MRS. T. C. STRICKER DIES SUD- DENLY.

Passes Away With but Few Moments
Notice at the Age of 59 Years—Funeral 10 a. m. Thursday.

Mrs. T. C. Stricker died very suddenly and unexpectedly at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening at her home on West Corbin street.

She had not enjoyed the best of health, being afflicted with rheumatism and acute indigestion. She had been suffering with la grippe, attended with gastritis and was quite sick some days ago, but was so much improved that the family felt no alarm till some thirty minutes before the end when she was attacked with acute indigestion. At alarming symptoms, members of the family, that were out, were called but were not able to reach her bed before death.

Mrs. J. L. Eddleman, who had gone to visit relatives in Rowan, was summoned and came in this morning. Mr. Eddleman will arrive tonight as will Mrs. R. L. Daughton.

The funeral will be conducted in St. James church Thursday at 10 a. m. by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Hiller.

Mrs. Stricker's maiden name was Miss Rebecca Pope, daughter of the late Esq. Kirby Pope.

She was born Oct. 19, 1842 and was therefore 59 years 3 months and 11 days old. She was married Feb. 7, 1865 and bereaved of her husband on the 4th day of last September. She reared to him eight daughters and one son who are now so soon bereaved of her a most devoted mother.

Mrs. Stricker's absorbing characteristic was devotion to her husband and children. For them she lived and labored with unflagging tenderness.

Though a Presbyterian originally she adopted the church of her husband and lived a consistent Christian from youth till death.

Our sympathies are tendered to the broken household of bereaved children.

One Man Killed in a Wreck.

In a collision between a heavy loaded freight and an engine and caboose on the Seaboard Air Line near Forestville Monday a colored brakeman was caught between two cars and burned to death, the smashed cars having burned up. Two other colored trainmen were seriously hurt.

Keep up a Brisk Attack upon that bad cold, and do not wait for it to "wear itself out" Perry Davis' Painkiller is a powerfully. Use it internally, with warm, sweetened water. Rub it well into the inflamed throat and sore chest, and when the foe has taken flight you will understand why time and spasmodic competition make no difference in the popularity of the one Painkiller—Perry Davis.

GLASS TRANSPARENCIES.

Cupid About—Mrs. Pethel Will Give a School Entertainment—Dark Picture for the Farmers—Spring Longed for and The Standard Awaited With Good Wishes.

Glass, Feb. 11, 1902.—On last Sunday at the residence of Rev. V. R. Stickley, Enochville, one of the most surprising events of the season occurred. Mr. Chas. Litaker, of Glass, and Miss Loda Bost, of Enoch, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. The bride was indeed one of Enoch's fairest daughters (whom they regret very much to lose, but where Enoch loses Glass wins). The groom is one of Glass' most energetic and promising young men. Our congratulations are tendered to this young couple and to as many more as can follow.

Mr. Will Overcash left this morning to resume his school duties at Trading Ford after attending the Litaker-Bost wedding.

We are glad to note that Mr. J. P. Trice is out after being confined to his room for a few days.

Our efficient teacher, Mrs. M. V. Pethel, has decided to give an entertainment at the close of her school, which will be right soon. After the day for the exercises has been appointed we will extend invitations to our city friends to attend.

Our farmers say "the dark side of the picture is turned," for there has never been such a poor prospect for a wheat crop.

Mr. F. W. Glass is on his feet again after a severe attack of la grippe.

Spring would be a most welcome caller, as our people think this has been the most severe winter of fifty.

Wishing The Standard success we are awaiting another issue.

"REMUS."

COLD IN KENTUCKY.

North Carolina Boy Frozen Up—Wants to be Back by North Carolina Fire Side.

Cynthiana, Ky., Feb. 10, 1902. MR. EDITOR:—Perhaps it will interest some of your North Carolina readers to hear a word from a North Carolina boy who is in Kentucky.

The weather here is very now. On the 28th of January about three inches of sleet and snow fell and is still on the ground.

It is snowing today and the snow has already attained a depth of about two inches on top of the sleet that fell two weeks ago.

The mercury has been from four degrees below zero to about ten above for nearly two weeks. Notwithstanding the cold weather the merchants here are doing a very good business.

The farmers can barely get out to feed and take care of their stock, and the saw mill men; well they just will have to stay in until the weather gets better. "I am a sawmill man and if I was back in North Carolina sitting by the good old family fire as I did when I was a boy, I just tell you there is not enough money in Kentucky or any other state to get me away. But I am here and have promised to stay till summer time and I guess I will have to tough it out.

There is no place like dear old North Carolina if her land is poor. G. H. L.
