SUDDEN CALL.

Mrs. Frank Mauney Drops Dead in Her Parlor at Gold Hill—Aged 62 Years.

Mrs. Frank H Mauney died suddenly in the parlor of her home at Gold Hill last night at 8:15 o'clock.

This announcement has been received with much sorrow by the many friends of this good woman in Salisbury and the county.

Mrs. Mauney had been to the store and, on returning, sat down in the parlor and began talking and joking. Suddenly she coughed and fell over, and when picked up she was dead. Death was caused by the heart being overflown. Mrs. Mauney had suffered with heart trouble for some time.

Mrs. Mauney was about 62 years of age. She leaves a husband and five children, one of them being Mr. R L Mauney, of Salisbury.

The funeral will be conducted at Gold Hill tomorrow at 2 o'clock.—Salisbury Sun, of the 14th.

The Way Papa Deal Tells It.

There's an eleven pound assistant editor at our house. He arrived Saturday and is very outspoken and persistent in his opinions, and don't care a continental who knows it.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

[And about the time the proud sire cracks his toes against the chair and crib rocks in his search for the bottles of paregoric and soothing syrup he'll not care a continental who hears him say things he didn't learn in Sunday School.]

Salt of the Earth.

The N. C. Advocate says: "Rev. A D Betts, of the North Carolina Conference, is a blessing to anybody of men. His consecration, his cheerfulness, his sweet spirit are a benediction. Surely he is a Christian indeed and in truth in whom there is no guile. How beautiful it is to grow old gracefully and piously."

[Knowing him so well we say Amen to him. But what has become of one whom we all, know and love—Uncle Jesse Page?]

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lumbago or pain in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by M. L. Mason.

Brave Men Fall.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles, as well as women, and all feel the result in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, rundown feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. J. W. Gardner, of Idaville, Ind., says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he don't care whether he lives or dies. It gives me new strength and good appetite. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at P. B. Fetzer's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

NEWS CULLINGS.

Mrs. Russell, of Mahone N. Y., will soon give her 106th birthday party. She is still nimble enough to do her own house work and patch crazy quilts. She has smoked for 60 years, but draws the line on cigarettes. She doesn't like candy or medicine. Her recipe for longevity is to laugh all you can, and don't worry.—Morning Star.

A Richmond, Va., dispatch of 10th says: "Northern workmen have drawn the color line, and as a result, work on $1,100,000 viaduct of the Chesapeake & Ohio, at this point, was temporarily delayed. The men are in the employ of the American Bridge Company, who have the contract. The men say that Superintendent Hopple put two negroes on the constructing force. The white builders seriously objected and finally laid down their tools and quit. The strikers declare that the only way that they will work with negroes is to have them as laborers.

A special of the 14th from Fayetteville to the Charlotte Observer tells of the misfortune of an industrious and respectable colored family in which mother and daughter were burned to death. A fire got into some shucks in an out house. The daughter attempted to put it out. Her clothes took fire and the mother going to her aid was seized in the frenzy of suffering and both were burned to death.

At Dunkirk, N. Y., a fire broke out Friday morning at 6 o'clock in the Fredonia Station Normal and Training school in which the janitor and six young ladies were burned to death. The property loss was about $200,000 with $93,000 insurance. There were 75 lady students at the institution.

There was a small fire at Rhyne Houk & Co.'s cotton gin Wednesday, it started in the condenser. But for the hose of the Newton cotton mill, the gin and roller mill would have been destroyed. The loss was about $50.—Newton Enterprise.

A San Francisco Dispatch of the 14th says: One of the most severe storms which has ever visited San Francisco broke over the city at an early hour today and has raged in fitful gusts, rain and winds sweeping over the city with unusual violence, accompanied by thunder and forked lightning, a rather unusual occurrence in this city. At one time rain fell in such torrents that many thought a cloud burst imminent. During the height of the storm several houses were overturned by the wind.
