A DREAM REVEALS A POT OF GOLD.

The Vision of a Widow Near Caroleen Shows the Hidden Treasure and Her Grandson Digs It Up.

Rutherfordton, Jan. 22.—A remarkable find was made yesterday by a young man near Caroleen. For several generations it has been believed that somewhere on the William Morrow plantation was buried a pot of gold and for years people who have lived in that locality have dug for the hidden treasure. Mrs. Morrow, a widow who is a very aged lady, dreamed out the mystery and directed her grandson, Tom Tomes where to dig for the long talked of pot of gold. The young man went immediately and excavated an old soap-tone pot, which will hold about one gallon, and found it filled to the top with gold. There is one large nugget in the pot. The balance seems to be old coins hammered out and without date or device. There was also with the pot an Indian flint tommyhawk.

Young Tomes was in town today but refused to talk about the amount of his find except to his cousin, Virgil Tomes, who is a clerk in the Levi store, from whom this information was gathered.

Thompson-Allen.

The following handsome card is before us:

Mrs. Sidney E Allen invites you to be present at the marriage of her daughter, Nettie Miller, to

Mr. Hansell Provost Thomas Wednesday, February the fifth, nineteen hundred and two at half after six o'clock. St. James Lutheran church, Concord, North Carolina

The card inclosed says: "At home after Feb. 14th 607, Summit street Winston Salem, N. C."

We are requested to say that invitation cards have been sent to parties outside of the city only but that this invitation published is intended for all citizens of Concord who may be pleased to attend.

The Lowrance Boys Said to be in Carras.

Information reached the city yesterday that Joe and Henry Lowrance, who were implicated in the killing of Alex. Gibson, at Huntersville, had been seen near Concord. Justice S. H. Hilton issued warrants for their arrests and gave their trail. Nothing had been heard as to the whereabouts of Will Whitney, the third man implicated in the killing. The warrants issued charge these men with murder. The Charlotte officers seem to think that their capture will prove an easy matter.—Charlotte Observer of 23rd.

VICIOUS AND DASTARDLY.

South Carolina Man Closes to His Wife and is Shot At.

A dastardly attempt was made on the 22nd to kill Mr. R. Walter Patton near Rock Hill, S. C. He was in the act of closing the blinds to his store at night when some one fired two shots at him. Bloodhounds were secured from Charlotte that caught up and followed the trail to the Catawba river where it was lost.

The assassin is not yet discovered. The hounds passed by the home of the negro suspected without stopping.

Fortunately Mr. Patton is not hurt. Books etc., in his pockets turned the course of the more dangerous shot.

Rocky River Bridge Contract Let.

The County Commissioners let the contract for building the new bridge across Rocky river on Tuesday to Mr. Rufus Kizer for $1125. This includes the building of the approaches as well as the bridge and abutments.

As for making the new road they did not let the contract, but hire hands and have such work done as is necessary at actual cost.

Zion Hill's Pastor Made Glad.

The Rev. T. B. McLain, pastor of Zion Hill A. M. E. Zion church received a very agreeable surprise from his parishioners, led by his steward, John Farror, on the night of the 22nd. There were donations that ranged from a cake of soap to a sack of flour and made glad the pastor's heart, for which he expresses his deep gratitude.

Maclay's History Ordered Removed.

Annapolis, Jan. 22.—The Senate today unanimously adopted an order directing the State Librarian of Maryland to remove from the State Library the third volume of Maclay's History of the United States Navy.

The Senate also unanimously adopted a resolution urging the adoption of a Congressional resolution extending a vote of thanks to Rear Admiral Sefley for gallantry in the battle of Santiago.

Many Celebrities Will be There.

According to the plans of those interested the centennial at the Salem Academy next May will indeed be a notable event. Although the committee from Winston-Salem who visited Washington was unable to secure a promise from President Roosevelt to attend, still they were successful with others and among those who have accepted invitations are Minister Wu, Attorney General Knox, Secretaries Long and Wilson and Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson.—Raleigh Times.

Child Worth Millions.

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa. "yet I would have lost her by croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for cough, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The taste is like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly.—Gibson Drug Store.

Mrs. Ritchie and Mrs. Wright returned today from Boston, where they attended the Ritchie-Ritchie wedding.
