THE CABARRUS B & S ASSOCIATION.

It Meets IN Annual Session.—Condition Very Satisfactory.—Secretary and Treasurer's Report Very Gratifying.—Old Officers Re-elected.

The Cabarrus county, Building Loan and Savings Association met in the court house on Thursday night in annual session. On motion of President W R Odell, Dr. W H Lilly was called to the chair. The Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. J M Hendrix, read his report which was a model of clearness, showing him complete master of the intricate system of B & L. It showed a most satisfactory condition of the institution, too. The net earnings were shown to be 7.13 per cent. annually.

The institution is just now entering upon its fifth year.

The term of office, as director, of W H Lilly, W C Houston, G T Crowell and John A Ritchie having expired these men were re-elected for the ensuing term.

It has in force at this writing 1480 shares which marks a gain, within the last year, of 500 shares.

The board of directors held its session after the adjournment and re-elected W R Odell, president, W C Houston, vice president and J M Hendrix as secretary and treasurer.

KILLED HIMSELF AND DAUGHTER.

Crazed With Grief Over Loss of Wife.

New York, April 17.—Charles Fleckenstein, a wealthy manufacturing tailor of Williamsburg, and his nine year old daughter Emma, were found dead today, suffocated by gas in their flat in Stockholm street.

The father was grief-mad over the death of his wife, and has been despondent since Sunday, when he paid a visit to place flowers on her grave. Kneeling at the grave he wailed, "Never mind, Bella, Emma and I'll soon be with you." Then he returned home and made careful preparation for death turning on the gas during the night.

A sister found the two cold bodies in their beds today.

Young Man Waylaid and Murdered.

A High Point special of the 17th to the Charlotte Observer says:

A young man by the name of Parker in the Fairview neighborhood, Randolph county, was waylaid and shot a day or so ago. He was returning from a party when the murderous attack was made upon him. He was first rocked and then shot. The neighbors think it was one of those rash and uncalled for deeds that sometimes follow the breaking up of parties. Persons who are suspected of the crime have fled. The young man has since died.

SKELETON FOUND IN MONTGOMERY.

Murder May Come to Light—Mr. Burges Disappeared 8 Years Ago.

Something in the line of a sensation was unearthed in Montgomery county last week, just beyond the river, 16 miles east of Albemarle. Mr. Mack Morris, while plowing, uncovered the skeleton of a man that had evidently been buried several years. It was concealed in a pile of rubbish, and apparently had been carelessly stowed away. The strange part of it all is that the body had not been discovered before. A story that has gained currency leads to the belief that the dead man was one Mr. Burges who lived near that spot some eight years ago. He was known to have had considerable money just before his mysterious disappearance. He was also known to have had a quarrel with some of his neighbors over division of the money, and it is thought he was dealt with foully. It was announced after his disappearance that he had run away, going west. The matter was then dropped, and investigations that may be instituted may lead to some startling revelations.—Stanly Enterprise.

Good Send Off.

Messrs. D W Moore and Dr. H C Herring have each presented the Veterans with a box of cigars to puff at on the way to Dallas and Mr. Fred McCConnell has lettered a canvas with which to tag the car in which they go that nothing be lost.

These are a good send off. A thing or two more might be thought of and furnished for the triumphant spirits of the heroes. Who'll respond?

Well Enough Said.

Democratic newspapers are having a good deal to say about "democrats who are preparing to join the Republicans." This is the sort of talk that is doing the democratic party a good deal of harm. A democrat can diverge from the views of a 2x4 editor without joining the republican party; he can separate himself a long way from the populist program palmed off as democracy without "joining the republican party." Perhaps if some of the self-constituted critics would have their particular brand of diluted democracy chemically analyzed they would be surprised by the variety of ingredients developed.—Winston Journal.

WEDDING AT MANNING.

Mr. E G Frankman, of Ohio, and Miss Florence Miller Married.—Bride and Groom Leave for Ohio.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock Miss Florence Miller, of Locke township, was married to Mr. E G Frankman, of Versailles, Ohio, Rev. C B Miller, of Albemarle, brother of the bride, officiating, Rev. J A Linn assisting.

Miss Pearl Safran was maid of honor and Mr. B B Miller best man.

The attendants were Misses Nenta Umberger and Mattie Miller and Messrs A S Hellig and P H Barnhardt.

Miss Ida Blume, of Concord, played the wedding march.

The wedding was an unostentatious one but was beautiful in its simplicity.

The bridal party will arrive in Salisbury this evening and have supper at the Central hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Frankman will leave on the vestibule for Ohio.—Salisbury Sun of 17th.

Rev. and Mrs. McCullough Lose Their Little Girl.

Rev. and Mrs. H A McCullough of Cameron, S. C., are deeply bereaved by the death of their infant daughter, Miriam Kathleen, on last Sunday at the age of little more than a year and a half. The sympathies of his people are tenderly manifest for their pastor and his wife.—Luthern Visitor.

Mr. Reid to Move to Morgan.

Mr. W W Reid tells the Sun that he has decided to move to Morgan township, where he will make his home with his brother, Mr. Calvin Reid. Mr. Reid will leave very shortly for the country.—Salisbury Sun.

Not Necessary to Talk Much.

"You know," she said, "I am not much of a conversationalist."

This seemed to him the opportunity for which he had been waiting.

"Well," he returned, "if I do the preliminary your conversational ability will be sufficient to enable you to say 'Yes, won't it?'"

After all, in courtship there is nothing like getting your answer before you ask the question.—Ex.

Nice for Lovers.

"If I am not too presumptuous," said the young clerk, "I will ask you to look at our new typewriter especially adapted for writing love letters."

"Oh," exclaimed the blushing maid, "is there any difference?"

"Yes indeed! Among the punctuation points there is a little star for marking kisses."—Philadelphia Record.
