CHRISTMAS IN LEIPSIG, GERMANY

Rev. J A Morehead, president of the Theological Seminary at Mt. Pleasant, S. C., who is traveling through Europe to recuperate his health, writing from Leipzig says the churches were open on Christmas eve and for three days following for services at some hour and were crowded with attendants. The stores were nearly all closed on Christmas day and the day following. The season is spent in family, social and church enjoyment and there is an entire absence of the fire cracker.

It is passing strange that we have drifted into this firecracker cowbell and hideous hornblowing way of celebrating an event that should only suggest the gentlest, tenderest way of expressing an unspeakable joy. A heathen coming to our land on hearing our style of celebrating the nativity of what his friend and guide told him was the son of the true God asked, "Is your God pleased to be celebrated with such a h—l of a noise as you make? Ours wouldn't be."

Mrs. Carrie Nation happened with a peculiar accident a few days ago. A manufacturing firm sent her a fine sample of hatchet which she was flourishing, probably doing up an imaginary bar room when she let it fall and severed one of her great toes. Carrie and her hatchet seem to have had trouble enough to sever relations rather than toes.

We have arranged with the Practical Farmer to club with The Standard, the two for $1.50. A number of our farmers read the Practical Farmer and are greatly pleased with it. It is published in Philadelphia. Prof. W. F. Massey, of our North Carolina Experiment Station is editor. This is a guarantee of its splendid merits. The regular price of this weekly is $1.00 per year, but we can furnish it with The Standard at $1.50. It is doubtless a great mistake of farmers who think they cannot afford to take good papers and plenty of them. In this fast moving age no one can afford not to read, and especially along special lines.

"Nell She says her husband is very easily pleased. Belle—He must be, or he wouldn't have married her."

Important to Confederate Veterans and Their Friends.

Volumes 1, 2 and 3 of "Regimental Histories of North Carolina" have been issued and volume 4 printed and nearly ready. These volumes can be had at $1 each, from the State Librarian. Volume 5 is printed also, except corrections and the "index," which will delay its issue till March 1st. As the first requisite is accuracy and truthfulness all who may discover any errors and omissions in the work are earnestly requested to send corrections to "Editor Regimental Histories," Raleigh, N. C., by the 15th of February. Those who failed to get the photos of their friends in previous volumes can have them placed in volume 5 by sending them to Maj. C. L. Patton, University Publishing Company, New York City, by the 15th of February, 1902. The photos must have been taken "during the war or not long after" and must be accompanied by money order for $2.50, as the State does not pay for engravings. No line is drawn at rank. Photos will be returned by Major Patton to senders. This is the last opportunity for corrections or photos.

All the papers of the State are earnestly requested to copy this for information to the Confederate veterans among their readers.—News and Observer.

A Fireman's Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Fetzler's Drug Store. Price 50 cents.

Mr. W. S. Frost Dead.

Mr. W. S. Frost, assistant train master of the Southern from Spencer to Greenville, S. C., who has been sick at his home in Salisbury died Saturday night. His malady was rheumatism which finally assumed fatal form by attacking the heart. He was about 50 years old and leaves a wife and two children.

He ranked well among popular and efficient railroad officials.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's drug store.

"In the human race the butcher holds the steaks."

"There is never any fluctuation in the price of wild oats."

CARE OF LAMPS.

How They Should Be Handled to Insure Good Lights.

Much has been said and written concerning the best lamp chimneys and burners to use in order to have good lights, but neither one is so important as to keep the burners clean. Many lamps give a dull, feeble light or have been set aside as dangerous because they are not properly cared for in this respect and the dust has accumulated in the small air tube at the side of the wick. The remedy is so simple that there is no excuse for this condition of affairs.

New lamp chimneys are toughened and made more durable by putting them in water and heating it gradually until it is boiling hot. When they have boiled five minutes, turn them off the stove and allow them to cool in the water. In addition to the daily filling of the lamps and cleaning of the chimneys, the burners should be boiled once a week in water containing enough washing powder to make a good suds. This will remove the oil and leave them bright and clean. Polish with dry flannel.

Use none but the best oil, and the lamp should be kept full to insure a good light. Keep the reflector, if it has one, brightly polished. Do not cut the wick, but turn it just above the tube and rub off the charred portion with a match.

How to Make Coddish Salad.

This is a nice fall or winter salad: Pull off in narrow strips a pound of old fashioned salt codfish. Soak overnight in cold or lukewarm water. In the morning squeeze out all the water by putting fish in a thin cloth. Put into a saucepan and cover with cold water and let it boil gently for twenty minutes. Then drain and again squeeze dry. Toss about with a silver fork until pieces are separated, put into a salad bowl with equal quantity of boiled potatoes, hard boiled eggs and, if you like them, a few minced anchovies and a chopped dill pickle. Mix with mayonnaise and garnish the dish with shredded lettuce and chopped celery.

How to Fry Cauliflower.

Soak the cauliflower, head downward, in cold salted water, then cook until tender in boiling salted water; separate flowerets, sprinkle with paprika and lemon juice and let stand several hours. Dry the flowerets on a cloth, roll each piece in a beaten egg, then in breadcrumbs and repeat this process until all the parts are well covered. Fry in deep fat, smoking hot, and drain on soft paper. Serve on a folded napkin. Pass with them tomato sauce.

Don't Live Together.

Consumption and health never go together. Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers promote easy action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with constiveness nine years," says J. O. Greene, Depauw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies but Little Early Risers give best results."—Gibson Drug Store.
