CONGRESS ADJOURNS.

Congress adjourned Tuesday at 5:30 p. m.

The house was especially in fine spirits and thanked speaker Henderson and sang America, The Star Spangled Banner, Dixie and other songs, and indulged in cheering and all sorts of expressions of jollity and good will.

The senate had some sharp debating, but also closed with resolutions of thanks to its presiding officer, Mr. Frye, by Senator Cockrell, the venerable Democrat from Missouri.

Thus the 57th congress has become history. It is said to have done an unusual amount of business and the appropriations made will amount to $1,000,000,000. Of course the Isthmian canal legislation towers above all other new legislation and will make a new epoch in our history.

Had the Appalachian park bill gone through and Cuban tariff modification been effected it would have made a rounding up that would have called for a universal jubilee.

The Union Veterans of Philadelphia, composed of Union army, navy and marine corps, who volunteered prior to 1863 and served as much as two years signified their desire to hold their reunion encampment in Richmond next year and so addressed the camp at Richmond. The Richmond veterans discussed the matter and a motion favorable to welcoming them was tabled. Those Richmond vets do not want to get too very spooney yet.

Hon. Lee S. Overman spent the day in our city on business. It is well-known that he is a candidate for the United States Senate. It would be the pride of the Old North State to replace Senator Pritchard, who is a great Southern Republican because there are no other Southern Senators to contrast him with, with such a man as Lee Overman. Anyhow we have but to hold our forces together to place a man in the Senate that will be a glory and not a reproach to the State. We want a man that will not neutralize his better work by reflections against his own State just because it is in the hands of its best element. Overman would be a fine contrast and successor to Pritchard.

If Dewey has read Aguinaldo's characteristics correctly, which is most probable, "Aggie" is much more of a looter than a patriot and not half the object of honor that high flying orators hold him up to be. As to Dewey, he most certainly managed affairs right well and only lost his head when he returned home and imbibed a little too much of public adulation, artillery punch and feminine fascinations. But the old sea fighter has cooled down and his views are doubtless worth something.

Rich Girl and Negro Elope.

This community is greatly excited over the elopement of Josephine Gardner, the 18 year-old daughter of a wealthy contractor, with James Cooper, a negro coachman, formerly employed by the girl's father. The elopers were arrested at Schenectady on complaint of the girl's mother, who had followed them to that city.

They were found in a boarding house in Ferry street, having been turned away from every hotel. The girl left home on Tuesday, ostensibly to visit relatives in Glens Falls. Instead she joined Cooper in Schenectady. Her mother took her home.

Cooper was detained at police headquarters for a time, but was released upon his promise to quit the city at once.

Miss Gardner is not only handsome, but well educated and accomplished. Knowledge of the elopement came to the parents through a note inadvertently dropped and which was picked up by her father. When placed under arrest they did not deny that they had eloped, but told the detectives that they intended to be married.

At police headquarters the girl was at first sullen and refused to talk. After being lectured by her mother she broke down and wept. She said she did not realize the seriousness of what she had done and concluded to return home. It was she who went to the Ferry street house and engaged the rooms in which they were living when caught. She told the proprietor that she had encountered some difficulty in securing quarters on account of her color. She said she and her husband were Spaniards and that he was much darker than she. He waited at the station until she had made all the arrangements. As a matter of fact, the girl, while of dark complexion, does not in any manner resemble a negro or a Spaniard. Cooper, however, is a full-blooded negro.

Miss Gardner has been popular and heretofore has borne an excellent reputation.—Auburn, N. Y., Dispatch to The Baltimore Sun.

Acts Immediately.

Colds are sometimes more troublesome in summer than in winter, it's so hard to keep from adding to them while cooling off after exercise. One minute Cough Cures at once. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Sore cure for coughs, colds, croup, throat and lung troubles.—Gibson's Drug Store.

The Emergency Shelf.

The first time my husband walked in with three extra people for dinner nearly brought me to the verge of nervous prostration. My dinner, already cooked, consisted of four lamb chops, six potatoes and two cups of custard. It meant a scramble and a polite refusal of every dish on the table by my husband and myself. After that day I added what I called an emergency shelf where will be found one bottle of salad dressing, one can of lobster, one can of salmon, one can of deviled ham, three cans of assorted soups, several bottles of fancy pickles and a package of banquet wafers. Canned vegetables are of course a necessity. As soon as anything is used, replace it at once. The housekeeper who once starts an emergency shelf will never let it drop out of the pantry. She is amply repaid by having friends say they always are certain she is prepared for company. Chopped celery ready for a salad, can also be added; it makes a nice addition to the list, as salads are generally liked by all people.—Good Housekeeping.

A Poor Millionaire.

Lately starved in London because he could not digest his food. Early use of Dr. King's New Life Pills would have saved him. They strengthen the stomach, aid digestion, promote assimilation, improve appetite. Price 25c. Money back if not satisfied. Sold by P B Fetzer, druggist.

As "music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," so has the low, soft sweet voice of a woman. A rich man recently called up the "hello" girl in the central office in San Francisco. Her sweet, gentle tones charmed his ear, he sought her acquaintance, and finding the young lady in accord with her dulcet tones he went to courting right away. Result, marriage, resignation of the "hello" job, and now they are going on a bridal jaunt to Yurup.—Selected.

Stepped Into Live Coals.

"When a child I burned my foot frightfully," writes W H Eads, of Jonesville, Va., "which caused horrible leg sores for 30 years, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured me after everything else failed." Infalible for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Sores, Bruises and Piles. Sold at Fetzer's drug store—25c.

The first Wake county melons were placed on the market Saturday by Mr. Vernon Bunn of Garner and met with a ready sale. This is said to be at least ten days or two weeks earlier than last year.—Morning Post.

Poisoning the System.

It is through the bowels that the body is cleansed of impurities. Constipation keeps poisons in the system, causing headache, dulness and melancholia at first, then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. DeWitt's Little Early Risers prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver & promoting easy, healthy action of the bowels. These little pills do not act violently but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress.—Gibson's Drug Store.
