CANNING FRUIT A GOOD BUSINESS.

Fruit canning seems to be one of the neglected enterprises among us. There are good reports from many that have been established. The Apex News says the cannery there has done well and will pay more than ever this year for tomatoes. It is claimed that raising tomatoes at 25 cents per bushel is more profitable by far than raising cotton at even ten cents a pound. It is needless to say that there must be a fairly good knowledge of the business and that skillful management that effects success in other lines, and it goes without saying, that there seems to be room for a profitable industry in it for the farmer and the canner.

The Standard is glad to have something on the Charleston Exposition so assuring as the interview published today. The early disappointment left it in poor condition to be whooped up, but now we are assured that the show cannot be exaggerated and we hope no one will regret having made the trip hereafter.

The city lazy club that sometimes gets up energy along the line of criticism, whose president is Mr. W G Means, and whose headquarters are anywhere that Bachelor Frank L Smith may be found, has called us down on an awkward expression, "State Paper (not in North Carolina)" used Tuesday. We suppose we were in error in the use of the term State paper when we meant a paper above that of an ordinary local paper, usually called a county paper. We accept the club's criticism and hope they will continue to ply the remnant of their energies along this least harmful line. Better than some "other" devilment.

Random Shots From Glass.
Glass, N. C., Feb. 18, 1902.

EDITOR STANDARD:—Thinking a few lines from Glass would not be out of place in your columns I will say the beautiful snow was just 12 inches deep. Saturday morning and still it snowed all day Sunday.

There will be preaching next Sunday, the 23rd, at Center Grove E. L. church at 3 p. m. by one of our former pastors.

Marvin Winecoff, son of Mrs. H A Winecoff, came home Sunday night from a four months stay in Kentucky and other States.

Mr. Hammond, the dog trainer of Glass, has returned from a six week's stay in Florida.

Mr. W D Gillon and family have moved from Glass to Mill Hill. Mrs. Gillon has been very sick with neuralgia but is better now.

It is amusing to see how many are waiting to get a chance at Uncle Sam's public pap. I refer to the candidates to carry the mail on the free delivery route from Glass.

There have been a good many sick with cold around Glass.

We now have two telegraph operators in our little town.

Messrs. F W Glass, J P Treice and F Cline have gotten out a nice lot of cross ties for the Southern Railway.

Our schools have been closed for a few days on account of the deep snow.

Some of the patrons of our free school do not send their children because they think our teacher a little too strict. They do not know what they are missing.

Wheat and oats still look dead but we hope to be able to report better soon.

With best wishes for The Standard I will close S. W.

Tulips From Tulin.

Tulin, N. C., Feb. 18, 1902.—

The snow is about 12 inches deep. Mr. Charles Cosby has pneumonia.

Mrs. Jim Smith is improving from a severe attack of pneumonia.

The wheat seems to be all killed, or badly injured—no wheat to feed horses and hogs next fall.

The birds are very scarce and it looks as if they will soon be a thing of the past unless the farmers unite for their protection. It matters not how many laws we have, if they are not enforced they do no good. G.

A Sad Predicament.

A woman not a thousand miles from Richmond was, without doubt the most flurried female (last Sunday) in seven counties when she discovered, after coming out of church, that her brand new hat was adorned with a tag whereupon was inscribed the legend: "Reduced to $2.75."—From the Richmond Review.

The Last Heard of It.

"My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," says F D Reynolds, Mansfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it.—Gibson Drug Store.

Schley & Santiago

BY GEORGE EDWARD GRAHAM.

The intrepid Associated Press war correspondent, who was aboard the U. S. S. Brooklyn during the entire five months of the campaign. Illustrated with photographs taken by the Author during the fight.

The Most Sensational Book of the Day.

The true story of the famous cruise of the Flying Squadron under Commodore Winfield Scott Schley, including the blockade and destruction of the Spanish fleet, TOLD FOR THE FIRST TIME.

Contains an autograph endorsement and personal account of the battle by Rear-Admiral Schley.

"The facts of the story of the movements and operations of the Flying Squadron as the author tells them in this book are correct."
—W. S. SCHLEY.

An interesting narrative of facts. Explains the so-called "Retrograde Movement," the "Loop," the "Coaling Problem," and settles conclusively every adverse ruling of the Court of Inquiry.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, when Governor of New York, said:—"Mr. Graham's story is the best account I have heard or read of the naval fighting during the war. It needed just as much courage to go about taking photographs as it did to work the guns."

THE NEW YORK HERALD says:—"Mr. Graham, in the telling of facts, leaves the reader free to make the deduction that several naval officers used a Court of Inquiry to re-establish their reputations, if they can be re-established."

No subject has ever before been before the public that has interested everybody as the manner in which Admiral Schley has been treated, and the American people demand the full recognition of the hero of Santiago. This book tells everything just as it occurred and as the eyewitnesses saw it. Book is selling like wildfire. Liberal commissions. On file and books now ready. Send seven 2-cent stamps for canvassing outfit. ACT QUICK. Now is the time to MAKE MONEY.

Price $1.50, $1.75, $2.25, $2.75, according to style of binding desired.
