DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL OCCASION.

MRS. ALLEN GIVES RECEPTION TO BRIDE AND GROOM ELECT.

Beautiful Table Ornamentation and Superb Menu—Pleasures Run Into Wee Small Hours.

Mrs. Laura Allen's home on West Depot street was the center of joy unconfined on Tuesday night. It was the occasion of the wedding reception she gave to her daughter, Miss Nettie Allen and Mr. Hansel Thomas, the bride and groom elect, and their attendants at which Bishop and Mrs. Edward Ronthaeler and Mrs. T J Wilson, of Winston-Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. H M Saunders, of Sumter, S. C., and Mr. D E Allen and Mrs. Luke Sewell, of Charlotte were the guests of honor.

The groom's attendants only arrived at one o'clock, owing to delay, so that the feast began at that hour and lasted till after two o'clock when the happy circle dispersed in the wee small hours.

The dining room was a scene of charming order.

Over the table was an inverted cone of paper chrysanthemums. From the center and pending point, extended four ribbons trimmed with asparagus ferns reaching near to the four corners of the table ending with a spreading loop. Three beautiful candelabra trimmed with chrysanthemums added to its picturesque beauty.

The sideboard was a bank of evergreens interspersed with handsome silver candle sticks from which glowed the mellow light. The colors were white and green.

At each plate was a booklet called 'the flower of fortune, with the following verse:

"Since olden times
The daisy flower
Has been endowed
With magic power.
So choose a leaf
And you will see
What fortune has
In store for thee."

The several pages of the book contain an imitation daisy over which is written these several topics:

"Your Ambition in Life, Your Characteristics, When You Will Marry, Where You Will Spend Your Days, The Result of Your Ambition, Your Chief Virtue, Your Worst Fault."

To these under each daisy leaf is an answer to each query and the apt and the quaint replies afforded much amusement.

The menu consisted of four courses, while the social spread was an unchanged feast from first to last.

DIED IN MORMON LAND.

A Prosperous Farmer Who Left Rowan County Dies at His Adopted Home in Idaho.

A letter received at Faith announces the death last month of Mr. George Goodman, of Idaho. The letter also says that one of Mr. Goodman's sons died recently.

Last year Mr. Goodman, who was a well-to-do farmer of the St. Paul neighborhood, was converted to the Mormon faith. His entire family, consisting of a wife, two sons and two daughters, changed their faith with him and he sold all his property here and went to Idaho.

The remaining members of his family are still living in Idaho.—Salisbury Sun.

Thirteen Lost at Sea.

As a result of the fearful wind Sunday night, on the north-east coast, three coal barges being towed from Newport News to Boston are believed to have been lost and their crews to have perished. There were thirteen persons probably lost, including the wife of Capt. Miller. Bodies have been found that are recognized.

Items from No. 11.

Jan. 5, 1902.—A good many of the people spent last week in Concord.

Mr. Deberry Isenhour is very sick of pneumonia, we are sorry to learn.

The swollen streams Saturday evening were very painful to some of the young men of this community. It is hard to tell how it served the girls. We haven't heard from them yet.

Mrs. Salie Bost, who has been right ill of pneumonia, is convalescing fast.

Mr. Will Brafford has sold his machinery and one share in the Cleaver club to Mr. Frank Faggart.

The young people, of No. 11, will have a party at Mr. J C Faggart's next Friday night.

Miss Hattie Goodman is teaching school at the new school house three miles south of Concord.

Miss May Bost is visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Furr, in Concord.

The young girls, in No. 11, are so scarce that some of the boys are leaving.

We haven't any old maids, but we have plenty of bachelors. Bachelor Tom says he has several brothers and nine of them are bachelors.

The farmers would like to see wheat take a new start, but the weather does not permit. T.

THE "DEESTRICT SKULE."

A Frothy Travesty and Laughable Allusion to Former Days—A Financial Success

The "Deestrick Skule" at Forest Hill Tuesday night was a crowning success as to fun and finance.

The imitation of the good old ways of the gone by days afforded a rich flow of merriment. It was a travesty with striking allusions to the real in those days and being acted with the skill of adepts was supremely amusing.

The costumes were comical exaggerations of the real, as were the answers to many questions, giving the whole a ludicrous vein that filled full the requirements of the best of men for a little nonsense now and then. We will not attempt a detailed account of the different scenes and the weird and witty sallies but invite some friend yet to give us the complete account of it.

We are glad to learn that the financial results were $35.

Easier "Soms" for the Boy.

"SIR:—Will you in the future give my son easier soms to do at nites? This is what he's brought hoam two or three nites back: 'If fore gallins of bere will fill thirty-two pint bottle, how many pints and half bottles will nine gallins of bere fill?' Well, we we tried and could make nothin of it at all, and my boy cried and laughed and sed he didn't dare to go bak in the mornin without doin it. So I had to go and buy a nine gallin keg of bere, "which I could ill afford to do, and then he went and borrowed a lot of wine and brandy bottles. We fill them, and my boy put the numbers down for a answer. I don't know whether it is right or not, as we split some while doin it.

P. S.—Please let the next some be in water, as I am not able to buy more bere."—Exchange.

Saved Him From Torture.

There is no more agonizing trouble than piles. The constant itching and burning makes life intolerable. No position is comfortable. The torture is unceasing. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles at once. For skin diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, all kinds of wounds, it is unequalled. J S Gerall, St. Paul, Ark., says: "From 1865 I suffered with the protruding, bleeding piles and could find nothing to help me until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Beware of counterfeits.—Gibson Drug Store.

Twenty-Five Pieces For 25c.

We will, until further notice, Laundry 25 pieces, such as Pillow Cases, Sheets, Towels, Napkins and Handkerchiefs, for 25c. Not more than 8 sheets to be in each lot. Table Cloths and Spreads in with the above will be 5 and 10c each. No starch will be put in any of the above mentioned.

We are yours to please,

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy Fainting and Dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes Constipation, proves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at Peizer's Drug store.
