ASKED TO WITHDRAW ACCEPTANCE.

Lt. Gov. Tillman Requests the President to Recall His Acceptance of an Invitation to Deliver a Sword to a Soldier.

Augusta, Ga., Feb. 26.—Lieutenant Governor Tillman, who is in this city, says that to-day, in deference to requests by wire from the subscribers to the fund for the sword alluded to he telegraphed as follows to President Roosevelt:

"A short while ago I had the honor to address your excellency a letter requesting that on the occasion of your visit to Charleston, you present a sword to Major Jenkins, of the First United States Volunteer Cavalry, of whose gallant services you spoke so highly, your words being engraved on the scabbard. You accepted the invitation, for which we thanked you. I am now requested by contributors to the sword fund to ask that you withdraw said acceptance.

JAMES H. TILLMAN.

Lieutenant Colonel First S. C. Volunteer Infantry and Lieutenant Governor of S. C.

In explaining the sending of the telegram Lieutenant Governor Tillman said: "It is with much regret that I am directed, or rather required, to have sent the telegram I did and especially in view of the fact that I am so closely related to one who but a few days ago was subjected to an affront which was seemingly, or at least the people who contributed to the purchase of the sword think, unwarranted."

Delighted With Soldier's Home.

Our old veteran friend G. C. Cline, writes from the Soldier's Home at Raleigh to Mr. J. S. Harris and is eloquent in his praises of the home and his treatment. He now has all of heart's desire and heaven is the only improvement that a change can bring. He sends grateful messages to inquiring friends and specifies Messrs. Chas. McDonald, D. F. Cannon and Frank Smith.

Tried to End Her Life.

Mrs. J. D. Moore, wife of an operative employed by the Charlotte Trouser company, made several desperate, but ineffective attempts to commit suicide at her home in Dilworth yesterday. The unfortunate woman slashed herself with a pen knife and a pair of scissors and was prevented from doing herself further harm by her husband. Her injuries are not serious.—Charlotte News of 26th.

Mr. Gray Promoted.

Destructive Fire in Thomasville.

The Greensboro correspondence of the 26th to the Charlotte Observer says:

"News was received here today of a disastrous fire in Thomasville last night. The postoffice Tyler's grocery store, D. C. Moffitt's dry goods store, Perryman & Zimmerman's grocery, the Cash Grocery Company's store, J. M. Dodson's photograph gallery, Dr. C. A. Julian's office and the People's Hardware Company's warehouse were destroyed. The total loss will amount to over $12,000, about two-thirds of which is covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown."

A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said, 'Well, if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by M. L. Marsh's Drug store.

NO. 11 ITEMS.

Batchelor Has a Mighty Bad Cow to Sell—Rabbits Fared Badly.

Concord, N. C., Feb. 11, 1902. The snow has been a bad calamity to the rabbits, but a blessing to the community as pork was getting scarce.

Most of the schools in this part of the county anchored last week.

The small-pox has about played out in this part of the county.

The rock quarry, near Rocky Ridge, is preparing to run again.

A gentleman arrived at Mr. T. V. Talbirt's a few days ago and applied for board which was granted of course. We do not know what his name shall be. [Name him Rockefeller, Morgan or Carnegie, of course. Ed.]

Miss Nellie Litaker has been quite sick of pneumonia, but we are glad to say that she is improving.

I shall not say anything about the batchelors this time as I think most of them have gotten more courage. I heard one of my brethren say the other day that the tide did not flow in one direction always. He remarked that things would change if, it did not in time for us it would for somebody else. Could you give us a word of encouragement? [Yes, if at first you don't succeed, try try again. Ed.]

I have not seen a rat in a month. I think corn is so scarce they all froze to death in the crib.

Allow me to say in conclusion that, owing to ill health, I will sell at my residence in township, No. 19, range 18, according to government survey, the plush, raspberry colored cow, aged 8 years. She is a good milker and is not afraid of the cars or anything else. She has undaunted courage, and gives milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her home at present by means of a log chain, but she will be sold to any one who will use her right. She is one-fourth cow and three-fourths hyena. I will also throw in a double-barrelled shot gun which goes with her. In May, she goes away for a week or two and returns with a calf with wobbly legs. Her name is Rare. I would rather sell her to a non-resident.

With best wishes to the Standard.
