TELEPHONE NO. 71.

CONCORD, N. C. Jan. 15, 1902.

Governor Aycock delivered an address in Charlotte Tuesday night before the Manufacturers' Club. In it he takes occasion to recognize the great ability and invaluable service of C. H. Wiley, in the promotion of popular education in North Carolina. The Governor is happy in his vein. The name of Wiley is an inspiration for the free school system.

The sensational story was started a few days ago that the late Wiley Rush died of smallpox instead of congestion of the lungs, but it was promptly denied by his townsman and successor, Mr. Hammer. It is a pleasure to overlook some news by accident.

Arthur P. Gorman was elected United States Senator by the Maryland legislature on the 14th instant. He will return to that august body on March 4, 1903 and will succeed Senator Wellington (who was not sorry for the fate of President McKinley) and he will resume the place he occupied before the Democracy fell down over the silver dollar.

The Pension Appropriation bill before this Congress carries with it $138,500,000 instead of $144,000,000 as in the last Congress. This is a falling off of $5,500,000 in amount, but the number of pensions keeps growing. The explanation is that there are fewer large sums of back pay and a material decrease in the pensioners or very high rates. We have gone crazy on pensions though and our posterity, without a return to reason and chivalric pride, will be paying pensions to soldiers in the Spanish war and its offspring, the Philippine war, to those who never smelled the powder of battle and who fared better than they did at home.

George H. Phillips, the Chicago corn king by that method of market manipulation, known best by those who know it to their sorrow, went under financially on the 14th, not on corn, however, but on rye. His attorney, Mr. Ringer, says, "He broke. Men whom he worked in former deals went after him and they 'got' him." Phillips bravely says, "I have no excuse to make and no complaints." Now see what becomes of the price of corn which has been so phenomenally high.

A wedding is reported and will probably occur tonight. We have been aware that these young lovers desired no publicity and we felt that they had a right to withhold such if they wished. We most heartily congratulate them and any others who unite in wedlock and tinker their destinies and share their joys and their burdens in life and we cheerfully accede to them the right to choose their own way. It is thus with matters of business. We gladly publish news of a private or personal character when it is not objected to by parties concerned. In cases where houses are broken open and goods are stolen it is a matter of public interest and should be ventilated by the newspapers. To do so, however, is to reap the opposition and violent hatred of the class that is equally as criminal as the perpetrators but shrewd enough to escape punishment.

Children Especially Liable.

Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful. As a remedy, Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. De Witt's Hazel Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians gave her up, writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she soiled two to five dresses a day."—Gibson Drug Store.

Verdict of $750 Against the Western Union.

It will be remembered that Mrs. S. L. Hood, residing in Charlotte, sued the Western Union Telegraph Company in 1900 for not delivering a message to her mother when her child was sick and near unto death. The trial came off in Charlotte Tuesday, resulting in a verdict for $750.00 in favor of Mrs. Hood.

It is not known yet whether an appeal will be taken or not.

Would not Kiss the Book.
He was a bright faced, rosy cheek, little fellow, and was called in the Recorder's court as a witness. There was nothing in his make-up to denote that he had made a special study of microbe problem, or that he was of a rebellious nature. When instructed to place his hand on the Bible, that he might be sworn, he did so without objecting; but when he was instructed to "kiss the book," he balked, and he balked to stay. He had been watching the motley throng press the well worn and dirty black Bible, to their lips and he had formed an opinion and that opinion was that he didn't want to contaminate his lips, and he didn't. When the Recorder insisted upon his kissing the book, the little fellow burst into tears, and said he wouldn't do it. He was finally persuaded to open the book and kiss it on the leaves. —Charlotte News of 13th.

A Profitable Investment.

"I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Demick, Somerville, Ind. "I spent about $1,000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." You don't live by what you eat, but by what you digest and assimilate. If your stomach doesn't digest your food you are really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does the stomach's work by digesting the food. You don't have to diet. Eat all you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles.—Gibson Drug Store.

Beat Out of an Increase of His Pension.

A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48 I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for an every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by M. L. Marsh druggist.
