THE PHILIPPINE SITUATION.

Armed Resistance Coming to a Close—Gen. Malvar Comes in.

Manila, April 16.—General Malvar has unconditionally surrendered to Brigadier General Franklin Bell at Lipa, Batangas province, with the entire insurgent force of the provinces of Laguna and Batangas.

General Bell says his (Bell's) influence is sufficient to quell the insurrectionary movements in in Tayabas and Cavite provinces and capture all those in the field who have not yet surrendered; but, Malvar has ordered the complete surrender of every insurgent to the nearest American force.

General Wheaton reporting to the division headquarters, says that all resistance in his department has ended and that the Filipinos in the detention camps can be allowed to return to their homes in time to plant the crops.

General Wheaton is especially pleased with General Bell's care of the natives confined in the camps. The officers in charge are held personally responsible for the quality and quantity of the food served out and for the general welfare of the occupants of the camp.

After scouring the mountain passes General Bell employed volunteer bolomen for protection against ladrone. Numbers of Filipinos express the liveliest satisfaction at the treatment accorded to themselves and to their families who were in the concentration camps.

General Wheaton gives General Bell great credit for his indefatigability in conducting the campaign. He was in the field on horseback, day and night, personally superintending the most arduous operations.

The people of Manila are delighted at the prospect of a resumption of trade with the pacified provinces and are anxious to show Generals Chaffee, Wheaton and Bell their appreciation of the fact that the insurrection is really over.

About 3,300 rifles have been received by the American officers in Batangas and Laguna provinces during the past four months.

General Malvar personally requested an interview with General Bell in order to make his complete submission.

The lack of news from the island of Samar is due to a defective cable. It is believed, however, that the American commander, there received yesterday, the surrender of all the insurgents in Samar unless the plans were altered.

HUMILIATING CRIME.

White Man of Wayne County Assaults a 9-Year-Old Girl.

A Goldsboro special of the 16th to the News and Observer tells the following humiliating story:

William Crooms, white, married, aged 35 years; is in the clutches of the law, arrested on the charge of attempt to rape. His victim is Pearl Davis, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. W W Davis, who swore out the complaint. The attempt was made at the home of Crooms where the child was enticed while visiting. Crooms was arrested by Sheriff B F Scott, of this county, this morning on Contentnea Creek, within three miles of Wilson, in Wilson county, and incarcerated in the calaboose at Fremont, from which point the prisoner will be delivered to the Wilson county authorities. The assault was made on April 6th and the matter has been kept quiet till Crooms was apprehended. Rumors are rife but it is thought the law will be permitted to deal with the prisoner.

Consolidating School Houses.

The superintendent and board of education in Buncombe county, North Carolina, have begun in earnest a crusade against inconvenient, uncomfortable, unattractive, unsanitary school houses. Old houses are to be repaired and new houses built wherever needed. But there are to be fewer houses rather than more. The people of the county have seen the value of consolidation and cooperation, and small districts will be united into larger ones, and one good house well located will take the place of two or three or four smaller ones. This will permit the schools to be graded and will add to their efficiency in many ways. These large central school houses will have three rooms, so arranged that a fourth can easily be added. The houses will be well arranged for light and ventilation, and will soon become the gathering places of the people and the centres of culture in their districts. Buncombe county is setting a good example for other counties in the South. Within reasonable limits, the larger the district and the school the better.—Educational Notes.

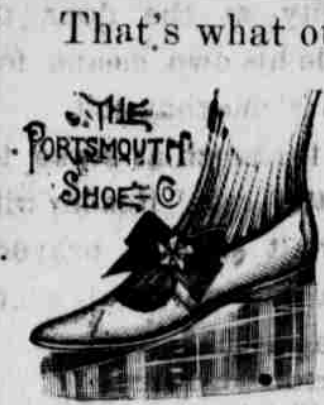

A Fireman's Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C W Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters and, after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Fetzner's Drug Store. Price 50 cents.
