CONCORD, N. C., June 18, 1902.

It is to be hoped that the endless chain is now effectually broken.

It will be well enough for our people to bear in mind that nobody is going to pay more for their services than they themselves conceive that such services are worth.

It would be hard to conceive how Judge Boyd could proceed more righteously with the cherry tree swindlers. His object is to inflict punishment on the criminals by forcing them to do justice as far as possible to their victims.
It is ideal jurisprudence.

A HORRIBLE STORY.

Death Refuses to Embrace a Woman
Worse Off Alive.

New Orleans, June 18.—Mrs.
Westrope, who killed her six children in Claybourne county, Miss., shooting five and burning the baby to death, and after burning down her house, fled to the woods and attempted suicide, is still alive. But she is in a critical condition, owing to the two rifle wounds in her side inflicted by her own hand. She is at the home of her father, eighteen miles east of Port Gibson and the authorities have as yet taken no steps to arrest her, owing to her condition.

She prays to die and when captured handed the gun to one of the posse and piteously begged to be killed, crying: "I have slept on the grave of my dead sister all night waiting the funeral of my six dead children and after they are buried I intended taking my life across their graves."

The six children were buried yesterday all in one grave. Mrs.
Westrope's case is very peculiar, as there are long intervals when she is perfectly sane.

FATAL WRECK NEAR SHELBY.

Passenger Coach and Four Freight Cars Plunge Down 75 Feet—One Man Killed.

A mixed train on the South Carolina and Georgia Extension railroad had a peculiar experience in crossing the river two miles north of Shelby Thursday morning about 9 o'clock when the trestle 75 feet high gave way and the passenger coach and four freight cars went down.
Mr. Lee Grigg, of Shelby, was killed and Conductor E Turner was severely though not fatally hurt. A few of the 15 passengers were bruised but it was next to a miracle that any escaped. Fortunately it was the trestle and not the bridge proper that gave way or all would doubtless have been drowned in Broad river.

The engineer as he crossed found that something was giving way and threw the throttle wide open thus probably saving part of his train.

Charlotte Contractor Must Come to Concord.

That Concord is pushing to the front in many ways has been known to us for quite a while and frequently has The Standard called attention to the fact that things are booming in this neck of the woods, but we were a little surprised when told by a Charlotte contractor the other day that there twice is as much building going on in Concord as there is in Charlotte. He further told us, that, while not speaking disparagingly of his home town, things were a little slow on the move down there, but that after the ball season closed and people got over the effects of that and the legalized primary, they might wake up and get up a hustle on themselves, but in the meantime he was hunting outside contracts.

It is pleasing to note the building boom that Concord is now enjoying. On every hand one sees the evidence of prosperity—that of new buildings being erected. Our carpenters are all busy and but few idle men, if any, are to be found upon our streets.

So great is the demand for material that all can not be supplied. Work on the graded school building has been delayed for two weeks on account of inability to receive lumber. But when it does arrive the citizens in that neighborhood will become aware of the fact that something is occurring, for the contract calls for its completion by September 10th.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire.
Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation.
"But," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 11 boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions,

THE SALISBURY CONVENTION.

B. F. Long Nominated for Judge From the 10th District on the 412th Ballot at 2:30 o'clock at Night—Mr. W. C.
Hammer Unopposed for Solicitor.

The nomination of Benjamin F. Long, of Iredell, for Superior Court Judge from the 10th judicial district was effected at 2:30 a. m. today, June 20th, in the connection which met in Salisbury on the 19th. It was an exceedingly trying occasion.

The convention was called to order at 12 o'clock and Hon. Jno.
S. Henderson was made permanent chairman.

Mr. W. C. Hammer was, unanimously, and without opposition, nominated for solicitor, and addressed the convention.

Balloting began for judge after nominating speeches were made in favor of Mr. B. F. Long, Mr.
T. B. Baily and Mr. E. E. Raper.
The result of the first ballot was, Long 154, Baily 90, Raper 70.

It was a deadlock and the convention took a recess from 3 o'clock till 4 and from 5:30 to 8 o'clock. Some changes were made but not enough to effect the nomination of Mr. Long, who lacked only 4 1/2 votes for the greater part of the time till the 412th ballot was reached when he got 165 votes, seven more than was needed to nominate him and the nomination was made unanimous.

There was some sharp acri-mony and serious confusion at one time but adjustment of difficulties was effected.

There is no rational way to treat nasal catarrh; the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane.
The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost sense of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it 10 50c ets. Ely Brothers' 56 Warren Street, New York will mail it.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.
Ely's Cream Balm
cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane.
It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.
Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.
