Wedding Bells.

On Christmas eve at 7 o'clock Mr. Walter Deal claimed as his bride Miss Pearl, the popular and only daughter of Mr. F W Bost, of China Grove. The ceremony was performed by their pastor, Rev. Mr. Wertz, in St. Marks E. L church.

The attendants were Mr. T G Furr, Miss Dora Bost, Mr. Pleas Ketchie, Miss Effie Goodman, Mr. Lee Rankin, Miss Eunice Estaker. The ushers were Messrs Ives, Litaker and Chas. Lyerly. Miss Mattie Bolin presided at the organ.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's father after the ceremony.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Deal are popular young people and the numerous bridal presents received by them attest their popularity.

FRIEND.

Items from Glass.

Class. N. C., Dec. 31, 1901.—Miss Annie Hall Flows, who has been spending Christmas here with her brother, Dr. J. V. Flow, returned home today.

Miss Mary John Gilson and Lloyd Flow, who have been spending Christmas in the States, returned home today.

Miss Mary Kay Rogers, who has been spending Christmas at home, returned to Concord and today where she is attending school.

Mr. Bost, who has been here since this morning to join the extra force that has been at Grover, B. C. Capt. Sarvis, of Gastonia, returned today to take his place.

The High School here had a very nice Christmas tree at Mr. John DeLoe's Thursday. The day was unfavorable, but the schoolars all had a nice time.

A little chap big enough to get a poke of oranges, candies and apples.

Mr. James Dayvault had his brother Charles help him through Christmas week as trade has been lively.

Mr. W H Hammond, the dog trainer, who visits here every year, will leave for Florida in a few days. He likes a warm climate.

Mrs. Oldfield, who has been quite sick for some time, is better today.

There was less hunting this Christmas in this county than there has been for years.

Miss Edith Boyce returned today to her school after having spent a week at home.

Mr. John Litaker, who has been employed by the Cannon Manufacturing Co., returned home today.

R.

When a man wants to stop smoking let him buy his wife some new candles.

Handsome Token of Appreciation.

The Concord Telephone Company gave each of its regular employees a $5.00 gold piece this morning as a token of appreciation and esteem. It was a handsome way of starting the new year.

Albino Bird.

Mr. W L Holland, of No. 2 township, reports to us something of a color freak in a right white robin that he observed with a flock of its kind of ordinary hues. He did not capture it. It was most probably an albino of the feathered tribe.

Pebbles From Rocky River.

Bosts Mill, New Year Day, 1902.—Dr. Bailey, specialist of nervous diseases in the city of New York, and Mr. Ford, a tin plate manufacturer of Brooklyn, who have been without master hunter, Mr. T E Smith, here for a week left for their respective homes Tuesday night. They are lavish in their praise of Mr. M L Bost and his Rocky River community as a place to recreate and gather the wealth of real happiness.

We learn that the Bost Mill congregation is quite pleased with their new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Piggins.

Mr. R F Biles, our popular hunter, is in the ring of hunting this season and hopes at an early day to capture a bird for the nest he has in waiting.

Our friend, Jackson Little, is not developing much skill in the science of hunting and we fear he will never be a success at that as he is in mer. handising.

Mr. Sam Dixon, from Littleton, N. C., is visiting here and is quite a charmed and charming guest.

The Poles are being erected for a telephone line from Concord to the Phoenix Mine. In the near future it will link us up and we can "hello" you at will.

Our bachelor friend, Mr. Tom Bost, has his new department to the family dwelling finished and the family will move into it. Then the present residence will be torn away and rebuilt in connection with the new, forming a most elegant country mansion.

We are sorry to say that Mr. John Bost's health is very delicate.

Rest Out of an Increase of His Pension.

A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48 I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by M L Marsh druggist.

Mr and Mrs. Hamby's Watch Party.

Mr. Hamby, the boss dyer at Odell's, and Mrs. Hamby entertained about thirty invited guests at supper Tuesday night and held a watch party at which they saw the cycle of 1901 sweep by and that of 1902 glide in. We are told that it was neatly done without a jar or creak, or even a vacancy of time between. It was a pleasant social event and as far as we know was the principal watch party of the town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fink Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. J C Fink entertained the Forest Hill Young People's Missionary Society, under the guidance and care of Mrs. Fink, and the Sunday school class taught by Mr. Fink, on Tuesday night at their home on North Union street. There were about fifty boys and girls, happy and sweet as the candy they pulled in the old fashioned way.

It was the climax of happiness for the good old year.

Saved His Life.

"I wish to say that I feel I owe my life to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure," writes H C Chrestenson of Hayfield, Minn. "For three years I was troubled with dyspepsia so that I could hold nothing on my stomach. Many times I would be unable to retain a morsel of food. Finally I was confined to my bed. Doctors said I could not live. I read one of your advertisements on Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and thought it fit my case and commenced its use. I began to improve from the first bottle. Now I am cured and recommend it to all." Digests your food. Cures all stomach troubles.—Gibson Drug Store.

The Chinese Government wants to hire an American adviser at a salary of $15,000 a year. Here is a chance for some North Carolina editor who would like to take a rest.—Wilmington Star.

There are Some Simple Remedies indispensable in any family. Among these, the experience of years assures us, should be recorded Painkiller. For both internal and external applications we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christian Era. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis', Price 25c. and 50c.

If a white man is appointed in his place even the democrats down here will rejoice at the promotion of Dancy.—Durham Herald.
