CABARRUS POLITICS.

Commissioners Come Over and Get the Senatorial Question Settled to Their Satisfaction.

Messrs. W. G. Means, Jonas Cook and A. B. Young, of Cabarrus county, came over yesterday as a commission appointed by the Democratic executive committee of that county to arrange a basis for the selection of a State Senator from Cabarrus. Under the new law, Cabarrus and Mecklenburg are in the same senatorial district, and each county is entitled to a Senator. The oath-bound primary prevails in Mecklenburg. The conference yesterday was to give a clear light to Cabarrus. The commissioners from the neighboring county met the members of the central committee of Mecklenburg and the result was a very satisfactory arrangement. Cabarrus is to proceed with her senatorial nomination according to her old plan and on the same basis that existed when Cabarrus and Stanly counties divided senatorial honors. The following paper was drawn up and signed:

We, the undersigned commissioners on the part of the Democratic executive committee of Cabarrus county, and the Democratic central committee of Mecklenburg county, hereby suggest the following arrangements in regard to selecting the two State Senators allotted to this district:

First: That the Democrats of Cabarrus county shall select one candidate for the State Senate by any method they may deem best.

Second: That the Democrats of Mecklenburg county shall select the other candidate for the State Senate by any method they may deem best.

Third: We recommend that the Democratic county conventions of Mecklenburg and Cabarrus counties ratify this action.

W. G. Means, Jonas Cook, A. B. Young, Commissioners for Cabarrus County.

J. D. McCall, W. C. Dowd, Heriot Clarkson, E. S. Williams, T. S. Franklin, Democratic Central Committee for Mecklenburg County.

COL. J. T. ANTHONY'S ADDRESS.

He Relates Early History and the Birth and Growth of the Improved Order Red Men.

Col. J. T. Anthony, of Charlotte, met the improved Order Red Men, sixteen in number, and a few citizens Wednesday night in the court house where he addressed them on the origin, the growth and the benefits of the Order.

It is remembered that the Boston tea party were disguised as Indians when they threw the tea over board. This seems to have been the incipency of the Order. With a spirit of resistance to British oppression the clique developed into an order of usefulness, and it adopted a ritual, pass words and grip and served good purposes in our early history. George Washington, said the speaker, was one of the first officers in the order. The good effects were felt during the Revolutionary War and the war of 1812.

In 1832 the system was improved and added the word "Improved" to the name.

The Order has suffered much at different stages and almost became extinct at several periods. It suffered great depression from our Confederate war and even in 1870 it numbered only about thirty or forty thousand members. It has now taken on new life and numbers 300,000 members.

He dwelled on the benefits of secret co-operation through which the order works and on the orphanage feature.

The Colonel was disappointed in having so small an audience.

The members are a fine looking body of young men.

The Colonel said he hoped to meet them again on some future occasion.

In the course of his remarks the Colonel asked pardon for personal reference to himself in doing his first picket duty in the Confederate service in the ruins of the old church in which Pochontas was baptized a member of the Christian church.

Senator Pettus, of Alabama, says that the secret of living long is to work. "I am eighty one," he adds, "and happy and healthy as a boy. I notice that all of my neighbors who got rich and retired are dead. I never got rich and never retired.

The most fatal disease I know of is to quit work. It kills every time. Keep working and you'll keep alive.

Tarleton-Fisher.

Mr. S. W. Tarleton and Mrs. Mary Fisher were united in marriage today (Thursday) at 9 o'clock a. m., at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. W. H. Hiller.

Mr. Tarleton is 58 years of age and Mrs. Fisher is nearly 57. Each lost a life companion more than a year ago and felt the burden of undivided cares and the oppressiveness of solitude. Union according to the divinely appointed way for man seemed the proper solution of life's problem with them. Their pastor, Rev. V. R. Stickley, being absent they came to Concord and procuring license, were married as above stated.

May the shadows of life's setting sun lengthen slowly with them and sink beneath a cloudless horizon.
