BURIED A BOY ALIVE.

Awful Crime of Chilkoot Indians in Alaska.
 Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 19.—A special from Seattle, Wash., says: "The steamer Dirigo, which has arrived from Alaska, brings news that Chilkoot Indians near Hins's Mission, Alaska, buried alive one of their tribe, a boy fifteen years of age. The boy had been converted to Christianity by Milo A Sellon, a Methodist missionary, and in a burst of religious zeal denounced the mummeries of the tribal medicine men.

This act aroused the anger of the superstitious old men of the tribe. Recently fourteen native residents of the village of Kluckwaw died of consumption, and this spread the belief that the boy, in league with the evil one through his knowledge of the white man's religion, caused the deaths.

The disappearance of the boy from school aroused the suspicions of Mr. Sellon, and he started in search. At the outskirts of the village he found tracks leading to a fresh grave. Digging down he found the boy still alive, his bloodshot eyes rolling in insane agony; his hair torn in handfuls from his head. His finger nails were torn off in his efforts to escape from his horrible prison.

The boy was lifted from the grave and carried to the village, where he lived several hours, howling and crying out like a maniac and then dying from the effects of suffering and fright. The man who is responsible for the act is Skun Doo, an old offender, who spent a term in San Quentin penitentiary for causing an old woman to be starved to death in 1894.

SEASON OF FLOOD AND RAIN.

Much Delay of Trains and Loss of Property—A Number of People Killed.
 The late floods have been quite severe, causing washouts and delays on the roads.

Four men were killed near Zetella, Ga., by a train's plunging through a trestle.

At Macon a number of houses were swept into the river.

At Asheville people along the river had to desert their homes and flee to high ground. Many lost all they had. The property loss is heavy.

A wreck occurred at Radford, Va., by a washout and a colored breakman was killed.

Wind storms have attended the rains and have resulted in much damage. At Sumter, S. C., a cabin was blown down and a negro woman was killed.

J W Wallen, who lives 16 miles from Asheville, took his three children from his house and put them in his tobacco barn, leaving a torch with them. He hurried back for his wife and another child. The barn caught fire and the three children were burned to death.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Negro in Providence Meets An Awful Death.

Morven Allison, a negro of the Providence section, was struck by lightning yesterday afternoon while in the field picking cotton.

Allison left his home yesterday about the noon hour and as he did not return, a searching party went out to look for him. His charred remains were found about nine o'clock last night, lying between two cotton rows.

Yesterday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock there was a sharp peal of thunder, preceded by a bright flash of lightning. It must have been at this time that the negro was killed. The clothes the negro wore were almost burned from his body. These were still burning when the body was found.

The accident occurred about one half mile from Allison's home. He was said to be a good negro, attended to his own business and gave no one any trouble.—Charlotte News of 28th.

BRITISH GAIN A VICTORY.

Six Hundred Boers Killed or Taken Prisoners—2,000 Horses and 28,000 Head of Cattle Captured.

London, Feb. 28.—Following the precedent of Lord Robert's who announced General Cronjes surrender at Paardeburg, on the anniversary of the battle of Majuba Hill, February, 27, 1881, Lord Kitchener apparently selected the same anniversary to achieve a big success by a combined movement lasting two days against the Boer forces within the Harrismith and Van Reemen line of block houses. The Boer losses aggregate 600 men killed or captured and 2,000 horses and 28,000 head of cattle fell into the hands of the British troops.

The prisoners include General DeWet's son and his secretary, Commandants Meyer and Truthler and several field cornets.

All the Varments Were in.

An aged farmer from Chatham county walked into the baggage room of the union depot yesterday morning and produced a check for his grip. Upon seeing the grip, which has been tied around with a string, he exclaimed, "Some one has broke into my grip, the string is broken." When told that perhaps the string had burst in the handling of the grip he replied: "I know just how many varments was in that grip, and if they are not all here, I will sue the company." Well, what was in it?" was asked him; "Well, sir there were one 'possum, four rabbits and twenty seven birds in that grip, and there had better be that many now." When the grip was opened, it was found to contain the required number of varments and the old man was happy.—Raleigh Times.

Judge Shepherd Not a Candidate.

The report started from Greensboro a few days ago that Hon. James E Shepherd would be a candidate for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. This give much comfort to those who cannot approve of the candidacy of Judge Clark. The Raleigh correspondent to the Charlotte Observer quotes from Judge Shepherd that the report is most positively incorrect and that he adheres to his original card.

Seek Relief!

The great proportion of women who suffer never make a serious effort to benefit themselves. The most of them go on paying no attention to their little menstrual disorders, believing they will eventually wear off. They grow worse and worse every day. At the period of menstruation a woman is peculiarly susceptible to cold and other external influences and it is also the most favorable time for the development of hidden disease germs which may be lurking in the system. Any physician knows that disordered menstruation, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea are blighting lives in almost every home. No woman should neglect herself a moment after she sees indications of female diseases. Almost instant relief can be secured by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

It will relieve you right in your own home. Will you accept the testimony of Mrs. Bagler and thousands of other women and really seek relief today? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

100 Chicago Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., March 27, 1902.

Your Wine of Cardui has done a world of good for me. I have used five bottles of the Wine and one package of Chadford's Black-Draught. And since I have started to use it I will not be without it in the house. It helped my sister in Toledo, who did not menstruate as she ought. She was sixteen years of age and nothing else helped her. I was in a very bad state myself when I read your medicine, but I found relief in three days. And now I feel like a new woman and do all my housework and washing, which I could not do before I took Wine of Cardui. I would be very glad to write my poor words and tell how I suffered before I used Wine of Cardui.
