NEWS FROM NO. 3.

School Closing—Trial Sermons—Death of an Infant.

May 12.—We are badly in need of rain in this section.

Messrs. Benson and Morrison will soon complete the building of Mr. Samuel Furr, of Mooresville.

Rev. Mr. Crane, of Tennessee, preached a very interesting trial sermon on last Sabbath evening at Gilwood. He also preached in the morning at Bethpage, the field being vacant at present.

Mrs. M A Emerson expects to leave Texas next Thursday, the 15th, and hopes to arrive in Mooresville on Saturday, the 17th, after a visit of about a month to her brothers, Messrs. James and Robert Cashion, who have made their home in that State for some time.

Dr. G J Gouger made a flying trip to Charlotte Saturday.

Children's Day exercises were held at Shiloh on last Sabbath and were very much enjoyed by all. Services were opened by an appropriate song from the choir, followed by prayer from Rev. Mr. Crowder. The first recitation was by Master Fred Edwards, subject, "Was it You?"

Second, Ila Earnhardt, subject, "Look Up, Light Up." Third, Lock Edwards, subject, "Two Pennies." Fourth, Mc Edwards, subject, "Babe's Toys." Fifth, Mamie Honeycutt, subject, "Our Work." Sixth, Gaulena Honeycutt, subject "It Must be Settled Right." Seventh, Exercises, Alphabetically by twenty-four children. Eighth, Ela Hayer, subject, "The Sin of Omission," after which were remarks by the pastor, the entire exercise being interspersed with music. The evening service was a sermon especially intended for the young, the text being "Remember Now Thy Creator in the Days of Thy Youth."

The children deserve much credit for the becoming manner in which they recited and for the interest shown in the Sunday School.

DEATH OF LITTLE CLYDE THORNWELL TORRENCE.

The sad death of this little child occurred on Friday night, the 9th. The mother of the babe, Mrs. Emmett Torrence, died, leaving the child only a few days old. Since her death the little Clyde Thornwell has been under the kind motherly care of Mrs. W A Johnson, who cared for it as only a parent would. The loving hands of this family willingly administered to the wants and comforts of the little one, but after an illness of only a few days, it was called by the heavenly Father to join its mother in the realms above at the age of four months. The funeral services were conducted at Coddle Creek church by Rev. Crowder, after which the baby was laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.

Empty is the cradle since baby's gone, but we would not call thee back. H.

MISS CHILDERS SAFE.

Just Could Not Tell the Folks Good bye—Meant no Harm.

Miss Cordie Childers has landed safe at Sterling Nebraska as indicated some days ago.

The following letter gives the explanation to her uncle at Lenoir:

"Sterling, Neb., May 6.
"Dear Uncle Will: I know you were a little surprised at my leaving the way I did, but I just didn't have the nerve to tell you all good bye. I hope you were not uneasy. Please don't think hard of me for leaving the way I did. Love to every one.
"Yours lovingly,
"CORDIE."

For the Davis Monument.

A special friend met the writer on the street recently and said this is not for publication but here's $5.00 for the Jefferson Davis Monument fund and he derided us rather severely for having gotten but $7. 0 for the cause. We were asked to get up what Confederate Veterans were willing to give through Camp No. 212 and we felt that those who were able to give, needed but to know that the movement to collect a fund existed when surely every one would gladly put in a mite of one dollar for the completion of the monument. It was not our purpose to weary Veterans with this matter.

It should be a free will offering by those who would rather part with a dollar than not to feel that he had an interest in the monument. This V now raises the sum to $12.00 which we shall turn over to the proper authority when we shall have collected the one remaining dollar not yet handed us. In the mean time we shall be glad to forward such amounts as are freely given.

For one we did not want the monument to go up without our having as much as a dollar in it.

That generous donor says by all means let a grand monument go up to Jefferson Davis and the Confederate cause.

No Longer Than Your Hand is the spot in your back directly affected by lumbago. But it is big enough to prostrate you until a kind friend rubs Perry Davis Painkiller in to your aching flesh. Then the throbbing pain which has been as bad as toothache, dies away. Painkiller is equally good in relieving sciatica and the various forms of rheumatism. 25 and 50c.

COURT ADJOURNS.

Cases Disposed of and Verdicts Rendered—One an Error.

Superior court adjourned this (Wednesday) morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The cases not previously reported are as follows:

James Furr vs. Sam Bost. In this case the jury gave a verdict in error for the plaintiff, Furr, when it was intended for the defendant Bost. The jury had dispersed before the error was discovered and on being satisfied of the error the court set aside the verdict and ordered a new trial.

M M Furr vs. G T Crowell. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant, Crowell.

J W Wadsworth's Sons vs. Bell & Harris Co. The verdict was in favor of the plaintiff.

A number of cases were continued till next court.

Mr. Watson, the Seaman.

Mr. B F Watson, son of our townsman, Mr. J W Watson, was an interesting figure on our streets this morning in full sailor uniform. He has been at home from New York on a permit.

He entered the naval service some 13 months ago and has been on the battleship Indiana for ten months.

He has had the satisfaction of a cruise to China, Spain, France, England and Cuba.

He likes the service.

The writer asked him about storms and their effects on such monster vessels as the Indiana.

He said he had the experience of two grand storms. They do not affect the Indiana much. She sails right on in the even tenor of her way and lets the mountain waves sweep clear over her. The vessel is entirely under water but hardly rocks. All hands are below happy and gay with artificial breezes making it comfortable.

On being asked about the height of the waves he said he had seen trees that he thought twice as high as the Patterson store building.

He supposed that marine life may be quite tough in time of war but it is not tough with him now.

Don't Start Wroth.

Don't start the summer with a lingering cough or cold. We'll know what a "summer cold" is. It's the hardest kind to cure. Often it "hangs on" through the entire season. Take it in hand right now. A few boxes of One-Minute Cough Cure will see you right. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, grip bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Children like it. "One Minute Cough Cure is the best cough medicine I ever used," says J H Bowles, Groveton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safely and quickly."—Gibson Drug Store.
