POLICEMAN SHOOT TO KILL.

George Jackson Kills Robert Moore at Reidsville Saturday Night.

Police man George Jackson shot and killed Robert Moore near Edna Cotton Mills on Saturday night. The policeman was on duty and Moore, it seems, went out of his way to offer insult and drew a pistol beside, when the officer, thinking his life endangered, fired a deadly shot. Moore, it appears, was a vicious character who had made ugly threats.

Memorial Exercises of the W. O. W.

An immense gathering of people attended the memorial services of the Woodmen of the World at five o'clock Sunday evening in the city cemetery. The ceremonies were conducted by local officers. The address was delivered by Sovereign Manager A C Fine. Many encomiums are bestowed on the address. The band played a number of appropriate airs with deep impressiveness, as only a good band can do in open air.

This growing order doubtless added much to its already marvelous popularity by these beautiful exercises.

NEGRO UPRISING SUPRESSEE.

Whites Arm Themselves and Place the Leaders Under Arrest.

Meridian, Miss., June 8.—The uprising of the negroes which so alarmed the people north of Meridian has been prevented by the determined stand of the whites, who armed themselves and placed the leaders of the gang under arrest. The negroes arrested are Green Johnson and Nate McGuire.

A letter calling on the negroes to band themselves together against the white was received by Nate Moore, signed by a negro named Ruffin who is a Baptist preacher. The letter stated a mob of 150 negroes would form in Rio, Kemper county, 25 miles northeast of Meridian, and march to Green Johnson's house and from there continue through the country, murdering the whites, destroying farms and burning houses.

As soon as the purpose of the negroes was learned, the whites armed themselves with Winchester rifles and in a short time had so intimidated the negroes that it is now thought the threatened uprising has been frustrated. The people of Marion county, from which news of the uprising and threats first reached this city, are very much wrought up and are prepared for emergencies at a moment's notice. The negroes in these districts outnumber the white population two to one.

The Davis Memorial Arch.

The following resolutions were sent out by a committee on last Friday:

Resolved, That the board of directors of the Jefferson Davis Memorial Association desire to express their hearty appreciation of the beautiful designs submitted for the memorial arch to be erected in honor of President Jefferson Davis, and while under terms of the competition it was necessary to make a selection of one of the models presented, yet they wish at the same time to convey to each of the distinguished artists competing, their assurance of high esteem and their most cordial appreciation of the artistic skill displayed in the designs presented for their consideration.

Resolved, second. That a copy of this resolution be sent to the following artists and to the press: Mr. Louis Albert Gudebrod, Mr. C C Pillars, Mr. Charles Albert Lopez, Mr. George Julian Zolney, Miss Virginia Montgomery, Mr. Marion Story, Mr. Randolph Evans, Mr. Wm Cooper.

MRS. BASIL DUKE,
MRS. JNO P ALLISON,
Committee.

The Richmond Times gives the following description of the designs:

The design of Mr. Gudebrod shows about the neatest workmanship of any submitted. It is smaller than probably any other, but is finished in every detail, and as white as the unmoulded plaster. The inscriptions, though small, are perfectly distinct, and the whole is a triumph of the plastic art. Fluted columns are on either side of the face and reverse of the arch and the central inscription at the top is "Jefferson Davis."

The design of Messrs. Evans and Coffin is thoroughly classic, though not severe. It has reliefs of Lee and Jackson and a statue of Davis at the top. The angel of love kneels above him to take his hand. The face of the statue is turned to the South. Mr. Cooper has observed a most important canon of architecture—that of embellishing only necessary parts of the structure, not adding superfluous parts for the sake of embellishment. His work presents not a single inexplicable, incongruous, unjustifiable feature. He is plainly a master of monumental as well as of plastic art. This is patent to every informed observer and examiner.

The committee had to take into consideration the location of the arch and a number were presented. All but a few were rejected and the final decision was left to Mrs. Davis, who has decided in favor of Monroe Park as a site. It will probably be located about the center of the park.

Mrs. Jno. P Allison has just sent off $202 to Mrs. Edgar D Taylor who transmits to the bonded treasurer of the Jefferson Davis Monument fund whenever she accumulates $1000. North Carolina is well up in the work doing in this line

TERRIFIC STORM AT LEXINGTON.

The Town Visited at 2:30 p. m. Sunday—Much Damage Done.

A Lexington special of the 8th to the Charlotte Observer gives the following:

A terrific hurricane passed over the town at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and caused much damage. One of the chimneys of Mr. C A Hunt, Jr's, beautiful residence was blown down, and the slate roof was badly broken. The tin roof on Mr. H P Watson's residence was almost entirely blown off, and one chimney was blown down. The water tank at Mrs. M H Pinnix's residence was blown over on the house causing much damage to the roof. The water tank at Mr. G A Hunt, Sr's was also blown down. The Methodist Protestant church at W. Lexington was blown from the foundations, and is almost a complete wreck. Telephone and light poles were broken off, and many of the beautiful shade trees on Main street which added so much to the attractiveness of our town, are broken down, and a few of them completely demolished. Some of these trees are almost or quite a century old. Passage on Main street was blocked for several hours. Many out-buildings and fences are over turned and demolished.

There was a very heavy rain with the wind and also considerable hail. There was great destruction to the gardens. The extent of damage to the surrounding country cannot yet be learned, but doubtless the wheat is badly injured. The telephone wires are all down, and it will take a week to repair damages. This is the worst storm that has visited the town in the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

You must have nourishment to live and when you cannot digest your food, KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE will do it for you, with no aid whatever from the stomach. It contains exactly the same elements as Nature's digestive fluids and can't help but produce the same results.—David Taylor, Blind Ridge, Pa., writes:—"I have been afflicted for a number of years with dyspepsia and have tried various remedies without good results but was cured by one bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE.
