DR. SMITH'S LECTURE.

Sublime Tracings of Nature's Laws From the Visible to the Invisible in the Life and Death of a World.

Dr. Henry Louis Smith's great lecture Friday night was no disappointment to those who expected height, depth, breadth and grandeur. He reviewed some of nature's laws as every intelligent mind sees them, then delved deep into the invisible, armed with scientific facts to clear a theoretic pathway; then mounting on the wings of lofty conception, he soared into infinite space and saw the nebula gather themselves together and form a world. He followed this new world from infancy to youth, then to maturity, to age, to decline or decay and to death.

He seemed to take Mars and the moon in his hand and point out the conditions of a dying world in the former and a dead world in the latter with all the ease and familiarity that one may handle an orange, dissecting it with microscopic views from surface to center.

The doctor has studied the laws governing the visible universe and from these well-known premises he advances into the realms of the unknown with all the confidence of one who has been there, has seen and has handled.

In the language of one, "It was boldly set forth and plausibly maintained."

Busby will make the charge to the people, immediately after which Mr. Miller will perform the installation service.

The Meeting at McKinnon.

The meeting at McKinnon Presbyterian church during the week has been very enjoyable and strengthening to the congregation. Rev. Mr. Richards' preaching has been greatly appreciated and he has returned to his home, carrying with him the pious endearments of many hearts warmed by his fervent zeal. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Gillon, will preach tonight with a closing discourse.

The New York Musical Courier calls attention to a southern cornetist named Burst, who has three children—Alice May Burst, James Wood Burst and Henry Will Burst.—Morning Post.

THE WILCOX TRIAL.

Judge Jones Delivers His Charge and Gives Case to Jury at 4:30 Friday.

The jury in the Wilcox trial took the case at 4:30 o'clock. Judge Jones' charge was forcible though of tedious length. He reviewed the testimony, reading 200 pages of typewritten matter from the court stenographer. He especially urged the jury not to be swayed by public sentiment or demonstration, but to depend upon the evidence:

The following special to the Standard was received at 2:30.

Elizabeth City, March, 22.—Jury trial of Wilcox charged with murdering Nell Cropsey has disagreed. Jury is reported to have stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal. Jury was out all night and crowd was gathered at the court house until early morning when it dispersed quietly.

A MIRACLE OF THE SEA.

A Calm in the Storm Lasts Just Long Enough for the Rescue of a Shipwrecked Crew.

A Wilmington special of the 21st to the Charlotte Observer says:

Capt. Sanders, of the Steamer Compton, which arrived yesterday from the scene of the wreck of the Spanish steamer near Beaufort, this week, tells of a mysterious coincidence in connection with the rescue of the crew. Tuesday morning, with a gale of wind blowing and heavy seas breaking over the massive bulk of iron in the steamer there suddenly came an unexpected calm and immediately half of the weather-beaten crew put off in a life boat. Their daring inspired the brave life saving station men and they rushed out and rescued the remaining fourteen seamen. Before the shipwrecked sailors had hardly taken refuge on the cutter Algonquin the storm resumed its fury and a few minutes later the big steamer broke in two and the bridge upon which the crew had been standing since the Saturday before went under. It was indeed one of the miracles of the sea.

Chairs Instead of Beds.

A New York institution gets its name "chair house," from the fact that human beings so poor they can not buy a lodging at the cheapest Bowery resorts, puts up five cents for a chance to occupy a chair, for the night. By 11 o'clock the night's contingent is fast asleep in the chairs, the usual number being 25 or 30 men, of all kinds and degrees of decrepit proverty.—Anderson Intelligencer.
