod and will come up before the executive committee at its next meeting for its reception and appropriate action. It is a very appreciable gift and will be received most gratefully.

Mrs. Barrier Slightly Hurt.

Mrs. F V Barrier was hurt in a peculiar way in front of Mr. G W Wright's furniture store this morning. She was speaking to Mr. Barrier, her husband, salesman for Mr. Wright, who was opening a case of bed springs and had just turned partly around when the case came open and the springs bounded out, striking her on the left arm and shoulder, knocking her against the wall of the building and almost unconscious for a short while.

Fortunately by turning about the blow missed her face, and her injury was only slight.—Salisbury Sun of 11th.

Hall-Bellig.

We acknowledge with thanks the following beautiful card and tender in advance our hearty congratulations:

Mrs. Mary Lizzie Betts requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her sister Grace Gertrude Heilig to Mr. Edwin Alonso Hall, on Wednesday evening, December the twenty-sixth at eight o'clock, Albemarle Evangelical Lutheran Church, Albemarle, North Carolina.

Sale Notice.

I will sell at public auction on Thursday, Dec. 20th, inst., for cash, the personal property of all kinds, belonging to the estate of A. M. Blackwelder, deceased, at his late home in No. 8 township.

D. M. BLACKWELDER, Agent.

Fruit Growers Meet in Asheville.

The twenty-second annual meeting of the State Horticultural society will be held on Dec. 19 at Swananoa Hotel, Asheville. There will be two sessions one at 4:30 and the other at 8 o'clock p. m. The rates are $2 per day. The fruit growers over the state will find this association to be beneficial in this rising industry.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pain in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by M. L. Marsh.

The Unsatisfied.

Ain't no satisfyin' folks!
This here life's a hummer:
When it snows
An' when it blows—
"Good Lord, send the summer!"
Ain't no satisfyin' folks!
Hot sun fires, a splinter;
Then you hear,
Both far an' near:
"Good Lord, send the winter!"
Folks are awful hard to please;
Life—there's little in it;
Come to die—
You hear this cry:
"Good Lord, wait a minute!"
—Frank L Stanton.

A New York woman had a dermatologist to operate on her nose and she knows more now than she did at the beginning, and is suing him for $10,000 for the experience acquired.—Morning Star.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E B Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale at Marsh's drug store
