IT SNOWS.

The sky became ominous Friday evening and the ordinary small boy prognosticated snow and consequently reveled in anticipated juvenile delight. About 5 o'clock it began to fall and there was little if any cessation during the night. This morning it measures fully 14 inches, some report even 18 inches, and is the heaviest snow fall since 1857 (which was about 18 inches) and that stands out as the only one to excel it in the memories of our oldest citizens.

The great benefits to the farming element in giving new life to wheat and oats, and the joys it brings to the juveniles and to the sentimental tribe in sleighs and muffs, with their rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes, coying slyly of gayety and love, must compensate for or weigh in the balance against the suffering endured where the hearth is cold and the pantry empty, clothing thin and anxiety racks the parent in poverty.

The snow serves too as a curiosity, an epoch in the weather record, a break in the ordinary and a warning that you know not what a day may bring forth in winter.

It is stated as a fact that Graham county has not a negro in it and that it is the only county in the State that has done got in that fix.

It seems that Johns Hopkins University is to be rebuilt on another site of 176 acres which have been donated for the purpose in the northern suburbs of Baltimore.

Senator Pritchard is quite favorably impressed with the Panama Route for the Isthmian canal. Presuming that the matter of title and concessions are not a hindrance, it is difficult to see how he could be otherwise. It is equally difficult too, to see why diplomacy should fail in obtaining these unless on account of Columbia's little domestic war.

Little has been heard of Pitchfork Tillman for two or three days. It is said to be due to the fact that he is elbowing senators for the defeat of J F Richardson for post master at Greenville as he is McLaurin's man. Tillman has discovered that there is such thing as senatorial courtesy that is about to be violated in his case.

Representative Geo. W Smith, of Illinois will press his bill in Congress to reduce letter postage to one cent. Wonder if postal cards will be half a cent then.

It is again said that Diaz will retire from the presidency of Mexico probably within six months. Then the world will almost hold its breath to see what Mexican government will be without Diaz.

It's a Monument to Her.

Mr. Alfred Wilson says there is a woman in Catawba township that knows how to look out for herself and is entirely independent of the men. She needed a chimney this winter to her house and built it herself. It is of stone about 15 feet high, and is as good a job as any mason could do. Her name is Mrs. Harriett Bumgarner. — Newton Enterprise.

"Boo" And the Way He Went.

A woman living in the suburbs was aroused by a noise at the window, and dimly saw a man's face peering in through the blind. She silently crept out of bed, and, reaching the window, popped up like a jack-in-the-box with a sudden "Boo!" The man dropped as though shot, and fled.—Hartford Post.
