TELEPHONE NO. 77.

CONCORD, N. C., March 1, 1902.

The South Carolina Senators are now restored to full privileges after a little rebuking, but it is not clearly stated that both would not do the very same thing again if Tillman should start the ball as he did before.

Col. J H Tillman, in his slap back at President Roosevelt, seems to have got his foot into it. Now the directors of the Charleston exposition have passed a series of resolutions pressing the invitation to the President to attend and repudiating the act of Lieutenant Governor. Tillman at least seems to have made a blunder when he signed his official title carrying with it a kind of responsibility in which he gets publicly and privately gone back on.

The Largest Gun in the World to be Mounted at Sandy Hook.

The greatest piece of ordnance ever manufactured in this country has been completed for the army coast defense system, and will shortly be mounted at Sandy Hook. No weapon in development of ordnance has its calibre, weight or has cost half so much. It is regarded by experts as too large, powerful and heavy for general adoption. This weapon of 16 inch calibre, was authorized by the government several years ago, at the instigation of the late Brigadier General Flagler.

With a range of 21 miles it can throw a five-foot projectile far beyond the vision of the most powerful field glass. There is not a war vessel afloat that it could not penetrate from side to side and still have sufficient energy to sink another vessel alongside. The gun will cost nearly $300,000 and is the last of the large guns to be built for either the army or navy. A board will shortly be assembled at Sandy Hook to observe the work of this leviathan of rifles. —Washington Special to Philadelphia Record.

About Education.

President Charles D McIver, of the State Normal College, in this city, says: "When we educate a man we educate an individual, but when we educate a mother we educate a family. Women necessarily propagate whatever education they have. No State or country which will educate its mothers need have any fears about its future illiteracy except from immigration. An educated man may be the father of illiterate children, but the children of educated women are never illiterate. Outside of the cities probably three fourths of the educated women spend a part of each day educating their own children or the children of others, whereas three fourths of the educated men a very short time daily with their own children, to say nothing of educating them." —Greensboro Record.

A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said, 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by M L Marsh's Drug store.

Second Fire for Dr. Julian.

Dr. Charles A Julian suffered the loss of his fine office in Thomasville by the fire on the night of the 25th and on the next night between 7 and 8 o'clock his handsome residence was found to be on fire and it could not be saved.

The house and furnishings were probably worth more than $4,000. He held some insurance. It is a series of misfortunes for the doctor that rarely come to a man in such rapid succession.

The Last Heard of It.

"My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," says F D Reynolds, Mansfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it. —Gibson Drug Store.

Chemical Engine Does the Work Quickly

The Observer notes a fire yesterday and says when the firemen arrived the fire was quickly extinguished by the chemical engine.

Fusion on Water Cure.

Kansas City, Feb. 21.—Gen. Fred Funston, in discussing "water cure," a form of torture charged against the soldiers in the Philippines, said that he had never seen the "water cure" applied, but he had heard it described. "The victim is bound and a canteen forced into his mouth," said the general. "His head is thrown upward and back and his nose grasped by the fingers of the torturer. Strangulation follows, as a matter of course. When the victim is about suffocated the application is released and he is given a chance to talk on recovery or take another dose of it. The operation is brutal beyond a doubt, but hardly fatal." "The charge that I have just refuted at the request of the war department was most vague. It was made by a soldier, and to the effect that he had helped administer the water cure to 100 natives." That is the kind of rot a soldier is apt to write-home when business is dull and he has three or four beers under his jacket to help his imagination. Nothing of the kind ever occurred within the knowledge of the officers or ever occurred at all, for that matter.

New Mill At Huntersville.

Huntersville, Feb. 27.—The addition that is being built to the Anchor Cotton Mills, is nearing completion. Mr. R A Brown, of Concord, has completed the brick work. The new mill is a two story structure, 200 by 75 feet, with the engine and boiler rooms. Work on the building was commenced in the latter part of December. This is to be a weave mill, the old mill having been making hosiery yarn only. Mr. Johnston intends now to take the cotton from the gin and make it into cloth ready for the counter. The mill is situated in one of the healthiest spots of Mecklenburg, 15 miles north of Charlotte and is owned by Col. William E Holt, J S Spencer and C W Johnston.

Wood's Seeds.

Va. Second Crop Seed Potatoes.

These are the result of growing two crops in the same year, the first being planted from select Maine Seed Potatoes, and the seed selected from this crop planted again in July or August. They not only make their crop earlier, but they also make a larger yield and much surer crop than Maine or Northern-grown Seed.

Our stock is very superior and we always ship in full-sized double-head barrels. Wood's 1902 Descriptive Catalogue gives very interesting information about Potatoes. Mailed upon request.

We have also large stocks of the best MAINE and NORTHERN-GROWN SEED. Write for special Potato price list.
