A Sure Cure For Love.

The following was handed us by a young gentlemant of Rocky Mount, who was cured of the malady by this formula. He advises all who are similarly effected to try it.

Take 12 ozs. of Dislike, 1 lb of Resolution, 2 grs. of Experience, a large sprig of Time, a pt. of the cooling water of Consideration. Set this over the gentle fire of Love, sweeten with the sugar of forgetfulness, skim with the spoon of melancholy. Put it in the bottom of your heart; cork it with the cork of clear conscience, let it remain and you will quickly find ease and be restored to your sense again.

These things can be found at the apothecary—at the house of understanding, on Prudent street in the village of Contentment.

Take when the spell comes on.—Rocky Mount Motor.

How the Widow Francis Married Patrick

A New York dispatch of the 31st ult. says that Mrs. Francis, who is the affianced of Lawyer Patrick, has actually beat the guards, warden and matron and has got herself married to him. The law admits signed contracts and before witnesses as legal. So the loving widow, with her attorney and Patrick's father, applied for admission to the toms and met Patrick in the parlor. At a moment when the guard and matron were out for but a few minutes the signatures to the contract were made and they became husband and wife.

Capt. Odell to Build Another Mill.

We learn that Capt. J M Odell is contemplating the building of another cotton mill. It will be located somewhere near the siding below the oil mill. Mr. Odell is the recognized father of Concord's great milling industry and building has become a kind of habit with him that we are all glad that he can't break off from. This mill will be his individual property. May he live long and build cotton mills all the while.

Company L to Charleston.

Company L, our gallant military boys in blue, will leave Monday morning for Charleston for a week. Transportation is given to 41 men and two officers. The number will be full.

A Hole in His Head.

Washington, N. C., April 4.—Mr. Thomas Hill, a liveryman here, was kicked on the top of the skull today by a horse and had a hole broken through his head. The horse was being shod. Mr. Hill was holding the bridle. It became unruly and he pulled on the bridle. The animal rose on its hind feet and struck Hill on the skull. Dr. Tayloe attended him and trephined the skull four times besides removing three pieces of depressed bone. The patient is now doing well.

Mrs. Sapp No Better.

Mrs. J M Davenport, of Palmersville, was in Salisbury last night on her way to Concord to visit her mother, Mrs. Sapp, who has been so sick and whose condition is unimproved Mrs F V Barrier will go to Concord tomorrow to be at Mrs. Sapp's bedside.—Salisbury Sun of 4th.

Caldwell-Wise.

The following card is received and conveys a pleasing message, referring to the future happiness of one of our Concord boys:

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fisher Wise request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter,

Estelle, to
Mr. Edgar Busbee Caldwell,
on the afternoon of Tuesday, the twenty second of April,
at half after two o'clock,
at home,
Selma, Alabama.

At home after the first of May, eight hundred and thirteen Church street, Lynchburg, Virginia.

Growing peaches in Delaware must be a longevity—promoting business. At a recent banquet given by the Governor to the peach growers, there were present one in his 87 year, still hale and hearty; six over 80, and a dozen or more over 70. The press reporter didn't consider it worth while to notice the boys.—Morning Star.

Isaac Cruse in Jail.

Isaac Cruse was captured Friday evening within about half a mile of where he killed his wife. He is now in jail. Poor Ike, if we are correctly informed, has a grievance and had he killed a man along with his wife and had done the deed at the most provoking time there's hardly a jury in Cabarrus that would willingly render a verdict that would direct punishment.

Kissing.

Kissing is a noun; it's a name—proper noun, because it is the proper thing to do when two are ready and the heart is willing; plural number because it takes two to perform it; common gender because it is generally performed by one of each sex; possessive case because it possesses a delirious infatuation for the human race and agrees with the parties performing the act. Kissing is closely connected with "buss," which is a good old backwoods expression, meaning a kiss that is highly enjoyed by two greenhorns who have powerful lungs and wonderful suction to perform the act with. In this sense buss means one kiss rebuss means two, pluribus means a number of kisses, horribus means to be caught kissing by the old folks, merribus means to steal a kiss, syllabus means to kiss the hand instead of the lips, blunderbuss means to kiss the old maid by mistake, and omnibuss means to kiss your mother-in-law.

Mooreville Cotton Mills to Enlarge.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Mooreville Cotton Mills, held Tuesday of this week, a resolution was adopted authorizing the secretary to submit the books for the increase of new stock to the amount of 39 per cent of the present total, stock, making about $50,000 additional shares. The proposition is now open to the stockholders and if the stocks is taken an additional room will be built to Mill No. 2, and equipped with new machinery.—Mooreville Enterprise.

The receipts from chickens and eggs last year was 281 million dollars. An average of four dollars a head for the citizens of the United States.—Rocky Mount Motor.
