THAT LYNCHING A SERIOUS AFFAIR

It now seems that there may be serious trouble in store for the Rowan lynchers. A Salisbury special of the 17th to the Charlotte Observer says.

Solicitor W C Hamner arrived here this morning from Ashboro, having been prevented from coming before by illness in his family, to institute the investigation required by law into the lynching of the two negro boys, Harrison and James Gillespie, last Wednesday morning. Mr. Hamner began an active inquiry and secured the names of several members of the mob. His formal investigation will be begun in the morning. Mr. Hamner stated to The Observer correspondent that he intended to investigate thoroughly and bring all the guilty parties to justice, as the law has made it his duty to do. He expects to be there for two or three days, but will by no means close the inquiry at the end of that time, as there is no limitation of time within which indictments may be found until all the offenders have been brought to trial.

As to the law the correspondent gives the following brief which it were well enough to have born in mind:

The law which requires the investigation is contained in the public acts of 1893, chapter 461, and is entitled "An act to protect prisoners confined in jail under the charge of crime until they can be fairly tried by a jury of good and lawful men in open court." Section 1 defines the crime and fixes the punishment as follows: "Every person who shall conspire to break or enter any jail or other place of confinement of prisoners charged with crime or under sentence for the purpose of killing or otherwise injuring any prisoner confined therein; and every person who engages in breaking or entering any such jail or other place of confinement of such prisoners with intent to kill or injure any prisoner, shall be fined by the court having jurisdiction of the offence not less than five hundred dollars and imprisoned in the State prison of the county jail not less than two nor more than fifteen years."

The other leading provisions of the act may be briefly summarized. Power is given the solicitor to compel the attendance of witnesses at the investigation by issuing subpoenas or other process, and any witness wilfully refusing to attend, or being present refuses to answer, is made guilty of a misdemeanor. The Superior Courts of any and all adjoining counties, but not the Superior Court of the county in which the offence is committed, are given jurisdiction. No witness is to be excused on the ground that his testimony might incriminate him, but it shall not be used against him, and witnesses for the State are pardoned of any participation in the crime. The costs of the investigation and further prosecution are to be borne by the county in which the crime is committed unless paid by the persons convicted. The early investigation, which it is the duty of the solicitor to make for the apprehension of offenders, is to be held before the coroner of the county, a judge of the Superior Court or a justice of the peace.

THE HON. (I) C. D. BARRINGER.

Mr. C D Barringer has announced himself a candidate for sheriff of Cabarrus county. He has ignored the Standard which is the right thing to do unless he is prepared to make the amende honorable for his very unkind, unchristian and ungentlemanly conduct. It is no choice of ours to resent his vicious deeds and expose a situation so full of surprising meanness, for which he is in a very great degree responsible, and while he remained in private life (for which his talents alone fit him) we preferred to let matters be where they are; but since he has announced himself for public favors his name is public property and his conduct is of interest to the public. We propose to stop just here and wait still for developments to show whether or not he has yet the sense of honor to prompt him to amend wrongs done.

We avow at the beginning that we are not resenting the absence of his announcement in the Standard, for we had resolved not to touch a fee from him without an apology and we shall adhere to it.

THE ELECTION OF JUDGES.

There is some confusion in the minds of our people as to the judges to be elected next fall. We must elect a chief justice and two associates for the Supreme Court.

Judges must be elected for the districts that elected judges in 1894 under the fusion regime.

They are E W Timberlake, of the 4th district; W S O'B Robinson, of the 6th; Albert L Coble, of the 10th; and Henry R Starbuck of the 11th. Beside these the following judges of the newly created districts must be elected or their places filled by others as they were appointed for the time now expiring, viz: Francis D Winston, of the 2nd district; Walter H Neal, of the 8th; M H Justice, of the 14th and Geo. A Jones; of the 16th.

Ours being the 12th district we do not nominate a judge this time, but the entire State elects the judges.

Even a Stole Groans

under the torment of neuralgia, when every nerve in face or limb throbs and jumps. Philosophy cannot endure this agony but Perry Davis' Painkiller relieves it. Bathe the affected parts freely, keep them warm, and do not expose yourself to cold and dampness. Medical science marches right along, but it has not found the equal of Pain Killer in the treatment of neuralgia.
