RITCHIE RITCHEE.

A Beautiful Wedding—a Charming Couple—Sumptuous Supper—Profusion of Valuable Presents.

Richfield, January 22, 1902.

At Mt. Zion Church, Richfield, on Wednesday the 22nd, Mr. Mack L Ritchie and Miss Josie L Ritchie were happily united in marriage by the Rev. W A Dutton.

The church was neat and attractive in its decorations, including an arch of flowers and evergreens, just in front of which the bridal pair took their stand.

At 3 o'clock p. m. Miss Nola Misener touched the organ and it sent forth the thrilling tones of the wedding march.

Messrs. Mumpford Ritchie and James Reeves, the ushers, marched up the aisle, followed by the ribbon girls, little Misses Jennie and Lizzie Ritchie, Misses Mary Ritchie and Nora Crowell holding the ribbons at the vestibule.

The ushers and ribbon girls having taken their places, Prof. W A Weddington entered, escorting Miss Mabel Bostian, followed by Mr. T L Ross and Miss Myrtle Patterson and Mr. O L Linn and Miss Pauline Thom.

The room, stately and grand, led his bride to the altar. She was the personification of loveliness, arrayed in white organza with bridal veil and crowned with a wreath of exquisitely beautiful viney flora. She bore a magnificent bouquet of brides roses and maiden hair ferns with floral trail reaching well to the floor.

The bride's maids were beautifully dressed in white, bearing bouquets of carnations and ferns.

Rev. Mr. Dutton pronounced the beautiful Lutheran ceremony that made these lovers husband and wife, and extended his congratulations, when the bridal pair marched out to the timing of the sweet strains of the organ and were followed by the attendants in the reverse order of enterings the little misses gathering up the ribbons.

The bridal party, attendants and invited guests, repaired, at once, to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous supper was served, embracing all ordinary viands known to the cuisine art with fruits and sweet meats in great abundance and variety.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D D Ritchie and is well known for her accomplishments in all that goes to make up marital bliss and domestic happiness.

The groom is immensely popular as a business man and first class citizen. He is the son of Mrs. D M Ritchie of our town and is a member of and general manager of the firm of the China Grove Hardware Company.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome and valuable presents, including silver and china ware, cut glass, table linen, handsome rugs and last, but not least $50 in gold. E. and J.

WRECK AT THE DEPOT.

Cross Ties Fall and Wreck Two Flat Cars—One Destroyed.

A wreck occurred at the depot Thursday night. As second section of No. 72, freight was passing at a point just below the yard some ties fell off a flat car and onto the track, derailing it and the car following it. The two flat cars were badly wrecked. One was past repairs and was burned. The other was sent to the shops for repairs. Fortunately no person was involved in the accident and therefore no one was hurt.

Child Worth Millions.

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa., "yet I would have lost her by croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for cough, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly.—Gibson Drug Store.

Miss Ula Parks went to Harrisburg this morning to attend a grand dance which will take place tonight.
