TELEPHONE NO. 71.

CONCORD, N. C., March 14, 1902.

It begins to look as if the canal will go by way of lake Nicaragua. The House so voted and a majority of the Senate committee endorses it. Any way let us have the canal on best possible terms.

Our thanks are tendered Mr. Henry C Brown, Clerk of the Corporation Commission, for a copy of the report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1901. It is a book of many statistics and a ready reference for matters in its line.

If evasion of the payment of just debts and the condition of owing about every body give impetus to patronage, it is not surprising that the conscienceless will boast every day of their lives. The thief and the robber would do the same if the line of the law were not drawn so that parallel crimes fall; one inside and the other outside of its cognizance.

The Cabarrus County Building Loan and Savings Association has issued a many colored folder that is decidedly pretty and a fair presentation of facts as regards these institutions. We know of nothing better for the people of small or moderate incomes than the building and loan institutions and certainly there is nothing equal to them in helping to secure homes for the frugal.

About the time that a corner was made on eggs and they were run up to 40 cents in New York, and it was said to 50 cents in Asheville, the hen came to the rescue with 6,000,000 thrown on the New York market and took the corner off and restored the ovum to about its normal conditions at 17 cents per dozen. It is often said that the hen is cock of the walk and she has smashed the egg trust in a way rarely done by any other power.

An Indiana woman has sued an Indiana man for $15,000 for grabbing three kisses from her, without her permission. A pretty steep price for Indiana kisses when the fellow took them in a job lot too.—Morning Star.

Kindly Take Notice that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is of great benefit to those sufferers from nasal catarrh who cannot inhale freely through the nose, but must treat themselves by spraying. ## TEMPERANCE ITEMS.

Called by M. E. McCartney.

A leading newspaper of Russia declares the impediments in the way of Russian progress are the twin relics of barbarism, illiteracy and intemperance. The government already controls a large amount of the liquor traffic by means of grog shops, which will sell only one bottle to be opened elsewhere.

The Christian Herald lately printed the opinions of a number of prominent pastors concerning the opening of saloons in New York City on the Sabbath.

Rev. Atterbury says the saloon is the poor man's remorseless robber.

The American saloon drains the working classes financially, physically and morally.

Rev. Cortland Myers says "a small proportion of the working men of this country find this institution of increasing iniquity a necessity in their lives.

Rev. Faunce says "four-fifths of what the saloon offers to its patrons is helpful and needful. The bright light, the warmth on a winter's night, the good cheer, the generous friendship, the release from hopeless toil and from squalid homes. The problem is to supply the four-fifths of the saloon, which is good, without the one-fifth which is destroying mind and body and soul."

Calling the saloon "The Working Man's Club," Russell Cornwell says, "The best working man's club is in a little home with wife, children and love." Giving the saloon a good title makes it all the more dangerous. Call it "the resort of drunkards and loafers."

Three thousand people attended a recent meeting of the Canadian Temperance League held in Toronto they called on the Ontario government to carry out its pledge concerning prohibitory law.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W Waitt, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold chills and grip and taken lots of trash of no account but to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by M. L Marsh druggist.

Shakespeare Evening.

The last meeting of the Julia Magruder Book Club was the first one to the Shakespeare Series.

The day was beautiful and the ladies congratulated themselves that they were to meet with Mrs. George Means—and greatly enjoyed their bracing drive to South Concord—to Mrs. Means' hospitable home—Everything was lovely—The meeting was full and the papers on "Macbeth" unusually interesting—It is a great disappointment to the Club not to have their annual addresses from Dr. Rakestraw—as they had planned—but New York is too far to allow time for such a busy man to address even a "Woman's Club."

The hostess seemed to think the ladies would need refreshing after their ride to "the country" judging from the beautiful spread—she served—and the beauty of it recalled the man—who on a like occasion—said: "the things set before him were so pretty he did not know if they were meant to eat or to wear."

For the Complexion.

The complexion always suffers from biliousness or constipation. Unless the bowels are kept open the impurities from the body appear in the form of unsightly eruptions. DeWitt's Little Early Risers keep the liver and bowels in healthy condition and remove the cause of such troubles. C E Hooper, Albany, Ga., says: "I took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness. They were just what I needed. I am feeling better now than in years." Never gripe or distress. Safe, thorough and gentle. The very best pills.—Gibson Drug Store.
