CONVENIENT MALADY.

Tom Rollins seems to be a practical joker down about New Bern. He was jailed for stealing some time ago. He seemed to thrive on the roving long fingered mode of living and jail life did not agree with him. Public sentiment quickly forgets the injuries to the whole community when there is a thief amuck and bestows unmerited pity at an unrepentant martyr cry. So it was said that Rollins was going to die very soon of consumption and the case was laid before our large-hearted governor and he of course turned him out. It is said the neighbors began to take special oversight of their valuables and sit up o' nights for Tom was getting over his consumption with alarming rapidity. The watchers didn't have to wait long for he was soon at his pranks and is now in the clutches of the law again and of course will soon have consumption or something just as good for the purpose.

Bear Admiral Schley arrived in Chicago on the 25th amid immense, popular enthusiasm. It was a splendid ovation from his entrance to the city to the entertainments by the various committees. He put at rest, however, all idea of his becoming a candidate for the presidency. He feels and wisely, too, that to enter politics means to divide the popular love and esteem that the American people bear for him and this would be a sacrifice he would not make for the presidency. He prizes these manifestations of popular favor for what they are and does not let them turn his head. The hero of Manila Bay evidently had an ordeal from first to last before which the whole Cuban affair paled into insignificance as to its requirement of executive ability as well as fighting tact but then he thought it meant a presidency and that, too, after that little Savannah affair and the gifted home transfers so that much of the glory has departed. Admiral Schley seems wiser.

Says he was tormented.

"I suffered such pain from corns I could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsborough, Ills., "but Buckle's Arnica Salve completely cured them." Acts like magic on sprains, bruises, cuts, sores, scalds, burns, boils, ulcers. Perfect healer of skin diseases and piles. Guaranteed by Fetzer's drug store—25c.

A Warning to Borrowers.

A man who was too economical to take this paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance and, failing to notice a barbed wire fence, ran into that, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $4 pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the cornfield and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the wife ran, upset a four gallon churn full of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock. In the hurry she dropped a $7 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled milk and into the parlor, ruining a brand new $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up 11 setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts.—Ex.

A Fireman's Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all ran down. I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Fetzer's Drug Store. Price 50 cents.

Bad Fire in Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 25.—Fire today in the wholesale business district destroyed property to the value of $300,000 and caused the death of Richard H. Vidmer, a leading society man of Mobile, and Bat Thomas, a negro laborer from New Orleans. Three firemen were injured, two slightly and one painfully. Mr. Vidmer and Thomas were assisting the firemen in subduing the flames and were caught by falling walls.

"Winter Homes in Summer Lands."

The above is the title of an attractive booklet just issued by the Passenger Department of the Southern Railway. It is beautifully illustrated and fully describes the winter resorts of the South. A copy may be secured by sending a two-cent stamp to S. H. Hardwick, G. P. A., Washington, D. C.

The Preponderance of Man.

It appears from the data presented by the new Census that the males in the United States outnumber the gentler sex 24 in 1000.

Thus it is obvious that, if all the women do not get husbands, it is not for lack of available material.

For every 100 women Montana has 160 men, Idaho 223, Nevada 153, Arizona 140, Oregon 129, California 123. The Eastern and Southern states on the other hand show, as a rule, an overplus of women.—Randolph Argus.

Don't Live Together.

Constipation and health never go together. De Witt's Little Early Risers promote easy action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with costiveness nine years," says J. O. Greene, Depauw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies but Little Early Risers give best results."—Gibson Drug Store.

Sow Paw Seized.

The Concord correspondent under date of 25th to the Charlotte Observer says:

"Deputy Collector J. A. Sims and Policeman Boger made a seizure of eleven and a half gallons of whiskey which they found today in the house of a man named Marks, living near the Cabarrus Cotton Mill. They found three empty kegs and some bottles of whiskey in the house, but made no arrest.

Mr. Lyerly's Loss at Cleveland.

The Salisbury Sun of 25th says Mr. Alexander Lyerly sustained a loss of about $8,000 last Thursday at Cleveland. A small negro boy was playing with fire near his warehouse in which he had 182 bales of cotton. The fire was communicated and the tale is quickly told. All was lost, there being no insurance even.

Capt. Wiley Gen. Manager.

The Salisbury Sun says Capt. Carl Henrich has resigned as general manager of the Union Copper mine and Capt. W. Murdock Wiley has been chosen as his successor. Capt. Wiley is well acquainted with the workings of the mine and is a brainy man. It seems the selection must be a good one.

"Dr." is a abbreviation frequently used to express the relations of a patient to his physician.
