LOSSES WITH AND WITHOUT FRUITS.

Fires and accidents are abnormally frequent and disastrous of late. The deaths resulting at the fires and from accidents within the past two weeks far exceed those killed in the war with Spain, and the loss of property is appalling.—Morning Post.

Thus it is. We are wont to eulmerate the loss of life and property by our occupancy of the Philippines which seemed to fall into our lap as a result of an upheaval of the fossilized Spanish government while much greater losses around us seem fruitless wastes of life and property. Abuses are to be condemned and deplored, but if half a century hence it is not seen by the then living broad minds that it was a God send for the islands and a deed to bring blessing and glory to this young, wealthy nation of ours, this writer's fancies are welcome to moulder in oblivion.

IT'S A GREAT MOVEMENT.

Good roads has been the talk in Raleigh this week and we hope it will spread over the land. We can't lay down all other matters and get good roads at once but certainly good roads should grow up with the country. Progress along this line will give impetus to all others. It is a great big job to control our clay roads in wet weather but good grading and draining help wonderfully and the application of special means at very unfavorable parts are necessary and it seems could, and should be adopted.

Broad wagon tires would be worth a whole lot if we could get them adopted.

The movement will most certainly be the means of great improvement.

"Where your treasure is there will your heart be also" is often demonstrated. Mr. Duke started to giving to Trinity College and if spared to ripe old age he will most probably bring up his gift to a million dollars. Mr. Palmer gave $20,000 some time ago to Eloh. College, stimulating its friends by the conditions to give $12,000. Now he proposes to give $10,000 more and make the conditions to further excite the zeal of friends to give $3,000, which will bring up the endowment of the college to $50,000. The more one does for a cause the more dear it becomes.

"It is lucky for men that women love without intelligence."

The New York World will send out an elaborate highly colored issue Sunday descriptive of the exposition at Charleston. It will be a splendid advertisement of that great Southern show and a thing of beauty to see in advance of the real view.

Nine men dead is the result so far of Lee Turner's battle in the Kentucky mountains Wednesday. He is terrorizing the community with threats of vengeance. The earth sorely needs a riddance of such as he.

We noted a day or two ago that the Raleigh people were up in arms against some objectionable posters in the city that were termed nasty yet the mayor had no legal authority to suppress them or take them down. Wonder if it were anything more than 1902 comic valentines.

Fancy Pygmalion's Ivory image coming to life by the power of Venus, and, meeting people who owe everybody they can owe, and gaining business patronage thereby, and turning down bill collectors without regret or apology, while pleading for the common justice of payment of small sums due them. Wouldn't she want to nestle her head in the bosom of her creator husband and weep! And wouldn't the Grecian gods sigh in unison!

A tripple tragedy is told in a New York dispatch of 13th in which Policemen Crelin attempted to stab his wife, who was afflicted with consumption. Her daughter saved her, but became the victim of his quarrelsome hate and later he shot her. He would have shot his wife, but the excitement overcame her and she died of a hemorrhage. He then shot himself. He and his daughter were not killed, but are expected to die. The act is in keeping with many such, but the misfit of such character on the police force of a city makes it doubly unseemly. It may be impossible to have gentlemen entirely for policemen, but any other sort is a crime in itself.

The Last Heard of It.

"My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," says F D Reynolds, Mansfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it.—Gibson Drug Store.

Tom—She said she had never been kissed. Dick—Then I suppose you kissed her. No—She kissed me, saying she always attended to such matters herself.—Philadelphia Press.

Old Soldier's Experience.

M M Austin, a civil war veteran, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife was sick a long time in spite of good doctor's treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills, which worked wonders for her health." They always do. Try them. Only 25c at Fetzler's Drug Store.

Bingham School Notes.

Mebane, N. C., Feb. 10, 1902.

—On Friday evening, February 7th, Mr. and Mrs. Gray entertained the students and a number of young ladies at their home from the hours of 8 to 11 o'clock. The evening was one of continual mirth and happiness, every one present taking part in the games, the vocal and instrumental music and the tete-a-tete. The singing of solos, duets, quartets and songs by the student body added much pleasure to the entertainment. Delicious refreshments were served and the joyful spirit of the occasion seemed to pervade the dining room as well as parlor, halls and sitting room. The evening passed only too quickly and the general verdict of all was that Mr. and Mrs. Gray surely know how to make girls and boys enjoy themselves.

While the schedule for base ball games has not been completed, yet six have been arranged for, and every bright afternoon finds the candidates for the team on the field. The newly elected officers are W H Wynne, Captain; Prof. J S Clay, Manager; P L Ross, Treasurer, and W W Green, President of Athletic Association.
