Commencement at Davidson College. The program of the 65th Commencement of Davidson College presents an attractive list of orators. Senator Money, of Mississippi, delivers the Annual Oration at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday, May 27th. On the Sunday preceding Dr. R. P. Kerr, of Richmond, delivers the Baccalaureate, and Dr. Egbert W. Smith, of Greensboro, N. C., preaches the annual sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association. Monday evening the two Literary Societies hold their reunion, with two distinguished South Carolinians as orators: Hon. W. F. Stevens, of Cheraw, and Pres. B. F. Wilson, of Spartanburg. On Tuesday Senator Money's address in the morning is followed by the Alumni Meeting and Banquet at 5 p. m. and the Oratorical Contest between the Literary Societies in the evening.

Wednesday, May 28th is Commencement Day. The orations by representatives of the graduating class, delivery of diplomas, etc., in the forenoon are followed by a concert and Reception to visitors in the evening.

The Southeastern Passenger Association has granted special rates from all points in North Carolina, and South Carolina, and from the principal cities of Georgia and Florida.

[We received the above without being signed. It is written on college stamped, paper and in a college envelope. Our interest in the institution makes us publish the paper, though we feel that it is entirely due us that it be signed, which we hope will not be neglected in future.—Ed. of Standard.]

Double Effort at Suicide.

Mr. Jacob Hutchison, of near Cartersville, Va., a tenant farmer of considerable success and respectability is lying near the point of death from an attempt at suicide. He took off his coat and cut his throat terribly, then jumped into water hoping to drown himself. He, however, struggled out and bled almost to death before he was found. A loss of some of his mental powers seems the only explanation.

Wants Others to Know.

"I have used DeWitt's Little Early Risers for constipation and torpid liver and they are all right. I am glad to endorse them for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred Heinze, Quincy, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Sure, safe pills.—Gibson Drug Store.

Dangerous If Neglected.

Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where delay has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a running sore on my leg thirty years," says H. C. Hartly, Yankeetown, Ind. "After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits.—Gibson Drug Store.

Corset Caused Her Death.

Lorain, O., April 28.—Frankie Friend, aged 27, of Norwalk, died here last night under peculiar circumstances. She got off a car from Cleveland and became faint and weak. She was assisted to the waiting room by two men and later sent to a physician's office. She was dead when placed on a couch.

A post mortem examination today showed her heart to be entirely out of place on account of her corset, which was ten sizes too small.

CARDIE CHILDERS HEARD FROM.

Was Seen at Chesterfield and Morganton Walking—Yet a Mystery.

The case of Miss Cardie Childers, of Lenoir, is less distressing this morning in that she is said to have been seen at Chesterfield and Morganton. It is not believed that she has met a fate like Nellie Cropsey yet the solicitude for her is decidedly strong.

Impure Drinking Water

is always a source of danger; dysentery and bowel troubles follow its use. Every person should have handy a bottle of Painkiller (Perry Davis'), which will quickly cure these distressing ailments. Be careful and see that the storekeeper does not pawn off some worthless substitute upon you as is sometimes done for the sake of a few cents extra profit. Large bottles 25 and 50 cents.

The Evils of Debt.

Young man, keep out of debt. Avoid it if possible, as you would a pestilence. As the Presbyterian aptly says, debt is a troublesome factor in human life. It is easier to get into it than to get out of it. Wisdom says avoid it; run not into it hastily or suddenly; or if it has been incurred pay it off as soon as possible and keep out of it. Every man thinks he is best judge of his circumstances and does not take kindly to advice from outsiders but the wisest of us would do well to heed the voice of experience. Thousands have suffered because they thought themselves wiser than others. Ruined reputations and business follow heedlessness about going into debt. Numbers contract a habit of borrowing, and larger and larger sums are obtained until complete disaster overtakes them; or if some of them manage to keep things afloat during their life time by various expedients, they leave bankrupt estates behind them and financial ruin to their dependents. Debt is one of the trying evils of the day. Churches and homes suffer from it as well as society and business. There is need to emphasize anew Paul's principle. "Owe no man anything but to love one another."—Selected.

Even a Stoic Groans

under the torment of neuralgia, when every nerve in face or limb throbs and jumps. Philosophy cannot endure this agony, but Perry Davis' Painkiller relieves it. Bathe the affected parts freely, keep them warm, and do not expose yourself to cold and dampness. Medical science marches right along, but it has not found the equal of Pain Killer in the treatment of neuralgia.
